

A PASTOR WHO WAS REFRINED BY AN EMPEROR SAVED BY PE-RU-NA

Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Elkhorn, Wis., is pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Church of that place. Rev. Stubenvoll is the possessor of two bibles presented to him by Emperor William of Germany. Upon the fly leaf of one of the bibles the Emperor has written in his own handwriting a text.

This honored pastor, in a recent letter to the Pe-Ru-Na Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, says concerning their famous catarrh remedy, Pe-Ru-Na:

The Pe-Ru-Na Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
Gentlemen:—I had hemorrhages of the lungs for a long time, and all despaired of me. I took Pe-Ru-Na and was cured. It gave me strength and courage, and made healthy, pure blood. It increased my weight, gave me a healthy color, and I feel well. It is the best medicine in the world. If everyone kept Pe-Ru-Na in the house it would save many from death every year.—H. STUBENVOLL.

Thousands of people have catarrh who would be surprised to know it, because it has been called other names than catarrh. The fact is catarrh is catarrh wherever located; and another fact which is of equally great importance, is that Pe-Ru-Na cures catarrh wherever located.

For bronchial troubles try Pisco's Cure for Consumption. It is a good cough medicine. At druggists, price 25 cents.

OLD FAVORITES

The Bells of Shandon.
With deep affection and recollection I often think of those Shandon bells, whose sounds so wild would in the days of childhood fling round my cradle their magic spells.
On this I ponder, where'er I wander, And thus grow fonder, sweet Cork, of thee;
With thy bells of Shandon, That sound so grand on The pleasant waters of the River Lee.
I have heard bells chiming full many a time in Telling jubilee in cathedral shrine; While at a sublimed brass tongue would vibrate, But all their music spoke naught like thine.
For memory dwelling on each proud swelling Of thy bell's kneeling its bold notes Made the bells of Shandon Sound far more grand on The pleasant waters of the River Lee.
I have heard bells tolling "old Adrian's bell" in Their thunder rolling from the vatican, And cymbals glorious, swinging uproariously, In the gorgeous turrets of Notre Dame; But thy sounds were sweeter than the dome of Peter Flings o'er the Tiber, pealing solemnly. O! the bells of Shandon Sound far more grand on The pleasant waters of the River Lee.

There's a bell in Moscow, while on tower and in looko In St. Sophia the Turkman gets, And loud in air calls me to prayer From the tapering summits of tall minarets.
Such empty phantom I freely grant 'em, But there's an anthem more dear to me: 'Tis the bells of Shandon, That sound more grand on The pleasant waters of the River Lee.—Francis Mahony.

Twickenham Ferry.
"A-hoy! and O-ho! and it's who's for the ferry" (The brier's in bud and the sun's going down).
"And I'll row ye so quick and I'll row ye so steady, And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town."
The ferryman's slim and the ferryman's young, Wit just a soft tang in the turn of his tongue; And he's fresh as a pipkin and brown as a berry, And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town.
"A-hoy! and O-ho! and it's I'm for the ferry," (The brier's in bud, and the sun's going down).
"And 'tis late as it is and I haven't a penny— Oh! how can I get me to Twickenham Town?"
She'd a rose in her bonnet and oh! she looked sweet As the little pink flower that grows in the wheat, With her cheeks like a rose and her lips like a cherry— "It's sure but you're welcome to Twickenham Town."
"A-hoy! and O-ho! You're too late for the ferry," (The brier's in bud and the sun's going down), And he's not rowing quick and he's not rowing steady; It seems quite a journey to Twickenham Town.
"A-hoy! and O-ho! you may call as you will; The young moon is rising o'er Petersham Hill, And, with love like a rose in the stem of the wherry, There's danger in crossing to Twickenham Town."
—Theophile Marziale.

CO-OPERATIVE PIANO CLUBS.
A New and Popular Move by the Famous Eilers Piano House.
This house, whose progressive methods are coming to be known and recognized throughout the Northwest, has recently inaugurated a system of piano club selling which exceeds anything ever attempted in this country in the way of providing the people with standard pianos at low prices.
By this method members joining the club secure their pianos at strictly wholesale prices by paying down an exceedingly small sum. The piano is immediately delivered and they are given a wide limit of time in which to finish their purchase.
The principle is merely that applied to wholesale purchasers, the club standing in the light of the wholesale buyer. High grade as well as medium grade pianos are included in these clubs. The world famed Kimballe, Chickering and Webers can be secured by this method at a saving of from one hundred to one hundred and fifty dollars. All the pianos included in the club are on the floors of the sales rooms at Eilers Piano House in Portland, and prospective club joiners may thoroughly inspect their instruments before making their selection. All the instruments in the clubs are standard makes and are brand new. In addition to those above mentioned, there are the famous Decker, Dol, Hobart M. Cahb, Wessner, Lester and many others. Pianos are delivered to club members upon their making their first payment, and a written guarantee for five years comes with each piano, signed by its manufacturer and also by Eilers Piano House. The clubs are four and each numbers 100. Members of Club A pay but $5.00 and finish their purchase with weekly installments of $1.25. Club B members pay but $7.50 upon delivery of the piano and finish paying at the rate of $1.60 weekly. Club C make an initial payment of 12.00, and balance in $2.00 weekly. Club D members pay $20 down and the remainder of the purchase price in $2.00 weekly payments. Those desiring to pay all cash will save the additional interest.
Pianos that sell regularly for $225.00 go to club members for $137.00; $275.00 instruments for $168.00; $300.00 ones for $187.00; and the very best medium grade pianos that cannot be sold under the regular retail conditions for less than $350.00 will go to club members for $218.00. The saving throughout is equally great and those contemplating the purchase of an instrument will do well to investigate this proposition.

NEGRO GIRL LEAVES WELLESLEY.
Booker T. Washington's daughter, who recently was reported to be doing well at Wellesley College, has now, it transpires, been forced to leave the institution and go to Bradford Academy. It is said she failed in music. While Miss Washington was taken up and made much of by the Northern girls at the college, her reception by girls from the South was, it is declared, of a nature to give the faculty some embarrassment.

Good Cakes and Biscuits.
The finishing touches which the good housewife gives to a cake or pie or pan of biscuits or other dish is what makes it either delicious and healthy or insipid and unhealthy. If Monopole Spices and Baking Powder are used no fear need be had about the result. Monopole Spices are stronger and more fragrant and Monopole Baking Powder better in every way than any other brand. SOLVED SERVANT PROBLEM.

Former Slave Came to the Rescue of His Mistress.

"Our Luther is a jewel," exclaimed one of Washington's leading society women while calling one afternoon last week. "And I just hate to think what would become of us without Uncle Martin. When my father sold the old household the servants were scattered around in the family, and Uncle Martin was sent to me. He was father's oldest slave, and never left our family. I am the old man's favorite, and for this reason he asked to go to me, and you may believe me, it is to Uncle Martin that I owe my sanity."
"My husband and I have been married ten years. The first five I spent in looking for cooks, and then discharging them after the trial week. The servant problem put me on the verge of nervous collapse. It had reached such a pitch that I could stand no longer. I not only talked 'servants' all day, but I dreamed of them the few hours I did manage to sleep. The whole atmosphere was filled with bad cooks and worse diners. At each new burst of complaint from my husband I would go off and cry myself sick. That was all I could do for, strange as it may seem, I didn't know enough about kitchen matters to make tea or coffee. Well, it was exactly at this state of affairs that Uncle Martin came, and, bless him, he immediately proposed to take entire charge of the culinary affairs, to run that department in his own way and charge us no such a week for board. I didn't even wait to consult my husband, so afraid was I that Martin might regret his bargain and change his mind by dinner time, so right then and there Martin and I closed the deal.
"That was the end of all my troubles. We give Martin a stated sum each week, out of which he provides for the table. He does the marketing, cooking and serving himself, and everything is beautiful.
"Of course, we are liberal with him. He has always been in the family, and I naturally feel greatly attached to him. I think he should have concessions made to him. Now, when we have dinner parties I always allow so much extra a plate, and when we have guests visiting in the home we give him so much extra a day, and really I never feel imposed upon. To escape all the fret and worry of looking after things is sufficient reward for me. Now and then I have heard the other servants speculating as to the size of Uncle Martin's bank account. My husband investigated, and found that the old man had a comfortable sum on deposit, but we both decided, after a long talk on the subject, that our plan of living is by far the best, and we even think we have saved money by its adoption."—Washington Post.

GESTURES AND SALUTATIONS.
Certain gestures are absolutely identified with certain feelings. To shake one's fist is to threaten; to hold up one's finger is to warn. To indicate thought we place the tips of the fingers on the forehead; to show concentrated attention we apply the whole hand. To rub the hands is everywhere a sign of joy, and to clap them a sign of enthusiasm. It would be easy to multiply examples. Affirmation, negation, repulsion, are all indicated by motions that everyone understands.
It is the same, in quite as great a degree, with nationalities, in spite of the original diversity of the races that make them up. The mimetic character results at once from race, from history and from climate.
The gestures of the Englishman is fierce and harsh; he speaks briefly, brusquely; he is cold, positive, forceful. His salutation is cold and accentuated, but his handshake is loyal. The gesture of Germany is heavy, good-humored and always ungraceful. Many of the Slav people are unwilling to look one in the face, and they have a false gesture.
The Spaniard and the Portuguese, although dwelling in a southern land, gesture little; the language is rhythmic, slow, solemn; they are grave, their salutation is a little theatrical.
The Italian is lively, mobile, intelligent, gay; his language is harmonious, sonorous, warm and luminous, like his country's sky. The salutation of the Italian is quick and full of feeling, his gesture colored and exaggerated.—London Answers.

The Sneeze-wind Tree.
Among its many curious products South Africa includes the "sneeze-wind" tree, which takes its name from the fact that one cannot cut it with a saw without sneezing, as the fine dust has exactly the effect of snuff. Even in planing the wood it will sometimes cause sneezing. No insect, worm, or binnacle will touch it. It is very bitter to the taste, and when placed in water it will sink. The color is light brown, and the grain very close and hard. For dock work, pliers, or jetties it is a useful timber, lasting a long while under water.
Willow Growing.
A nice little side issue possible to a farmer who has a small stream running through his place is willow growing. There is a constant, and if anything increasing, demand for basket willows, and in many locations the bushes can be grown with little or no expense or trouble. Men who have gone into it, however, on a very small scale as a trial, have generally found it so profitable that they have devoted some thought to its details, and have become extensive willow producers.

"So you are really going to marry."
"Yes, the first Chicago girl."
"Yes," replied the other. "I thought I would for a while."—Philadelphia Press.
