THURSDAY, JULY 3,

On account of his illness the coronation of King Edward has been postponed until the last of September.

King Edward who was stricken down with disease last week, necessitating pestpenement of the coronation festivities, is now reported out of danger.

The Indian war veteran pension bill was signed by President Roosevelt last Saturday and became a faw. As soon as possible the necessary blanks will be ready to furnish claimants upon application. Senator Mitchell who introduced the bill, and essman Tongue who worked specialty. actively in its behalf in the house, are very much pleased with the result, and deserve great credit from the people of Oregon.

Ex-President Cleveland is being encouraging by a faction of democracy to take an active and leading part in shaping the future course of the democratic party, and he seems willing to be restored to leadership, secretly believing, no doubt, that the ilis suffered for the past six years by that political organization have been due to the lack of his participation in its management, Our the ot her hand Bryan and his followers are bitterly opposed to Cleveland and would knife the party rather than allow him to rise in influence and power. As a result democracy is now disturbed by more dissension and division than ever, and it looks impossible for the contending leaders to harmonize and secure union of action among the masses. Hence, the defeated wing of the party will help re-instate the republican admin-
