11,000 ACRES SWAMP LAND.

Big Tract in Klamath County Bought From the State at $1 an Acre to Be Reclaimed. A Salem dispatch in Saturday's ginning of an enterprise which is expected to add 100,000 acres of the best kind of pasture land to the retownship 34 south, range 71 east. The tract lies west of Wood river, between the Cascade mountains and Upper Klamath lake, and six miles tral Cafe.

While the tract was sold in separate parcels of not exceeding 320 acres o bne purchaser, it is understood reclamation work will be conducted undertaken before in Oregon. Mrs. sons H. H. Roberts of Poe Valley and Jessie Carr Seale, a daughter of Jesse

For the sale of the land the state received $1 per acre, or $11,000. The purchasers intend to construct a floating dredge at an expense of $10,-000 and build dikes and ditches at an expense of $50,000, by means of which the tule marsh will be drained excellent pasture lands.

sypense of $50,000, by means of which the tule marsh will be drained to such an extent that it will make excellent pasture lands.

The persons who have undertaken this enterprise have been working quietly and intended to acquire the whole tract. In a measure they were whole tract. In a measure they were specessful, but it is understood that siders. The fact that the purchases were being made did not become pub complete list of special deputies as lie until today.
