KLAMATH REPUBLICAN.

VOL. VII.

S PERSONAL ST

1'VO Mr. 1 1

nca .

but

WO

tle

ad-

ap-

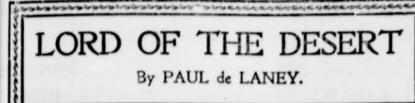

ľa,

108

p-

1x

KLAMATH FALLS, KLAMATH COUNTY, OREGON, JANUARY 29, 1903.

(Copyright, 1902.) CHAPTER XXIV.

"Dunder and Blixen."

one-fourth of the entire war party had It was after midnight before the rushed across the stream un-armed in troops arrived. It was also this hour pursuit of the fugitives. When they before the Indians had guieted down returned they found the river in to sleep. The afternoon's war dance these few minutes a seething foam, over their captive victims, the wild made black by the earth gathered by excitement of the torture and the arthe flood as it came. To cross the rival of the Follett party with the two captives had aroused the blood stream was a task no warrior would attempt. They turned for other openof the savages and many tales of ings in the rimrocks. But here they former acts of bravery, and deeds of daring were told beneath the willows met with disappointment. When approaching these points, and safety and the tepees in Hell's Trap, that seemed just in sight, they were met with volleys from the soldiers' rifles night.

Hammersley had decided to go on that mowed them down like grass be his mission of rescue alone. It was fore a scythe. Another opening and decided first to station the troops at another was tried with like results, every point at which the Indiana until terror-stricken they ran about could possibly escape and then for the the meadow, hiding here and there in the tall grass soon to be spled out by trapper to attempt the rescue. Should he fail or fail in the attempt the revengeful soldiers and shot like it was the purpose to force the best sage hens. terms possible with the savages. it was should he succeed, but the determination to wreak that merthe men on the other side of the river. ciless revenge upon the Indians that and plunged into the mad stream to the occasion seemed to justify.

The men had all been informed of Mounting their horses, the chief and the torture and death of the four half-breed led the men to the "neck' white men and of the arrival of the where the water was rapidly rising two new captives, and this stirred the to the danger point. But here the soldiers to a revengeful spirit that cal slaughter began. caused them to forget their tired and hungry condition and loss of sleep. They now felt that they had at last easy range he gave the command to encompassed the enemy and they fire. It was a deadly fire. Every shot were eager to strike the blow.

Ten well armed and equipped sol diers accompanied by five cowboys were placed in each gap in the rimrocks and 100 men, including cow-boys and soldiers under General Crook, guarded the neck of the peninsula.

It was half way between midnight and dawn when the trapper started on his perilous mission. Armed suitably for the occasion he entered the channel of the stream and hugged the banks with the silence of a beaver, alway keeping the shadows of the willows and ne or risking his weight upon his feet until he knew they were firmly placed.

While his task did not prove a difficult one, it was a tedious one. His bearings had been so well taken that he recognized the very clump of bushes in which Bertha's tepee pitched without trouble. Farther away from the stream he saw the dismal thicket to which Oscar Metzger the other captive, had been taken, and from which the four cowboys on the previous evening had been taken for their last walk. Like a snake he crawled up

It is early in the afternoon. Gen- the relatives of the deceased and the NEWS OF OREGON eral Crook is seated at the bedside of employes about the place were asa very sick man in the main room of sembled at the grave. the Stone House. He is delirious for

Before the body was lowered the long periods and conscious for short army chaplain conducted a short ser-His conscious moments are vice and the veteran general, conones. moments of agony, trary to his custom and experience

It is the Lord of the Desert. He delivered a short address, but like all had remained sober during the slege things that he did, he was practical of the Stone House and had taken an and commonsense and spoke to the bath at the time that he would never point, drink intoxicants again. As soon as "This is the last tribute," he said, the siege was over and the soldiers "that man can pay to man-give him and cowboys had gone and the excite- a decent burial in the earth. A man, turned and tried to rally the men who ment died out, he had collapsed. For ambitious for wealth and power had been following in the rear and more than a week he had neither eat- ruined his life and shortened his days were now panic-stricken. At least en nor slept. The collapse of his trying to obtain it wrongfully. 'It is years of dissipation had come. His not meet and proper to speak re bloated form was rapidly assuming proachfully of the dead, but his dying its natural state. He was but a words condemned such a life and it is sponge, a dry decaying sponge with well that we should profit by the lesall of the substance gone. He was a son.

"His life is now familiar to you all human wreck, made so by sin and alcohol. His was not an isolated case; It does no good to repeat it here. it was the same old story. Written But there is yet one lesson to draw and unwritten history abound with from it. such stories.

"He was known far and wide as the "It is too late, general, it is too Lord of the Desert.' He prided in late," said the unfortunate man in this. This comes from the difference a moment of consciousness. "I have in classes in the European countries taken the oath, I will never drink where lords and ladies are created by again, but it was taken too late. It kings and monarchs and by heredity. "There is no such custom here. The stimulate me now for a few hours, but it would make death the title is an empty one. Every man here may be a lord according to the more agonizing."

"It is true, Mr. Lyle," replied the American idea, if he wishes. An general, "its effects are always tem- honorable, well spent life makes a porary, except the injury it gives, man a lord, a sovereign, a king hereis permanent. A man may feel better than the highest sounding ham building to the new Douglas coungood for a moment; his life may even names of the old world. It is not the e prolonged by it for a brief spell, title, it is the man, but he must suffer the consequences

"With all of the high-sounding name of 'Lord of the Desert,' he was After a more exhausting delirium, Lot nearly so great as his humble successor, the honest trapper, who has made himself a lord in deed by eral, it is here," he said, placing his laboring and battling for the right. hand over his heart. "If you knew The assumed lord died a death of what lies there, general, you would agony from a remorseful conscience pity me though I'm the most wicked The real lord-the true American lord -came to his inheritance honestly "It is not too late to repent and and through merit. Let us hope that the dead lord has made peace with do justice," suggested the warrior. Not too late to repent, I know, for his maker and that the American lord decreased by nearly 1,000. I am doing that as fast as a guilty will never disgrace the honorable title soul can confess itself, but it is too which he has won." late to do justice; -- they are dead, general, they are dead, -- my brother a prayer by the chaplain the cere-This confession seemed to ease the of the Desert" was closed. and his child are dead!" Then he con- General Crook was now ready to been made in this direction, several while Canadian farmers organize expe- corridor, and all yesterday morning a "If I could give them back take his departure. His friends had subscriptions having been handed in ditions to search the old country for line of people with uncovered heads their lives, general, and this mockery assembled about him in the Stone already. called wealth-the half-breed only House to render him thanks for his took a small portion of what I pos- services. sess-death would lose many of its "I will send that money to you by terrors. I do not fear it, general, but an escort upon my arrival at to meet my God with this load here. fort, friend Hammersley-Lyle," said General, for many years I have kept the general, "No, send it to some safe bank in benumbed with strong drink; now, the east and deposit it to Miss Lyle's general, it ail falls upon me like a credit, so that she may draw upon it mountain. Oh, that it would crush for the use of herself and her father,' me, dissolve me like vapor, extermi- replied the trapper. "Not one cent," spoke the father meet my Maker." and daughter together.

"Oh, but they are dead, general, ful owner of the money and the prop-No power on earth can give me relief erty and I would not consent to acges fell now-it is too late. I will tell you cept one cent of it." Some of how it happened." continued Lyle, the lines gasping. "I hired Follett to kill one property, too," replied the trapper.

best.

Oregon and Washington Solons Begin to Ballot for Senator. ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS At Olympia.

A summary of the first ballot taken by the Washington legislature in separate session, Jan. 20, for United Oregon Has Fine Limestone - Big Rabbit States senator, is as follows: Ankeny,

The first ballot for United States

Fulton, 28; Geer, 20; Wood, 18; scat-

BIG ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED.

Unprecedented.

IN THE LEGISLATURES.

Drive-Many New Industries Coming 48; Preston, 41; Wilson, 12; Turner, to Oregon This Year - Improvements 23; scattering, 12. in Land Office - Medical Association At Salem.

Meets in La Grande.

The teachers of Clackamas county will hold an institute at New Era Saturday, January 31, at 10:30 o'clock.

OF THE STATE.

A meeting of the fruitgrowers of Douglas county will be held at the court tering, 21; absent, 3; total, 90. house in Roseburg on Saturday, January 24, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the pur- fair bill passed the house with only five pose of establishing packing house and fruit growers' association.

Joseph Davenport died at his home near Silverton last Sunday. He was aged 79 years and came to this county and sent to the governor. recently from Pendleton, where he resided for about 20 years. He is survived by a wife and five children.

The United States land office at Roseburg has been changed from the Abraty bank building. The new rooms are ocated on the ground floor in the east half of the building, and are four in number. Roseburg can now boast of ing in London, says the Tribune's cor-ially designed for the use of the land age are out of employment this winter. office and the work houses cannot accommo-

One of the largest rabbit drives held in Eastern Oregon took place several miles west of Echo last week, and as a Things have reached a serious pass in

The Andrews Saw manufacturing rising higher and higher. company will remove its plant from Williamsport, Pa., to Portland, provi 'in other parts of Great Britain. An for efficient men without satisfactory The Eastern Oregon medical as-ociaresults. tion held a session in La Grande in the the parlors of the Commercial club. The attend ince was small on account of cu-sed. After voting thanks to the States. This condition of things in- same mission. profession of La Grande for entertain- duced one newspaper to declare that the ment, the association adjourned to meet in The Dalles July 16, 1903.

The committee from the Benton county court, met with the Linn county committee and spent two hours discussing the bridge question. The meeting was not official and definite action could not be taken, yet each committee was people in the British empire. THE LAST TRIBUT

NO. 4

CHOICH CH

3

《永永永永永永永永永永永永永永水。

ENTIRE STATE ATTENDS FUNERAL THOMAS H. TONGUE.

Floral Offerings Completely Covered the Coffin - Many Societies to Which He Belonged Took Part in the Last Sad Rites-Hillsboro Almost Too Small to Hold All Who Attended.

senator was taken in the Oregon legis-Hillsboro, Jan. 19 .- Thomas H. lature Tuesady, January 20, separately Tongue went to his grave yesterday in each branch and the result was: with all the honor that his state could give him. Neraly all Oregon attended his funeral at Hillsboro, and at the last The Lewis and Clark appropriation impressive services, the preacher said most fittingly: "It is Oregon that is opposing votes. It calls for $500,000. mourning today, for it is Oregon that has lost a son." A committee from The senate passed the Portland charhas lost a son." A committee from congress, made up of men who repreter bill and it now will be engrossed sented every part of the nation. was present, but the funeral ceremony was Dregon's own tribute to the dead.

Hillsboro was not big enough to hold in comfort all who wanted to attend Mr. Tongue's obsequies. A special Distress Prevailing in London is Almost train from Portland carried down New York . Jan. 22 - There can no multitude, and hundreds poured into the town from all parts of the state. longer be any question as to the extent Nearly all the state officials were presand gravity of the distress now prevailent, and so was a majority of the legislature. And from others whe could one of the finest arranged land offices respondent in London. Many thous- not attend, came a wealth of floral on the coast, as these rooms were espec- ands of men in excess of the usual aver- offerings that were piled mountain high over the alter of the little Hillsboro Methodist church. The coffin was fairly buried in flowers, and they, too, date all the people demanding shelter. came from all parts of Oregon.

Committees representing the various result the rabbit population has been the east end of the metropolis, while societies to which Mr. Tongue belonged. were at the depot to meet the party, the tide of alien immigration is steadily and they acted as an escort when the remains were taken to the court house A serious state of affairs exists also at Hillboro.

At the court house, which had been ed stock to the amount of, $50,000 ie endless stream of country-bred folk is draped in mourning from tower to basetaken in that city. A good start has pouring into the overcrowded cities, ment, the coffin was placed in the main much needed labor and offer good wages passed by it.

The special train from Portland reached Hillsboro at 2 o'clock in the Official statistics show that the Brit- afternoon. It brought the committee ish emigrant-does not generally elect to of congressmen appointed by Speaker sickness in so many sections, but was make his home in the British colonies. Henderson to attend the funeral. Six representative and energetic and some Of 205,910 emigrants from this country cars were needed to contain the others good papers were listened to and dis- last year, 108,501 went to the United who went down from Portland on the

The guests were reecived by 50 memfuture of the British race is imperiled bers of the Knights of Pythias in full by the drafts made upon it from Amer- uniform. The Knights formed a line ica and that the greatest and most ben- with drawn swords, through which the eficent work a British statesman could visitors passed from the street into the perform for the welfare of the nation court house, and acted as ushers during would be the inauguration of some the ceremonies there. They were in scheme for redistributing the British charge of Mr. Tongue's body while it lay in state, and they mounted a strict Seldom has legislation met more im- military guard which contributed much mediate success than the new licensing to the impressiveness of the day's ser-They surrendered the body to the spot, these interesting individuals are where Mr. Tongue and his family have The distinguished assemblage simply packed the church auditorium until it and limestone deposits in Josephine was once contemptuously called by a was impossible for anybody in the audcounty, some 12 miles south of Grants great statesman "grandmotherly legis- ience to listen to the ceremonies in comfort. The escort of Knights kept the aisles open until the Odd Fellows carried the coffin in, but after that every man struggled for the best place he could get. The services in the church were short. The pastor introduced Dr. C. E. Kline to make the opening prayer, and there were many damp eyes in the audience when Dr. Kilne concluded. He was for of Minister Conger, announcing that a great many years the pastor of the If present plans materialize several the failure of the Chinese government congrection to which Representative Tongue belonged, and his prayer took a wider range than is usual for this reason. His eloquent appeal was, would entail grave consequences, was haps, the best verbal tribute paid to received today. It declares that China Mr. Tongue during the day. Then a passage of scripture was read by Rev. R. H. Kennedy, of the Hillsboro Congregational church, and Rev. Dr. L. E. Rockwell, presiding elder of the Methodist church in Northern Oregon, then poverished state of the country. It preached the funeral sermon. During the services the Portland relief and renews the request that the quartet sang a number of hymns, and customs tariff be placed on a gold basis, were heard to special advantage in the suggesting that the average rate of ex- beautiful "Lead, Kindly Light." When the church ceremonies were concluded the body was turned over to the Hillsboro Masonic body, which escorted it to the cemetery and interred it with their own picturesque ritual. Worshipful Grand Master W. F. Reno, Nev., Jan. 22 .- At 10:30 this Butcher conducting the services. Over morning a highwayman e tered the the grave Mr. Butcher paid one last eloquent tribute to Mr. Tongue's memup the agent at the point of a revolver, ory, and the whole ecmetery was filled securing all the cash in the money with those who listened to him. The congressional delegation will return to Washington at once, and Mr. drawer on top of the safe turned and Moody left last evening, to resume his work there. For the present he will be rattle he looked up and saw a masked Oregon's sole member of the national man standing at the safe emptying the house of representatives.

man for a moment. tinued:

Follett rushed to the tepee of his fair

CHAPTER XXV.

Wages of Sin and Alcohol, my heart, my conscience, my soul, nate me that I should not have to

"I am able to give you some relief," said the veteran soldier, "you are not as guilty as you think." "Only convey us to civilization," said Bertha, "and I will support father. Mr. Hammarl embankment through the dense undergrowth, moving inch by inch, until he reached the rear of Bertha's tepee, and while the guards dozed near the front he ripped a hole in the rear wall of the tent and soon gave Bertha an assuring touch that told her a friend was with her.

In a few moments time they had retraced the tapper's steps to the bed of the stream, in the same manner as he had approached, and Bertha hiding in a dark nook under the willows which hung over the embankment, Hammersley went to atpoint. tempt the release of the other prisoner.

He found Metzger so securely tied hands of the guards at the openings that even the Indians did not fear his n the rimrocks. escape, Bound hand and foot and But the story is better told in the stretched full length between two history of the country and the Indian sapplings, his body barely touching There you will find that only a wars. the ground, he was enduring a torfew escaped, and the battle ground ture that would have killed an ordiwas made famous in history. It was nary man. But his was one of those made so by a German soldier in Geniron constitutions of the desert. eral Crook's command, whose dialect The trapper was a welcome visitor and h's knife furnished immediate regave it the name it still bears. After the battle was over, as the German lief. When released from his crampe wiped the perspiration and powder position the cowboy stood erect and stains from his face, he said; exercising his limbs noiselessly for

"Dey call dis 'Hell's Drap,' but 1 a moment he indicated that he was name it 'Dunder and Blixen.'" Since ready to go. The trapper handed him that time the battle ground and the a revolver and a knife and the two river have borne the name the Gerwalked silently away ready to defend nan gave the place, and history has themselves, even unto death.

adopted the name as the proper one. Among the few who escaped were When they reached the place where Bertha was concealed the trapper was Chief Egan and Dan Follett. At the struck with awe. He saw twigs of last moment they plunged into the willows and tops of sage brush and raging stream and swam with the chunks of wood floating down the current for a long distance, reached stream. These increasing at every the distant shore and then ascended the general. moment. Seizing the woman he drew a precipice of rimrocks, and as they her after him and Metzger followed at a rapid pace.

It was two hundred yards to a shallow place in the stream and when this suers. was reached the river was already rising at a rapid rate. The trapper seized Bertha in his arms as if were a mere child and plunged into the foaming rapids, followed by the of "Dunder and Blixen." cowboy. Against the heavy current, which almost sweet their feet from under them they not the south of the bank, the trapper exclaimed. "Creat luck! A head should be the south of the sout

"Great luck! A head rise!" Ham-Bertha and Hammersley are at the mergley and his companions ran Stone House. James Lyle is there. across the open meadow for the near- Al. Beach has returned. All of the Lyle." est opening in the rimrocks. The cowboys who escaped the Indian arlight of bres are morn made them rows are there. There are many recognizable to their friends on guard reminisences to relate. Bertha has in the rimrocks who could scarcely long ago told the story of how she derous plans. Thanks to the treach-restrain applause. But the drilling of and Metzger fell into the hands of ery of old Egan in not slaying the a soldiers life prevented this out- Follett. He had come to the trapper's child. Thanks to God, who, I must break. abode late in the afternoon and left

The water came with a rush down a message to the effect that the trapmountain stream. The sound per desired their presence at the Stone House, and that the half-breed changed from a murmur over the pebinto a sleep never to waken again in bles to a ripple over the rocks; and would call about dark for them. then to a roar over the boulders and They had held a conference before the mortal body. against the angular banks. So loud the return of Follett, and while they followed the growing roar that the were suspicious of him, it seemed so savages were wakened. Dan Follett probable that his story was true, that rushed to the tepee of his fair cap- they decided to accompany him, tive and finding that she was gone, he Metzger arming himself and claiming kicked the drowsy guards in their that he was a match for the Canadian. of General Crook he decided to resides and gave the alarm.

The whole camp was astir instantly, bringing two horses with him, and ett plunged into the stream, follow- after her father, she and Metzger fact. ed by some of the most daring war- started out with the Canadian toward riors, and gave pursuit. But when the Stone House. They had not gone upon for the burial of all that re-within 50 yards of the opening in the far, however, until they were sur- mained of the late Martin Lyle. With within 50 yards of the opening in the far, nowever, unter they are so that military precision General Crook had rounded by the four braves, who had military precision General Crook had be accompanied Follett, and were in designated surfise as the hour and rannocks where the fugitives had rounded by the four praves, who had accompanied Follett, and were in their power. Follett took immediate command and hurried them away to money was down in the money was down in the reader is familie with what followed. ("The Lord of the Desert" ministry precision General Crook had designated sunrise as the hour and the designated sunrise as the hour and the command and hurried them away to ward "Hell's Trap." at which place the reader is familie with what followed. been turned. The thief . saloon through an op. door, and was evidently them tried to dash through the lines gasping. while others turned back toward the and old Egan to kill the other." raging torrent.

H

night

in the end."

man living."

the dying man spoke again.

"It is here that I hurt worse,

Follette remained untouched.

But the daring Follett would not tive up. He saw old Egan organizing oln him, and made the other shore

General Crook led his men in per on, and when the savages were in "Charge," came the command from Crook. It was not technically a huthat bad. Suppose I should tell you that they both live?" mane warfare, though it was conlucted according to human tactics. would mock me." Every shot that was fired was fired

"No, I speak truthfully, when I tell by a man mad for revenge. They you that they still live, and are here land," said the cripple, charged upon the savages, sparing none and taking no prisoners, for they refused to surrender and did not "Do not torture me, general, but "Do not torture me, general, but if they are here let me see them. Let ask for mercy. To the brink of the stream they ran, many falling pierced them tell me that they still live." Jim Lyle was brought in in a chair with lead before they reached this Some plunged into the flood and seated by the bedside, and Ber- plied the trapper with a husky voice. never to rise again; others made it tha came and stood by her father's across to fall before the rifles in the side.

"This is Jim, Brother Jim," said the other, dving man, "Speak Jim, and tell me that you live and that this is your child by your side."

"They sre here at this moment," said ones passed over the summit they waved hurriedly related the circumstances with which the Lord of the Desert was not familiar, and then called son and that this had been key is the rightful heir to all of the prop-It is several days after the battle erty. He is the only child of the de-General ceased brother, William. Here is a certified copy of father's will, and Al. Beach, whom you long since thought was dead, brings the instruments to show that William Hammersley, the trapper, is no more nor no less than William Llye, sole heir to all of the wealth of the House of buried one lord and now you "Justice has been done," said the Dan Follett in carrying out our murnow acknowledge, guided it all. Death is not near so bitter, now. I believe there is hope, even for me.'

And the Lord of the Desert passed

CHAPTER XXVI.

Conclusion.

Pressing as was the military duties Follett came at the appointed time, main at the Stone House another day Beaches, the Byrds, the Hopes, and night. A cowboy was sent to the Metzgers and the Liggetts are Discovering the fleeing fugitives. Fol- Bertha leaving Julian Byrd to look fort with a message to announce this familiar and honored ones The following morning was decided sunrise the general and his staff and empowered to express the views of the "I will return to my traps. Your body which it represented. The con-"I know you think it happened," re-father may manage the ranch and you body which it represented. The con-ited General Crock "but it is not may travel or do as you like" plied General Crook, "but it is not may travel, or do as you like." "You should be lov. far as possible removing every barrier topers. Touched in their tenderest Odd Fellows, who took it to the church. "What a pity you are cousins," said Genergi Crook. You would mock me, general, you ers-you should be husband and to traffic. wife."

"It makes no difference in Scot "But it is against the law here," re plied the general.

Pass, is meeting with good success in lation." "He has never asked me, anyway, said Bertha embarrassed. the working of its properties. The company is paying particular attention "I didn't think it was any use to the manufacture of lime-a new in-General Crook at once detected the dustry for this state. It has already Says She is Absolutely Unable to Pay Inreal sentiment of the two for each turned out several hundred barrels and has as many more ready for the kiln. "It's a bad law," he said, "but it is The lime put on the market has given as good satisfaction as any of the finer "I think I can relieve all of this

The cripple's spirit of revenge had embarrassment," said Al. Beach, com-left him. With tears in his eyes he ing forward. "Read the will more East. grades that are shipped here from the of Minister Conger, announcing that carefully.

The will was handed to General Crook, who read: "In the name of God, Amen. land's growing list for 1903. Among queath to my adopted son, William the representatives of many big con-"Adopted son,' repeated cerns lately visiting that place is the Lyle all-General Crook, "So this William Lyle one working in the interests of the H. was not the real son of the testator." O. Cereal flour manufactory. He has "That is true," said Leondidas Lig- just left Portland for Fuget Sound and rett, the former cook of the Lord of will study the site question from all the Desert, who had stood by in sl-"I have long known the whole points before making his final report. story. I learned it from William He is the Pacific coast agent of this Lyle's wife in Boston, after h's death, concern, with headquarters at San have kept silent all of these years Francisco, and his people will soon because I did not think an adopted visit Portland and then make their son ought to inherit over the real election.

aute for its of Clashed an A further examination of the pers which Al, Beach had secured covered a written acknowledgme William Lyle that he was an ade secret from the other children were all born after his adoption "I see nothing in the way r said General Crook, glancing at tha and Hammersley. "Bertha is it any use to ask! quired the trapper.

"There is nothing lost by tryi replied the girl as she took hir the hand.

"Glad you remained, chapl "You bind another for life before we g Within ten days old Egan can lying man. "Thanks to the failure of with his fragment of warriors an squaws and children of his tribe surrendered to General Crook, Fort Warner was abandoned the great Indian fighter was se other fields. Dan Follett was 1 heard of again,

Bertha Lyle preferred to ch her name and she and the tra agreed that Hammersley was enough. They lived at the House and gave the cripple a l the remainder of his days. They retained in their employ a the former employes at the S House who desired to remain, the names of the Hammersleys, great Inland Empire belt of Orego THE END.

of April, 1903.

highways should be free of any toll, as have got even with the great army of forswearing drick with an alacrity worshipped for years. The Oregon & California Marble com- which seems to show conclusively that pany, which owns extensive marble there is aiter all some virtue in what

CHINA ANSWERS THE POWERS.

demnity in Gold.

Pekin, Jan. 22 .- China's reply to the note signed by all the ministers of large industries will be added to Port- to fulfill its obligations in refusing to pay the indemnity on a gold basis would accede to the demand if she were able to do so, but that it is impossible to make the paymetns demanded.

The Chinese note quotes the messages of the viceroys detailing the imasks the ministers to suggest plans for change each month be made the payment rate for the following month. The ministers are awaiting instrucblue tions from their governments.

rew-Highwayman Robs Ticket Office.

rrah

Southern Pacific ticket office and held @20. drawer. The ticket agent had just cashed a warrant, and leaving the cash 736 sat down at his desk. Hearing money over.

contents of the drawer into his pockets ntal, with one hand and covering him with $2@ a revolver with the other.

Death Rate Declining.

11e: teys, City of Mexico, Jan. 22.—The official sult of further correspondence, are quite teks, bulletin from Mazatlan covering the 24 determined that the irreducible condihours ending at 6 P. M. gives the num- tion of arbitration is that President 50. ber of deaths from the plague as two in Castro shall pay or give collateral se 360 the city and three in the hospital. curity for the sums already specified. 30 C There were eight new cases during the The powers will not consent to raising

20@ city continues and every one who has the delay upon Venezuela. the means and can get permission from the health authorities is leaving. stern

Smoot is Chosen in Utah.

per %0. Mund:

inds are requested to file H. F. Ringe, L. H. Doten, W. V. Teters, of this office on or before G. B. Chapen, Albert Otey, N. L. of April, 1903. High, Geo. L. Chase, G. W. Ager, J. P. BRATTAIN, Register. Lee, L. O. Stearns, Castro Must Pay First.

Berlin, Jan. 20 .- In the negotiations which are about to begin at Washington Great Britain and Germany, as the reperiod, and seven patients were report- the blockade until Venezuela complies ed to be in a dying condition. The with this unalterable condition. The stream of emigrants from the stricken allies place the responsibility for fur-

Another New Trust Bill.

Washington, Jan. 20 .- A bill has been introduced by Representative Bell, Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 22 .- Reed of Colorado, providing that any pro-Smoot was this afternoon elected United ducer, dealer, transporter, agent or States senator from Utah to succeed other person in any territory of the Senator Rawlins, Dem. The vote in United States who shall join with any separate sessions was as follows: other person or persons for the purpose Senate-Smoot, 10; Governor Wells, of raising the price of any article of Office: Mammoot, food or fuel, or its carriage or handling, Travelers converses of an points of retorion. A m care given to stock.

Bet column forma article.

per, or by a cregon. Any and Chester Wilson, P. J. McCollum, A. D. Guiman, A. Craddock, H. G. Chapman;

