TREFREN CASE GOES OVER.

The case of G. W. Trefren, the Ashland attorney charged with the uttering of a spurious legal instrument in having the same placed on the county records, was continued until the regular December term of the circuit court. The defendant alleged in certain affidavits filed in the court that witnesses who are essential to his defense are now without the state but may be had in December. Judge Hanna upon the showing made granted a continuance as prayed for by the defendant and fixed the bond at $1000 which was filed with Squire Parker, H. S. Evans, Mrs. G. W. Trefren and Mrs. Florence Pratt as sureties—Tidings.

NEWS FROM MERRILL.

C. C. Swanson arrived here from Sacramento to-day to confer with T. J. Offield, who does his buying in this vicinity. He states that they will start in about ten days with 400 head of cattle for Montague from which place they will ship to Sacramento. Swanson has bought about 2000 tons of hay here at from $6 to $6.30 a ton. This is a very satisfactory price to the farmers and seems to be the prevalent price. He will feed about 1500 head of cattle in this vicinity this year commencing about October 15.

Considerable excitement was created here on account of a drunken brawl which took place in this town this morning. The participants were John Ratliff the town marshal and Alex Zevely, of Bonanza. Both had been drinking and on the scrap. Before the fight occurred another drunk who is known as "Hooligan," relieved the marshal of his star, billy-club and other weapons needed in preserving the peace in Merrill and after the fight was over he hastened to deliver the above-named articles to the mayor or with the greatest speed possible, saying that he didn't care for the marshal's job after all. John Ratliff had decidedly the worst of the fray and as a result Dr. Merryman was called to sew up his face. J. V. S. Merrill, Sept. 21, 1903.
