KLAMATH REPUBLICAN.

VOL. VII.

KLAMATH FALLS, KLAMATH COUNTY, OREGON, SEPTEMBER 25, 1902.

TWO HEMISPHERES.

York banker, met death in a mysterious manner.

Many Readers.

ending the strike.

with the convict's brother.

CHAPTER VII-Continued.

Mr. Gregson, who had listened to this address with considerable impatience, could contain himself no longer. 'Look here, Mr. Sherlock Holmes, "we are all ready to acknowledge that you are a smart man, and that you have your own methods of We want something more working. than mere theory and preaching now, though. man. I have made my case out, and this second affair. Lestrade went after put any questions that you like to me man, Stangerson, and it appears that he was wrong, too. You have refuse to answer them." thrown out hints here and hints there, and seem to know more than we do. but the time has come when we feel that we have a right to ask you straight how much you do know of the business. Can you name the man who did it?"

have both tried, and we have both against the advance of civilization. You have remarked more than hold it any longer?" "Any delay in arresting the assassin," I observed, "might give him time throughout this grim district. It comto perpetrate some fresh atrocity."

nowed signs of irresolution There are swiftly-flowing rivers He continued to walk up and down which dash through jagged canyons; showed signs of irresolution the room with his head sunk on his and there are enormous plains, which chest and his brows drawn down, as in winter are white with snow, and in was his habit when lost in thought.

"There will be no more murders," he dust. They all preserve, however, the said, at last, stopping abruptly and fac- common characteristic of barrenness, "You can put that considera- inhospitality and misery, ing us. tion out of the question. You have There are no inhabitants of this land asked me if I know the name of the of despair. assassin. I do. The mere knowing of A band of Pawnees or of Blackfeet his name is a small thing, however, compared with the power of laying our hands upon him. This I expect very may occasionally traverse it in order to reach other hunting grounds, but the hardiest of the braves are glad to lose to do. I have good hopes of sight of those awesome plains and to ing up at his grimy visage. managing it through my own arrange- find themselves once more upon their ments; but it is a thing which needs prairies, delicate handling, for we have a shrewd and desperate man to deal the buzzard flaps heavily through the with, who is supported, as I have had air, and the clumsy grizzly bear lum- your mother." occasion to prove, by another who is as clever as himself. As long as this man picks up such sustenance as it can has no idea that any one can have a clew, there is some chance of securing but if he had the slightest suspicion, he would change his name, and vanish in an instant among the four inhabitants of this great city. Without meaning to hurt either of your feelings. I am bound to say that I consider these men to be more than a arral bushes. match for the official force, and that is why I have not asked your assistance. If I fail I shall, of course, incur all the blame due to this omission; but that I am prepared for. At present I am ready to promise that the instant unloate with 2011 without endangering my own combinations I shall do so. Gregson and Lestrade seemed to be tive police. The former had flushed up to the

do it.' స్తున్న విజర్జులో అనిజర్లో సర్మామాలో సర్మామాలో సర్యామాలో సర్యామాలో సర్యామాలో సర్యామాలో సర్యామాలో సర్యామాలో కర్ in getting his hand inside his neckcloth and half strangling him that we made him realize that his struggles a mother's care. were of no avail; and even then we felt no security until we had pinioned healthy arms and legs showed that she

"We have his cab," said Sherlock towsy-golden curls which covered the Holmes "It will serve to take him to back of her head. It is a case of taking the Scotland Yard. And now, gentlemen, now, and there is no danger that I will her before long."

> PART II. The Country of the Saint, -CHAPTER I.

In the central portion of the great "I cannot help feeling that Gregson an arid and repulsive desert, which for North American Continent there is right, sir," remarked Lestrade. "We many a long year served as a barrier From the Bierra Nevada to once since I have been in the room braska, and from the Yellowstone rivthat you had all the evidence which er in the north to the Colorado upon you require. Surely you will not with the south, is a region of desolation and slience.

Nor is nature always in one prises snow-capped and lofty moun-Thus pressed by us all, Holmes tains and dark gloomy valleys.

summer are gray with the saline alkali bers through the dark ravines, and among the rocks. These are the sole pinafore and sobbing bitterly.

dwellers in the wilderness. In the whole world there can be no northern slope of the Sierra Blanco. As far as the eye can reach stretches the great flat plainland, all dusted though over with patches of alkali, and intersected by clumps of the dwarfish chap-us now! with their rugged summits necked with face snow. In this great stretch of coun-

"Why didn't you say so before?" she said, laughing gleefully. "You gave me try there is no sign of life, nor of anything appertaining to life. is no bird in the steel-blue such a fright. Why, of course, now as heaven, no movement upon the dull, long as we die we'll be with mother gray earth-above all there is abso- again." "Yes, you will, dearle." lute silence. Listen as one may, there far from satisfied by this assurance, or by the deprecating allusion to the de-mighty wilderness; nothing but silence awful good you've been. I'll bet she complete and heart-subduing silence. meets us at the door of heaven with It has been said there is nothing ap- a big pitcher of water, and a lot of pertaining to life upon the broad plain.

Instantly there broke from the gray EVENTS OF THE DAY there protruded a small, scared face. with very bright, brown eyes, and two ttle speckled, dimpled fists. "You've hurt me!" said a childish oice, reproachfully.

"Have I, though?" the man an wered, penitently; "I didn't go for to

As he spoke, he unwrapped the gray shawl and extricated a pretty little girl of about five years of age, whose dainty shoes and smart pink frock, with its little linen apron, all bespoke his feet as well as his hands. That done, we rose to our feet, breathless "How is it now?" he answered, anxand Washington is now over. lously, for she was still rubbing

"Kiss it and make it well," she said, he continued, with a pleasant smile, "we have reached the end of our little jured part up to him. "That's what it seems I was wrong. Young Char-"we have reached the end of our little jured part up to him. "That's what pentler could not have been engaged in mystery. You are very welcome to mother used to do. Where's mother?" "Mother's gone. I guess you'll see

"Gone, eh?" said the little girl, "Funny, she didnt say good-bye; she 'most always did if she was just goin' over to auntie's for tea, and now she's been away for three days. Say, it's awful dry, ain't it? Ain't there no water nor nothing to eat?" "No, there ain't nothing, dearle meat being placed on the market. You'll just nee dto be patient awhile, and then you'll be all right. Put your head up agin me, like that, and then you'll feel better. It ain't easy to talk when your lips are like leather, but I control guess I'd best let you know how the cards lie. What's that you've got?" "Pretty things! fine things!" cried the little girl, ethuisastically, holding cussed the results of possible wars with the sea pirates. up two glittering fragments of mica. Germany, Italy and England. When we goes back to home I'll give them to brother Bob." Rockport, a small town in Kentucky,

"You'll see prettier things than them is in the hands of a drunken mob. soon," said the man, confidently. "You lis in the hands of a drunken mob. Citizens are afraid to ask for outside aid for fear the mob may burn the you, though-you remember when we town. ft th > river?"

"Weil, we reckoned we strike an other river soon, d'ye see. But there was somethin' wrong; compasses or map, or somethin', and it didn't turn Water ran out. Just except a little drop for the likes of you andyears ago there were 29 feet of water.

"And you couldn't wash yourself," in terrupted his companion, gravely, star-"No, nor drink. And Mr. Bender, he was the first to go, and then Indian The coyote skulks among the scrub. Pete, and then Mrs. McGregor, and then Johnny Hones, and then, dearie, "Then mother's a deader too," cried the little girl, dropping her face in her "Yes; they all went except you and Then I t'ought there was some me.

more dreary view than that from the chance of water in this direction, so I heaved you on my shoulder and we tramped it together. It don't seem as improved we've There's an almighty small chance for

Do you mean that we are going to On the extreme verge of the horizon die, too?" asked the child, checking lie a long chain of mountain peaks, her sobs, and raising her tear-stained "I guess that's about the size of it."

Russia Will Take Active Steps to Prevent Sealing on Siberian Coast. GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE

London, Sept. 19. - In a dispatch from Odessa the correspondent of the Standard says the Russian minister of agriculture and state domain, M. Yer-Comprehensive Review of the Import. miloff, has announced that he has now ant Happenings of the Past Week. taken effective measures for the sup-Presented in Condensed Form, Most pression of the systematic poaching Likely to Prove Interesting to Our operations of Americans and Japanese among the seal and other sea animals on the northeastern coast of Siberia. Danger from forest fires in Oregon Although anxious to comply with the reiterated representations of Russia, Speaker Henderson declines to accept the Washington and Tokio governments the nomination for congress in Iowa. have failed to put an end to this illicit Nicholas Fish, a well known New fishing in Russian waters. M. Yermiloff, continues the corres Pennsylvania coal operators held a pondent, now gives formal notice that conference, but took no action toward American and Japanese poachers captured within the limits of Russia's covered Merrill's body, has eloped coast will be liable to three months' the Pacific coast record to 2:26 1/4.

POACHING MUST CEASE.

imprisonment, and their ships and cardiscrimination will be made. The superintendent.

The government will supply men to commanders and crews of poaching fight forest fires in Colorado and Wy- vessels will be subjected to the same surrender or attempt to escape, the tent of $12,000.

The French marine minister made a commanders of the Russian gunboats sensational speech in which he dis- are empowered to fire upon and sink

TO ASK FOR STATEHOOD.

Meeting of Governors of Five Indian Tertitory Tribes.

Guthrie, O. T., Sept. 19. - Pleasant

Porter, governor of the Creek Indian The mouth of the Columbia river is in very bad condition. A sand bar has nation, has called a meeting of the formed clear across the entrance and at no place on it is a depth of more than to be held at South McAlester, I. T., 20 feet to be found at low tide. Four on Sept. 26, for the purpose of formulating a general plan for bringing the Russia is preparing to evacuate Man-Indian Territory into statehood at the Explorer Peary has been heard from dians are opposed to statehood with time ago.

> Oklahoma. The other governors are Mosely, of the Chickasaws; Green Mcmost important held on Indian soil, as the five governors will form plans to dissolve their governments to adopt that of the white man.

> > AMERICANS FEEL SAFER.

Indians in Distress.

Martial Law in Cape Colony,

Boxers Surround City.

A locomotive boiler explcded on the Arrival of Warships at Panama Brings a Feeling of Relief. New York, Sep. 19 .- Among Ameri-

Reports from Pekin say that Boxers can citizens on the isthmus there is are again becoming troublesome in now a feeling of relief, as there is now to be held at The Dalles September 3

NEWS OF OREGON

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

Commercial and Financial Happenings of the Past Week-Brief Review of the Growth and Development of Various Industries Throughout Our Commonwealth-Latest Market Report.

legislature to cut down the expenses of the state printing office.

The pulp mill near Skamokawa, which was recently destroyed by fire, will be rebuilt at once.

The assessor of Yamhill county in that county at $5,125,262.25.

In the trotting race for two-year-olds, Mrs. Waggoner, the woman who dis- maritime jurisdiction on the Siberian at the state fair, Helen Norte reduced

The office of Indian agent at Uma-St. Louis authorities are having much goes to confiscation. This order will tilla has been abelished and the agency trouble with packers on account of bad be enforced by three fast gunboats. No and school placed in charge of a bonded into a contract for the construction of under control. oming, where it has got beyond all punishment. In case of refusal to a new water works system to the ex- In response to a request for information

The Oregon Woolgrowers' association. in a session at Pendleton, adopted strong resolutions favoring the continuation of the scalp bounty law.

pheasants has been grossly violated in The rangers have been fighting these Linn county, but Game Warden fires since their inception, and extra Quimby finds it almost impossible to help has been employed to battle do anything.

An immense warehouse is being erected at Medford. It is expected to governors of the Five Civilized Tribes be completed in time to receive the apple crop, the harvesting of which will commence about October 1.

M. P. Isenberg, of Hood River, has been appointed supervisor of the northexpiration of tribal government in forest reserve, to succeed W. H. Dufur, 1906. Governor Porter says the In- whose appointment was recalled some

An enormous coal field is being deof the Cherokees; and Johnston, of the been uncovered and the field covers an Seminoles. The meeting will be the area of about 12 square miles. The coal is of a very high quality.

> Captain H. L. Kelly, of Company A, Third regiment, O. N. G., at Oregon City, has resigned.

Petowya, a Umatilla Indian woman, has just died. She remembered Captain Clark well. She was 113 years old.

Extensive preparations are being been poisoned by the foreigners, and hence the high death rate. One aftermade for the carnival and district fair noon Mr. Lewis was studying with his teacher, and Mr. Bruce was i across te hall, when in an instant the house and street became crowded with people. Mr. Bruce was drawn by his is exceptionally good, the fish being hair out of the room and into the yard where, with clubs, stones, knives, swords and torture he was soon killed. Mr. Lewis and his teacher went out at the back door into the yard and started to climb upon an old shed, when a stroke from a spear brought the former to the ground. With the same instruments, his body was soon mangled beyond recognition. After this the motdestroyed all foreign books and other articles they could not use. The trunks and boxes were broken open, but not any of the poison could be found. When the crowd had almost disappeared, the chihfu arrived. On the same street and a few doors away were stationed soldiers for their protection. ane A British warship was sent to the scene upon receipt of the news. All holdings of the Necanicum

Washington, Sept. 18. - Secretary Hitchcock today received dispatches from the governors of Colorado and Wyoming appealing for government assistance in fighting a terrific forest fire that is raging on government timber lands along the Colorado-Wyoming boundary line, near the southeast corner of Carbon county, Wyoming. The secretary will give all aid poesible, and

HELP TO FIGHT FIRE.

Governors of Wyoming and Colorado Ap-peal to Government for Assistance.

NO. 25.

An effort will be made by the next to that end at once ordered Supervisor Atherly, of the Crow creek reservation, to assist in fighting the fire reported burning at Pearl, just south of the Medicine Bow forest reserve. They will employ a large number of men to The assessor of Yamhill county places the gross value of all property in that county at $5,125,262.25. action the department can take. No request will be made fo the war department for assistance.

A new forest fire that stretches over a large area is reported in official advices in the South Platte forest reserve, in Wyoming. Forest Supervisor Michelson and a large force of men are working to extinguish it. The dispatches report that the fire near Dallas citizens have voted to enter Saratoga, Wyo., has been brought on the situation in Washington, the interior department this afternoon received a telegram from Superintendent Shelter, in charge of the forest reserve tracts in Washington state, saying that two fires were raging over a large The game law regarding Chinese area inside the Mount Rainier reserve. against the flames. The reports show that the big fire near Enumclaw is mostly on private lands, which in recent years have been extensivey lumbered, the mills being mostly located at Tacoma and on the line of the Northern Pacific.

MASSACRED IN THE ORIENT.

Two Englishmen Were Suspected of Poisoning a Spring.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 18. - Details were received by the Empress of India

For weeks the cholera has been depopulating the cities along the Yuan river. In Changte people died daily by the score, and from reliable reports, the same can be said of the cities west. The city is built on a billside, and in the center thereof is a spring from which the people obtain much of their water. This was reported to have roots of his flaxen hair, while the other's beady eyes glistened with curl- That is hardly true. osity and resentment.

Neither of them had time to speak. however, before there was a tap at the across the desert, which winds away and is lost in the extreme distance. It is rutted with wheels and trodden door and the spokesman of the street arab, young Wiggins, introduced his down by the feet of many adventurers. insignificant and unsavory person.

'Please, sir," he said, touching his Here and there are scattered white objects which glisten in the sun and forelock. "I have the cab down stairs." "Good boy," said Holmes, blandly, stand out against the dull deposit of

"Why don't you introduce this pattern alkali. at Scotland Yard?" he continued, tak- Approach and examine them! They ing a pair of steel handcuffs from a are bones; some large and coarse, "See how beautifully the others smaller and more delicate. spring works. They fasten in an in- former have belonged to oxen, the latter to men. stant

For fifteen hundred miles one may "The old pattern is good enough." remarked Lestrade, "If we can find the trace this ghastly caravan route by these scattered remains of those who man to put them on." 'Very good, very good," said Holmes, had fallen by the wayside.

smilling. "The cabman may as well Looking down on this very scene, help me with my boxes. Just ask him there stood upon the 4th of May, 1847, a solitary traveler. His appearance was such that he to step up. Wiggins."

I was surprised to find my companmight have been the very genius or ion speaking as though we were about to start out on a journey, since he had demon of the region. An observer would have found it difficult to not said nothing to me about it. whether he was nearer to forty or to There was a small portmanteau in the room, and this he pulled out and sixty. His face was lean and haggard, and began to strap.

He was busily engaged at it when bones; his long, brown hair and beard the cabman entered the room. "Just give me a help with this buckle, cabman," he said, kneeling were all flecked and dashed with white; his eyes were sunken in his over his task, and never turning his head, and burned with an unnatural luster, while the hand which grasped head

The fellow came forward with a that of a skeleton. As he stood, he leaned upon his somewhat sullen defiant air, and put down his hands to assist weapon for support, and yet his tall At that instant there was a sharp figure and the massive framework of click, the jangling of metal, and Sherhis bones suggested a wiry and vigorlock Holmes sprang to his feet again.

"Gentlemen," he cried, with flashing eyes, "let me introduce to you Mr Jefferson Hope, the murderer of Enoch Drebber and Joseph Stangerson. The whole thing occurred in a mo ment-so quickly that I had no time to realize it.

I have a vivid recollection of that in stant, of Holmes' triumphant expression and the ring of his voice, of the cabman's dazed, savage face, as he glared at the glistening handcuffs, which had appeared as if by magic of water.

upon his wrists. For a second or two we might have been a group of statues. Then, with an inarticular of statues of the price of plant or tree which might an inarticulate roar of fury, the pris-oner wrenched himself free from In all that broad landscape there grasp, and hurled himself cast, and west he looked with Holmes' through the window.

Woodwork and glass gave way before him; but before he got quite through Gregson, Lestrade and Holmes sprang upon him like so many stag- crag.

He was dragged back into the room, and then commenced a terrific conflict. So powerful and so fierce was he that the so fierce was he that the four of us were shaken off again and again. He appeared to have ited upon the ground nis useless rifle the convulsive strength of a man in and also a large bundle tied up in a His face and hands were terribly over his right shoulder.

glass, but loss of blood had no effect heavy for his strength, for, in lowering in diminishing his resistance. It was not until Lestrade succeeded some little violence.

buckwheat cakes, hot, and toasted or both sides, like Bob and me was fond Looking down from the Sierra Blan-of. How long will it be first?" "I don't know-not very long." The man's eyes were fixed on the northern horizon. In the blue vault of the heaven there appeared three little specks which increased in size every oment, so rapidly did they approach

They speedily resolved themselves into three large brown birds, which circled over the heads of the two wan derer, and then settled upon some rocks which overlooked them, They were buzzards, the vultures of the West, whose coming is the forerunner of death

(To be continued.) WENT HIM SOME BETTER.

Girl Improved on Excuse Offered by Her Little Brother.

Annie was late, and like a sensible child, she recognized the fact and stop-Not so Johnnie. He ped running. belonged to the class that never knows when it has enough of either joy or the brown, parchment-like skin was trouble, so he kept up his laborious drawn tightly over the projecting trot until the school door was reached. lars. There he leaned dejectedly and breathed heavily. Annie eyed him with a scorn that grew as she looked. Later on they stood in the office looking like his rifle was hardly more fleshy than a set of illustrations for L new version of the "Lives of the Hunted," and Johnny was talking. "I couldn't mean it," he sobbed. "It wuz me big sister Katie's fault. She made me eat three eggs, an' me mudder says I can't ous constitution. His gaunt face, however, and his hold that much till I'm nine years old, and-" He would have babbled on lothes, which hung so baggily over his shriveled limbs, proclaimed what indefinitely, the tears rolling off his it was that gave him that senile and fat, foolish little face, but the principal ecrepit appearance. The man was dying-dying from handed him his admission slip and turned to Annie. That young lady hunger and from thirst. He had toiled painfully down the rahad a passion for acquisition, so without further ado she acquired Johnnie's ine, and on to this little elevation, excuse.

in the vain hope of seeing some signs "I ate too many eggs. too, and it Now the great salt plain stretched made me late," she explained.

"Indeed," said the principal, "and how many did you est?" Annie's lips curled scornfully as she remembered Johnny and his miserable was no gleam of hope. North, and little three eggs. "I ate seventy-four," she replied. questioning eyes, and then he realized blandly .- New York Evening Sun.

What Alligators Eat.

ag, he was about to die. "Why not here, as well as in a feath-More than once curious things have been found in the stomach of a shark, but never has such an extraordinary collection been found as was discovered recently in the stomach of an alligator. This alligator was killed in the Soudan, and was more than 12 feet in length.

In its stemach were discovered eightyfive stones, several birds' claws, two It appeared to be somewhat too was attached.

Twenty-five villages have been swept the Panama railroad, cables the Pana-away and 6,000 people drowned by ma correspondent of the Herald. overflowing rivers in India.

and seriously injuring two.

buria.

matters

in Labrador.

the border.

fornia, is seriously ill.

erable damage to late crops.

Colorado scientists have advanced ate attack by the revolutinoists. the idea that many of the forest fires are set by meteors falling in the heavy

Senator Thomas R. Bard, of Cali-

A heavy frost in Ohio did consid-

Seventeen men lost their lives by ar

Fire in coalbunkers at Stockton,

Yaqui Indians are again causing serious disturbances in Mexico near Pennsylvania railway, killing one man explosion in a Norfolk, Va., mine.

Cal., resulted in $200,000 damage.

pine forests. Crusade against Sisters' schools is again on in France.

New. York Republicans have decided endorse Roosevelt for 1904.

President Roosevelt his invited seveal senators to confer with him on the tariff question.

Colombian insurgents are waiting for arms, when they will attack the Isthmus of Panama railroad.

The Venezuelan government has ests will be fully protected. The com- gagged. offered amnesty to revolutionists who pany's representatives are endeavoring lay down their arms in 40 days. to do whatever they can to facilitate

A conference arranged by Governor traffic. Stone to settle the coal miners' strike in Pennsylvania, ended in a failure. The Colombian government has purhased a steamer at San Francisco, which will be fitted out as a war vessel. Forest fires throughout the Northlection trip among the Navajo, Moqui west continue to cause widespread deand Pueblo Indians of Arizona. Mr. vastation. The property loss will run into the hundreds of thousands of dolnumbering about 20,000 men, women Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania railway systems have been amalgamated. The new combination will have a capitalizlife will result. Continued drouth ation of $2,000,000,000 and a mileage has caused this state of affairs. of 30,000 miles.

Every electric line in Ottumwa, Iowa, has been tied up by a strike.

A. R. Shepherd, ex-governor of the District of Columbia, died in Mexico.

The cold wave which struck Colorado has damaged the potato crop to a great extent.

China is disturbed over the determination of Russia to remain in Manchuria.

The Lake woolen mills at Bridgeton, New Jersey, were destroyed by fire. Loss $100,000. began.

Great Britain has secured an extension of reciprocity treaties pending with the United States.

> Mrs. William M. Stewart, wife of Senator Stewart, of Nevada, was killed in an automobile accident in San Francisco.

American generals who have been witnessing the German war maneuvers importation and registration of all arms and ammunition. have started for home.

The Beaumont, Texas, oil fire is under control. The loss will reach $250,000. It was caused by the caressness of a watchman.

the correspondent of the Daily Mail The battleship Oregon, which has says Cheng Tufu is surrounded by been undergoing repairs at the Puget 50,000 Boxers, but that their attempts human finger nails and three hoofs of a Sound navy yard for the last year, has to take the city have so far failed. donkey, to one of which a piece of rope sailed for San Francisco. It is thought | Without immediate help, however, she will be ordered to China. Cheng Tufu must fall.

a United States warship at each end of to October 5.

The fall run of salmon at The Dalles There are no indications of an immedi- of a large size.

Hoppickers in a number of Willam-In a personal interview with Acting ette valley yards have struck for 50 General Superintendent Prescott, of cents per box. The increase was given the Panama railroad, regarding the in most cases.

The Mt. Angel college opened its application of the decree to natives em-16th year with an attendance that ployed by the corporation, he said that promises well for the coming season. his company is doing everything possi- The new stone building to be used by ble to protect them, and its own prop-erty, in accordance with the treaty of the college is rapidly nearing comple-tion.

1846, embodying the contract with the Two masked men entered the O. Colombian government, and with the & N. depot at North Powder and at the assistance of all the employes of the point of a revolver compelled the agent to open the safe. They secured $300 Panama road in attending exclusively to their official duties, company inter- after which the agent was bound > Spruce Lumber company, including the sawmill, box factory and several thousand acres of timber tributary to the Necanicum and O'Hanna, have been sold to Minneapolis capitalists.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 19 .- Frederick I. Monser, of San Francisco, the The consideration was over $100,000. scientist and lecturer, has returned The company plans extensive improvefrom a six week' exploration and col- ments.

PORTLAND MARKETS. Monser states that the Navajo tribe, and children, is rapidly approaching Wheat-Walla Walla, 61%@62c; blue the starvation point, and that unless stem, 64@64 %c; valley, 62@64c. speedy and substantial aid is rendered Barley-Feed, $19.00; brewing $20. them fearful distress and great loss of Flour-Best grades, $3.05@3 75 per barrel; graham, $2.95@3.20. Millstuffs - Bran, $17 per middlings, $21.50; shorts, Coal Washery Burned.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 19 .- The Taylor chep, $17. company washery in North Scranton was destroyed by fire, which started at $1. Oats-No.1 white, $1.00; gray, 95@

12:30 o'clock this morning. It is al-Hay - Timothy, $10@11; clover leged to be of incendiary origin. The $7.50; Oregon wild hay, $5@6 per watchman declared that he chased four ton. prowlers from the premises just before

Potatoes - Best Burbanks, 60@656 he discovered the fire. The washery per cental; ordinary, 50@55c per cenhas been in operation for a month. al, growers prices; sweets, $2.00 This is the third Scranton washery @2.25 per cental. to be destroyed by fire since the strike

Butter-Creamery, 25@27%c; dairy 17%@20c; store, 12%@15c. Eggs-22%c for Oregon.

Cheese - Full cream, twins, 12%

Cape Town, Sept. 19. - Sir John @13c; YoungAmerica, 13%@14%c; fac-Gordon Spriggs, prime minister of the tory prices, 1@ 1%c less. colony, has announced, before the Poultry-Chickens, mixed, $3.00@ house of assembly and in the governhens, $4.50@5.50 per dozen, .00: ment Gazette, the repeal of martial law 11@11%c per pound; springs, 11@ and the proclamation of the peace 11%c per pound, $3.00@3.50 per dozpreservation act, which enables the en; ducks, $3.00@4.50 per dozen; turgovernment to control the possession. keys, live, 13@14c, dressed, 15@16c per pound; geese, $4.00@6.00 per dozen. Mutton-Gross, 2%@3c per pound; dressed, 6c per pound.

London, Sept. 19. - Cabling from per pound. Shanghai under date of September 17, Beef-Gross, cows. 3@3%c; steers. 1/2@4 1/2 c; dressed, 6@7c per pound.

WASHINGTON DEMOCRATS.

State Convention Meets in Tacoma and Nominates Ticket.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 17 .- The Democratic state convention, after a session lasting until nearly midnight last night, completed its business and adjourned. 1000 11.400 The following ticket was nominated by acclamation :- ; -----

Representatives in congress-George F. Cotterill, of King. Stephen E. Barron, of Okanogan. and O. R. Holcomb.

Judge of supreme court-James K. Reavis, of Yakima.

United States senator- George Turner was indorsed for re-election.

The platform adopted endorses the Kansas City platform, opposes imperialism and colonialism, government by injunction, trusts and trust fostering tariffs, and asset currency. It condemns special privileges given for grazing sheep on government forest reserves, and demands complete excinsion from all American territory of all Chinese, and denounces the Republican majority in congress for "passing the present weak and inadequate law." Abhorrence is expressed of the tragedy that resulted in the death of President McKinley. The convention declared in favor of a railroad commission to be appointed by the governor first, and subsequently chosen in such manner as the legislature shall determine.

British Soldiers Arrive From India.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 18.-There ar-rived by the Empress of India today a contingent of 132 non-commission officers and men of the Royal Horse artillery. These are under the command of Captain R. E. Tilney, the only commissioned officer among them. Among the party are many time expired men, who have seen seven and 12

Hops-16@17c; new crop 20@22c. Wool-Valley,12%@15;Eastern Ore-gon, 8@14%c: mohain, 25@26c pound, to Montreal and thence to Liverpool.

estat. for a constitut fer estimat equivel of large corporte art to bree ares out of the Hogs-Gross, 6%c; dressed, 7@7%c Veal-7@8c per pound.