Wm. Terrell has a severe attack of rheumatism. While he is not confined to his bed, it is with great difficulty that he walks at all.

Rev. Younglove, while on his way to Bonanza to conduct a funeral service, was thrown from a bucking horse and received a badly sprained hand; a bruised knee and a general shaking up. He was not able to return to the Falls until Tuesday. He is an admirer of gay horse, but does not want them to get funny.

Christmas tree and entertainment were a success. A crowded house and a good spely program. Santa Claus remembered every one.

The Masquerade ball was well attended. A good supper at Morine's hotel, good music by the Flackus Bros., and about seventy tickets sold.

Miss Etta Faith, daughter of Chas. Faith, is making her home with Mrs. A. D. Harpold.

The interior of the school house is receiving a coat of paint this week.

Mrs. Maggie Wallis is on the sick list.

John Nichols of Poe Valley is lying very low at this writing. He is beyond medical aid, and his family are only waiting for the end, which is not far distant.

We failed to report the death of Mrs. Messner last week. She received a stroke of paralysis, some years ago, and has been an invalid ever since. When the second stroke came she only lived a few days after. She leaves five children to mourn her loss—one son living at Poekama, two sons and two daughters in Langell Valley, viz: M. Messner, Wm. Messner, C. C. Cowley, Mrs. Frank Swingle and Mrs. Wm. Copeland. She was buried in Langell Valley.

Wille Stevens, a stepson of Thos. Patterson, is seriously ill with pneumonia. He went to J. D. Hamaker's sawmill for a few days and took sick while there. His recovery is doubtful.

Died, Dec. 24, 1902, Zetta Grimm, daughter of J. A. Sutton. Remains were interred in the Bonanza cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Younglove.

Mr. J. Stieckel had the bones of his left foot broken, just below the instep, by his horse falling. His now

Mrs. Marion Bennett of Hildebrand is on the sick roll, threatened with pneumonia.

A. D. Harpold received, last week, the sad news of the death of his aged mother, who lived in Cleveland, Indiana.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by Chitwood & Co.
