"Sanctification, an Essential to be Emphasized" will be the subject in the morning, and "Lot, a Young Man Who Hegan Well," a sermon of special interest to young men, will be the subject for the evening, next Sabbath, at the Presbyterian church.

The members of the Klamath Falls Greys propose to give one of the swellest dancing parties of the season at the Opera House Friday evening Aug. 7. Every effort will be put forth to make it an event of social importance. The proceeds are to go toward assisting in buying uniforms for the team. The suits have already been ordered.

A party of California people including James S. Brownell and Col. Alby Wolf of San Francisco and R. R. Flint and W. H. Leeman of Sacramento arrived in the city Tuesday on their return from a trip to Crater Lake. The gentlemen were highly amused over the trip. They were taken to the railroad by W. W. Hazen.

F. W. Valle, route agent of the U. S. postal department, was here this week and was considering among other things the feasibility of having the mail brought by way of the Klamath Lake railroad instead of by way of Ashland. It is believed the change will soon be made and there is no doubt that it will improve the service, especially during the winter months.

Season tickets for the fall races and are on sale at Baldwin's hardware, Schallack & Daggett's, Geo. R. Burns and the Gem saloon. The tickets are $2.00 and everyone should make it a point to buy at least one ticket as only in that way can we make the fair a success. The association have done everything that is possible and now it is up to the citizens to give them their support.

Chas. Hughes of Poe valley was in the city Wednesday.

Charles Martin and sisters, Mae and Maud, left Monday morning for Spring creek, where they will join the camping party including Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Martin and Mrs. Carey Ramsby.

Capt. O. C. Applegate and wife arrived in the city Monday on their way to the railroad. They were accompanied by their daughters, Misses Anna and Rachael, and son, Roy, who are returning to school at Berkeley.

Sunday Oregonian: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chapman, of Sellwood, announce the engagement of their daughter, Charity Rebecca Maldonado, to Mr. A. S. Hammond, of Grants Pass. The wedding will take place early in the fall.

Elmer I. Applegate of the Brookside ranch was a Klamath Falls visitor Wednesday. Mrs. Applegate whose health has been poorly is reported as greatly improved since her return to Klamath county from California.

David Alexander was arrested Thursday evening on a charge of disorderly conduct and using profane language on the street. He appeared before Justice Graves the next morning and was fined $15.50, which he paid.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Goble and son returned to this city Tuesday from a month's trip through the northern and eastern parts of Klamath county. They spent the 4th at Fort Klamath and later went to Bonanza and Ely, returning by way of Swan lake.

A very successful operation was performed Monday evening by Dr. Hargus assisted by Dr. Merrymann. The eight year old boy of Henry Ireland was brought down Sunday by boat from Pelican bay suffering from appendicitis. The case was considered so serious that very little hopes were entertained for his recovery and the one slim chance was through the use of the knife. Now however due to the excellent work of the doctors the boy is resting very comfortably and is in a fair way to recovery. Mr. Ireland is from Jacksonville, but is at present one of the forest rangers near Pelican bay. He only agreed to the operation as a last recourse but is now overjoyed at what he considers the extraordinary success of the doctors.

George P. DeLong, of DeLong, Chamberlain & Co., lumbermen, of Plainville, Minn., was in the city last week. He is here looking over the tract of timber near Aspen lake which his company bought last fall. He is very much pleased with the timber in this country and says that if the business people of Klamath Falls would unite and work together there is no reason why the half dozen big mills which will eventually be operating in this timber, should not be located near enough to our city so that all their trade could be shared by our business houses. When asked how soon his company contemplated putting in a plant he said "just as soon as the railroad reaches here for we cannot do any thing without a railroad."

A good joke is being told on two of our young society buds, Floyd Baldwin and Ed Burriss. Sunday evening accompanied by three young ladies they proceeded to enjoy a drive in the direction of Keno; everything went pleasantly until on the return when about three miles from town for some reason not yet satisfactorily explained the party decided it would be better to walk the rest of the way, at least that is what they proceeded to do, the team having gone on ahead. We have had a little experience ourselves in allowing a team to start home alone and have found that it is a great deal cheaper to send a driver along. We have learned later on good authority that the runaway was an accident. One of the wheels got caught in a rut thereby upsetting the rig and throwing out the occupants. Fortunately no one was hurt.

STOCK ITEMS.

C. Swanston & Son, of Sacramento, purchased several hundred head of the Churchill cattle last week. We understand the price paid was six cents net weighed at the Boyce ranch after twelve hours stand.

Louis Gerber had a band of 1400 fine mutton sheep pass through Poe valley last week bound for Montague. Bud Hall had charge of them.

From clippings of Eastern Oregon and Nevada papers of recent date, the outlook for the stock industry is not encouraging. The lack of spring rains has made both pasture and hay a very scarce commodity and cattle and sheep are offered at a very low figure.

LIVE STOCK SALE.

The Breeders' Combination auction sale of live stock to be held at the Oregon state fair at Salem, September 14 to 19, 1903, will be one of the greatest sales ever held on the Pacific coast. All of the large breeders, such as Chas. E. Ladd, W. O. Minor, C. B. Wade, Alex. Chalmers, D. H. Looney, Chas. Cleveland, P. A. Frakes, Hazelwood Company, W. J. Townley, J. Matty, J. B. Stump, Atkinson Bros., are sending some of the best stock on their respective farms to this sale, which will give the farmer and small breeder a splendid opportunity of buying some choice stock right at home.

TIMBER DEAL IS DENIED.

Saturday's dispatches reported that James J. Hill and E. H. Harriman, railroad magnates, were promoting a combination to control the timber and lumber markets of the world. Following interviews, however, deny the report: Mr. Hill says: "It might just as well have been said we had bought the moon. There is no truth in it. I do not own any timber, and I don't want any timber. There is nothing to the report whatever." When told of the story, Mr. Weyerhaeuser said:

"The telegram is news to me. I have not contemplated any such purchase. It is a mere fancy. What-ever I do not know, but I am not in a deal of this nature."

REPORT FROM CRATER LAKE.

W. F. Arant, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, was in town the fore part of the week. He reports that two miles of the new road has been completed and several new bridges built on the old road. He says, however, that improvements will have to cease soon on account of lack of funds, the apportionment for the work having been insufficient.

He states that tourists are pouring into the park in steadily increasing numbers. The snow has disappeared enough to enable easy access to the lake and comfortable camping. Mr. Arant has found that the fish put into the lake six years ago have survived and multiplied. Thus it is demonstrated that the waters will sustain fish life. Mr. Arant is making an effort to have a boat on the lake in time to accommodate Mr. Steel's big excursion.

DEATH OF WALLIE WILSON.

Word was received by wire from San Francisco Saturday morning by Mrs. Frank Ward of the death of her son, Walter T. Wilson, at the Pacific hospital. Mr. Wilson went to San Francisco three months ago, accompanied by his wife, for medical treatment. He had been suffering from appendicitis, for which he recently underwent an operation, from the effects of which he died.

Mrs. Ward left Saturday evening for San Francisco, in which city the funeral took place on Tuesday.

The deceased is well known throughout Klamath county, having lived here a greater part of his life, and was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America in which organization he was insured for $2,000. He was in his 24th year at the time of his death. His wife and other relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

THE DREDGER AT WORK.

J. F. Adams, one of the leading members of the Little Klamath Ditch Co., was in town Monday. He reports that the company's dredger is now making progress in cutting a canal from Little Klamath lake to White lake, the source of supply for the irrigating ditch. The dredging is necessarily slow work and it will take some time to complete the distance of four miles. Mr. Adams is enthusiastic over the prospect of reclaiming land in this country. He believes that irrigation of arid sections and drainage of lands contiguous to the lakes by use of dredgers will make Klamath one of the richest counties in the state.

Mr. Adams was accompanied by two McArthur brothers who are engaged in the business of reclaiming land in Shasta county, Cal. They were looking over the field for future developments along that line here and expressed themselves as being very favorably impressed.

OUR IMPRESSIONS.

Men who have sensitive necks and are averse to venering them from washbone to chin with razor-edged, adamantite collars, will be glad to know that the czar of fashion has lately ordered a change of style. It is now proper to wear low collars and this department hopes the boss of the fashion works won't deem it necessary to ever again call into vogue the stovepipe variety.

Abuse of child labor is not wholly confined to factories, mines and other employing enterprises of populous centers. One occasionally sees evidence of it in rural communities. Without dilution on the mental and physical injury to frail youth through excessive toil, let us suggest that there is probably an apartment in nethermost hell especially designed and fitted for the reception and entertainment of those guilty of such abuse.

Pope Leo's successor will soon be chosen. Who in America is not thankful that he is not eligible to the high pontifical office? Who would forfeit his liberty here for practical imprisonment in Rome? Power, luxury, ease and lavish attentions would not compensate for the restricted life of the pope. However, one of the cardinals can probably be persuaded to fill the vacancy. As for us, we would prefer sticking to America and wrestling with country journalism.

Kansas has been so prosperous of late years that the despairing groans of populism and calamity are now seldom heard there. Time was when a cemetery calm prevailed over the sunflower state and life was apprehensive and sad. For a number of successive years hot winds blasted crops and forced many people into the throes of poverty. Russian thistles appeared with drouth and the two sources of melancholy developed myriads of populists. They were a cheerless lot of fellows and by mental in-oculation the whole population, as though transferred to a morgue, was made to feel gloomy and regard the prospect as likely to bring demotion, desolation and any other things that the architect of evil might have in stock. But a great change has been wrought in Kansas the last few years. Crops have been heavy, prices high and populism and despondency have disappeared. People there now feel good, are saturated with optimism and smile frequently and audibly. Thus, Kansas, once sad, is now glad, once in the clutches of cynical populism, is now freed from its grasp and will support the republican ticket from top to bottom.

THE ASHLAND NORMAL.

The State Normal School at Ashland, Oregon, has by its splendid work shown itself worthy the patronage of the people of Southern and Southeastern Oregon. 277 students were enrolled last year and a fine class of sixteen graduated therefrom. All of these have good positions for next year. A fine new school building is being erected now and a gymnasium with all modern equipments will be ready for use at the opening of the school next autumn. The surroundings of this school are both physically and morally healthful and the social atmosphere of the school pure and stimulating to the highest effort on the part of the student. Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by Chitwood & Co.
