EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

One year (in advance).....$2.00

THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1903.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

This is the last issue of the Republican under the present management. We have sold the plant, subscription list and good will to Wesley O. Smith of Klamath Falls. According to the terms of our agreement, those who are owing on subscription should pay the same to Mr. Smith and those who have paid in advance will receive due credit by him. In short, the subscription list is continued as though no change had been made. All other accounts up to and including today are payable to the undersigned.

The best reason we have for selling is that we were offered our price and accepted it. Having other interests here, we do not propose to hurry away from Klamath county, whose immediate future is so full of promise, and which is now entering a new era of growth and development. This county's resources are exhaustless, its possibilities inestimable. By a union of effort it can soon be made second to none in the state.

We esteem highly the friendship and courtesies accorded us while here and appreciate the liberal patronage we have received. We hope we have made ourselves deserving of such consideration.

We believe our successor, Mr. Smith, will meet the same generous treatment. He is a staunch republican, a man of ability and congenial manners and has unbounded faith in the future of Klamath Falls and Klamath county, whose interests he will labor to promote. We predict success for him in his new undertaking.

With assurances of our gratitude and best wishes to all, we will say farewell. W. HUSE & SON.

A CAMPAIGN OF HUMBUG.

(Contributed.)

In an interview under date of April 11th at Albany, Ore., the democratic nominee for congress from this district, Hon. A. E. Reames, stated among other things: "That he expected to be elected." He would not have gotten the nomination unless he did."I believe republicans are fair-minded enough not to care to do anything that would cast reflection on the administration. Then, again, Mr. Hermann has been in office a long time. I don't believe Mr. Hermann would be in a position to do anything for the state on account of his attitude towards the administrotion." And Governor Chamberlain, in an interview under date of April 16th, at Salem, Or., among other things, said: "I would not undertake to discuss the merits of the controversy between the ex-land commissioner and his superiors at Washington, but I can see that the people feel that to send Mr. Hermann to congress would be a rebuke to the administration. Whether Mr. Hermann was right or wrong, it is apparent from his enforced resignation from the land office that he is persona non grata with the administration. It will be argued in his favor that to send a democrat to congress would be a rebuke to the administration, but I believe the voters of the first district will be of the opinion that to send Mr. Hermann would be a direct slap at President Roosevelt and his secretary of the interior, and to leave Mr. Hermann at home would be an endorsement of the administration. I think the people generally, without regard to the merits of Hermann's troubles at Washington, take this view of the situation."

From the above quotations of their interviews it is clearly apparent that both Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Reames expect that the democratic candidate for congress in this district will be elected, and that this result will be brought about on account of its being an endorsement of the administration. In order to be elected, Mr. Reames must get a large number of republican votes—at least 3678 men who voted for Hon. Thos. H. Tongue at the last election. To secure these votes, they pretend to believe that Republicans will vote for Mr. Reames in order to endorse the administration of President Roosevelt. Mr. Reames stated in his speech, accepting the democratic nomination, before the democratic convention at Albany, Ore., among other things, that "From his childhood the principles of democracy had been instilled into his nature." He is undoubtedly a pretty good democrat, or he could not have secured this nomination. In other words he is a man who, if through any chance or possibility is elected to congress from this district, would vote against the stalwart and patriotic administration of President Roosevelt on every question of republican policy affecting the Philippine Islands. He would vote with his party to haul down the stars and stripes as against a policy of President Roosevelt, Taft, Luke. Wright, and all the other heroes of the Philippine war, which seeks to give and is giving those long unhappy islands a stable form of government and freedom regulated by law. He would vote against the administration on all questions of finance, and would favor the free coinage of silver and a debased currency, for he stands and we have a right to assume that he stands,—since his party in this state nor the convention which nominated him, have ever attempted to repudiate or deny its binding validity on his party or its candidates on the Kansas City platform. He and his party stand opposed and antagonistic to all those wholesome laws of finance which the republican party have placed upon the statute books. He would vote against the administration on all questions affecting the tariff, as President Roosevelt and his party stand for a protective tariff that will give employment to American workingmen, and we have never heard that any one pretends that Mr. Reames was a protectionist and did not stand on the ancient cardinal principles of his party which stand opposed to every form of protection aside from that which a revenue would give incidentally. He would vote against the adminisration on every question affecting trusts, as the republican party, led by President Roosvelt, believe that trusts can and should be regulated by law, aside from tariff schedules, and that the evils of trusts can not be destroyed by a vicious, frenzied attack at our tariff laws, and Mr. Reames does believe with his party that all trust made articles should be placed upon the free list without regard to the principles of protection, or protection to any industry which might be engaged in manufacturing the same articles manufactured or produced by a trust. He would without question vote against the administration on any and every question of party policy. Yet these wise men of the democratic party pretend to believe that the republican voters would consider it an endorsement of the administration to elect Mr. Reames to congress.

Mr. Hermann stands well with the administration and is in high favor with his party in congress, notwithstanding the statements of his enemies to the contrary. He would support loyally every doctrine of the republican party in congress. He will get good committee assignments from Mr. Cannon, thus placing him in a position to do large good for this district, which no new man and especially a man of the opposite party from the speaker, could ever hope to secure. He will vote to uphold the hands of the administration in its policy towards the Philippine Islands, and its fight for the people against the trusts, a heroic and patriotic beginning which has been made by President Roosevelt and his attorney general, Mr. Knox, in the recent crushing defeat administered to the Northern Securities Merger case and the Lottery cases.

The pretension that the election of Mr. Reames would be an endorsement of the administration, from a standpoint of common sense, reaches the height of absurdity. From a standpoint of humbug it seems to be in perfect keeping with the idea that a democrat ought to represent this district in congress, on the campaign of evasion started by the democrats in this election. With such a campaign carried on by our adversaries, we are inclined to believe that in the place of the majority of 7372 votes which Mr. Tongue secured in the last election, Mr. Hermann will when the votes are counted, have 10,000 majority.

We are very glad to see them start their campaign on these lines. The people of Oregon have repeatedly in recent elections said they preferred the policies of McKinley and Roosevelt to the Kansas City platform advocated by Bryan, Altgeld, Jones and the rest, who favor the packing of the United States supreme court, riot as against law, free trade as against protection, the hauling down of the American flag in the Philippine Islands as again liberty of those distressed islands under the law, free silver as against sound finance, and every principal opposed to the welfare and happiness of the American people as against the enlightened, patriotic, and auspicious administration of President Roosevelt and the republican party. We do not believe that such a campaign of evasion and humbug can succeed in the present election any more than it has in the past.
