GREETING.

I have bought of W. Huse & Son the plant and subscription list of the KLAMATH REPUBLICAN. There will be no change in either the name or politics of the paper as I believe with Whitelaw Reid that in a government like ours things are done by parties—they cannot be done in any other way. I intend to stay with the main issues of the Republican party as I honestly believe that they have, and are doing more for the advancement and good of our nation than any other party has ever done. Locally, I have great faith in the future of Klamath County. I belived that it is just entering an era of prosperity and development—one, which, though it has been slow in coming is certainly sure, and with the support and help of the people, it shall be my one endeavor to work for the advancement of this, our country. We must all remember that what will help our country will help us. We cannot accomplish anything individually; to get the best results we must work together.

Let us lay aside our individual selfishness and with the motto, "For our God, our country and our party" strive and work for the uplifting and advancement of our Government. WESLEY O. SMITH.

THE COMING ELECTION.

There is always more or less dirt thrown in a political campaign for it is a well known fact that when a party fails to find any convincing proofs of superiority or fitness in their own candidate, the only recourse left is for them to defame and belittle the character of their opponant, and that is about what the Democratic party are attempting to do.

We have always found Mr. Reames a gentleman and he is well liked in this county, but as yet we have failed to see one reason advanced or the least argument set forth, why he would be the better man, or in what way he would be a credit to Oregon if sent to Washington. Now it is a matter of business with the people of this district. They want a man who will work for Oregon. We are not sending a man to Washington, to rearrange the whole tariff or to change the Constitution of the United States—although some of our inexperienced aspirants seem to get that idea. We are sending him there to do business for our State. He cannot accomplish much alone, therefore, we must have a man who is known and who has an influence and standing with the administration. We know that the Democratic papers would have us believe that the Hon. Binger Hermann was ordered out of the Land Office by the President, in fact, was compelled to resign on account of frauds, conspiracy and numerous other charges.

Now does anyone suppose that if there were any grounds for these charges, that the Government would be guilty of allowing a man to go without a prosecution or without being held to answer these charges. If so, then the Administration certainly would need a rebuke, but there has been no ill feeling between Hermann and the Administration. There was simply a difference of opinion between him and Secretary Hitchcock, as to the policy of the Land Office. Mr. Hermann could not conscientiously act according to the Secretary's plans, so he did the only senisble thing to do, resigned.

Why do not the Democrats tell us some of the good qualities of their candidate, or inform us what he has done for his country? Are they afraid, or have they nothing to tell? Perhaps they want to attract as little attention to him as possible, and that is their reason for continually harping on the subject of Hermann's resignation. That is right, when you cannot tell any good of yourself talk about the other fellow.

Mr. Hermann for years has worked hard in the lower house and served faithfully the people he represented. He is acquainted with the work and knows the obstacles to be overcome. He has attended personally to the interests of those he was elected to serve, and no one can say that he ever neglected his duty. We believe that he will carry the largest majority that was ever given any candidate in this district.

STRONGER THAN EVER.

Moore's Comedians opened their season at the Central Opera House here with a three nights stand. Everyone has been looking forward to the treat that is always in store whenever this company plays here. The crowds that packed the house every night were unanimous in their praise of Mr. Moore and his company. They certainly deserve this praise as they will have the best and strongest inland company on the road this season.

Homer Pollard, who it will be remembered was with them last season, is still with the Company, otherwise with the exception of Pearl Ethier Moore and Mr. Moore himself, it is an entirely new cast, every member of which has an assured reputation and make an added strength to the Company. On Thursday night they presented "Jack O' Diamonds," a four act Western drama, on Friday night, "Michael Strogoff or a Courier to the Czar," a six act melodrama and on Saturday they concluded with one of their strongest plays—a play exceptionally strong in dramatic effect, dealing with the French Revolution, entitled, "The Voice of the People."

The Company carry their own scenery and stage settings, which were all newly designed and painted by Mr. Burns, one of the artists with the Company. These fine stage settings, together with the beautiful and elaborate costumes used by the Company, create an effect that is very pleasing to the most refined audiences, and all this, combined with the very clever acting of each and every member of the cast, make an entertainment that anyone cannot afford to miss.

Fred Moore made a big hit as Michael Strogoff and was roundly applauded, Pearl Ethier Moore in Jack O' Diamonds, as the wife of Jack, if such a thing were possible, made a better impression than ever before. The force and strength displayed in the acting of Mr. Eisen deserves special mention, as we rarely see one so young who shows such exceptional talent. Ruby Ethier Burns was beyond criticism and although this was her first appearance in this town she has won hosts of admirers. Mr. Pollard was even better than last year, and the music by Moore, Pollard and Eisen is a treat in itself. The work of Mr. Jahingen proves that he is an experienced actor and Flossie Everett and Messrs. Ethier and Wheeler are an excellent support for a strong Company. The Moore's left Monday for Merrill and from there they will make a tour of the Fort Jones country and will return here for the June races.

MR. ANKENY IN TOWN.

Mr. H. E. Ankeny of Jacksonville arrived in the City on Friday. He is here in the interest of the Klamath Falls Irrigating Co.

The town of Klamath Falls through attorneys Keesee of this place and Hammond of Grants Pass, has begun an action asking for an injunction against the company and charging that the ditch is a nuisence, which they allege is due to negligence on the part of the irrigating company.

The ditch has been in operation for about 22 years, or before the town was incorporated, therefore they have acquired a right of way by prescription and also an easement over the streets. The trouble seems to be caused through seepage from the ditch where it runs around the side of Ewauna Heights. Considerable water leaks through the ditch at this place and flows over the property below and thence into Main street where it generally stands in pools to the inconvenience of teams and the detriment of our town. This latter might be eliminated to a certain extent if we had any drainage system, but there is practically no attention paid to the drainage of our streets, and thus strangers coming into our town get a bad impression at the start, as the first thing they notice is the streets and business houses of a town and we certainly have nothing to be proud of in the former here at present.

Mr. Ankeny will be here about a week, he has retained attorneys Drake and J. C. Rutenic for the defense.

If the court grants an injunction it will practically mean the stopping of the water in the ditch. This would be a hard blow to the ranchers all along the ditch who are depending on the use of the water, and would mean a loss of trade to the business people as the land under the ditch would not produce much without water.

A LONG CHANCE.

(Ashland Tidings.)

Deputy District Attorney Clarence L. Reames, who was last week admitted to practice law in the courts of the state, was in Ashland Tuesday on official business connected with the prosecution of the two hoboes arrested here for assault. It is reported that Clarence is getting his hand in the work of the district attorney's office in anticipation of possibly succeeding to that office, for in inner democrat circles it is understood that in the event of the election of his brother, A. E. Reames to congress, Clarence is to be appointed by Governor Chamberlain to succeed to the vacancy that would thereby be created in the district attorney's office.

HERMANN SOLID SOUTH OF HERE.

Will Hold All Republicans and Capture Democrats Votes.

GRANTS PASS, Or., April 16.—Unless all signs fail indomitable Binger Hermann will get all there is coming from the voters of Josephine county at the June Congressional election. Reames being a Southern Oregon man and a Democrat, will probably poll the Democratic votes, but the politicians here predict nothing more for him. When it comes to "personal friends," the great Binger can name a longer list from this neck of the woods than Reames or any other politician.

Mr. Hermann's friends are not only in the ranks of the Republicans, but also among the Democrats, and the best of them at that. When Binger Hermann came down here on his preliminary "handshaking tour," he was entertained by the Democrats. The Republican leaders of the county on whom this happy duty should have fallen were not given an opportunity, and they laughed up their sleeves—that is, the Republicans, for nobody on earth except Binger himself could have done it.

Mr. Reames is a good young man and all like him, Republicans and Democrats the same. But as a prominent politician here was heard to remark yesterday. "Even those who like him best couldn't have heart to vote for him." So the matter stands now. The campaign will be waxed hot by both candidates, but nevertheless Mr. Hermann has a solid wall already built down here that will be hard to tear down. Others have tried it and failed. The coming contest will undoubtedly be no exception. —Eugene Register.

OREGON AHEAD.

(Oregon Observer.)

In a letter to W. E. Coman, general passenger and freight agent of the Southern Pacific, G. M. Mckinney of Cnicago, general immigration agent of the Harriman lines, says that Oregon is far outstripping all its neighbors in the number of inquiries for literature regarding the resources of the state. Mr. McKinny says he has found the publication, "Resources of Oregon," to be one of the most popular pieces of literature he has ever had in stock, and it has been a splendid advertisement for the 1905 Fair. He asks for 100,000 more copies and if possible he would like to have 200,000 copies.
