WARNER VALLEY LAND CASES.

Several weeks ago the matter of the ontest between the Warner Valley Land Company and several settlers in that valley, came up before the State Land Board for adjudication. The Warner Valley Land Company claims title to the land through the state by virtue of purchase and deed under the swamp land act. Governor Chamberlain wants more time to look into the respective claims and on Thursday sent out the following telegram to Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock: Approved list No. 70, swamp lands, Lakeview district, Oregon, received. Again I earnestly request that no patent issue until request therefor is made by me, pursuant to acts of Congress, September 28, 1850, extended to Oregon by act of March 12, 1860. The Klamath County Live Stock No one has authority from me to represent the State of Oregon in requesting issuance of patents of the land or of any of them embraced in said list, though I am just informed that some one pretends to represent the Government of Oregon for that purto these lands, I will make no request for issuance of patents. - Tidings.
