KLAMATH'S AWAKENING.

Klamath county is to have a Board of Trade. The interest evinced at the meeting Saturday, called for the purpose of starting the machinery to give to such an organization, is a promising criterion, and one of the many indications of the awakening of the people of our town and county to the necessity of a more vigorous and wide-awake policy concerning the county's future development. That the welfare of the county has demanded such an organization for years no live business man will deny, at the same time a curious apathy has hung, like a pall, over our community against which the spasmodic efforts of a few of our enterprising men have proved unavailing.

At last there is assurance that something will be done—that Klamath county will take her rightful place among other energetic sections in her endeavor to make the most of her many and varied resources.

The West can show no territory with our advantages and opportunities of which so little is known as the Great Klamath Basin. Even the people of our neighboring counties have a very hazy idea of our climate and crop characteristics. They speak of the Klamath Lake country as a territory of which little can be said, with the exception that it is a cold, arid region and fit only for cattle growing. The writer well remembers incidents in which Rogue River Valley people have expressed surprise that fruit, and even grain, could be grown here.

Taking these facts into consideration, is it strange that we have advanced so slowly? Is it remarkable that other communities with a fraction of our resources should outstrip us in both inhabitants and acquired wealth?

In the organization and management of the Board of Trade, its members should be stern in their demand that individual greed and ambition at the expense of the usefulness of the Board, shall never find lodgment within its body. A competent secretary should be provided—one who could not be suspected of using his office for the furtherance of personal aims, and whose energy, ability and tact in placing facts accurately before intending settlers could not be questioned. He should be a clear and concise writer as his duties would be mainly the answering of letters of inquiry.

This movement should have the hearty co-operation of every citizen of the county. The upbuilding of this section would be a financial gain to every person within its borders, irrespective of business or occupation. We need a railroad to give us a market and to lower freight rates; we need irrigation facilities to develop our arid territory; we need capital to establish many business enterprises, and we need more people. How are we to get these unless we advertise our wants? L. A. L.

FORT KLAMATH JOTTINGS.

A shift of the most beautiful has made it more pleasant getting around. Pleasant weather and plenty of hay have made everybody happy. The shortage of hay, scare, which sprung into quite a blizzard a month or so since has subsided. No damage done we are pleased to note.

We are glad to hear that Prof. W. H. Musselman, of Merrill, formally of this place, is able to be up and around again after his severe spell of sickness, as the report reached here that he was not expected to recover.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

The old as well as the young people here have had a very pleasant holiday season. The first in the line of entertainments was a surprise party given in honor of Rev. Pepper, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cronemiller. There were about fifty of his friends present. All brought him something of a substantial nature that he might remember them by. After various games and a social time generally all returned feeling they had performed a Christian duty and were amply rewarded therefore.

Next in line was a school entertainment and Christmas tree on Christmas Eve, both tree and entertainment were pronounced a grand success.

A masquerade ball on New Years at the new hall was also a grand succes. There were over 100 people all told who attended. About 50 changed their complection and forms.

There were many well sustained characters. This being the first ball of the kind ever given here, the maskers and all others that helped to make it a success, were highly complemented for their trouble. No prize was offered for the best sustained character, but a nice cake was awarded for the cake walk. Those competing for the cake were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Scott, Mr. Chas. Rucher and Miss Bessie Butter. Mr. and Mrs. Scott showed they were masters of the art, but as the other couple stepped the highest they got the cake. Next was a cash prize offered for the best waltzing couple. Those competing for that were: Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. L. Sisemore, and Mr. Fred Cronemiller and Mrs. D. W. Ryan. The judges to decide this matter were J. W. McCoy, James Emery and D. W. Ryan, and after exhausting both musicians and waltzers it was decided that as they were all first-class waltzers and there being no choice between them, the judges should divide the spoils. Supper being next in order, tables previously provided, were brought in and placed along almost the entire length of the hall, on which was spread a supper that was an appetizer to any King, there being turkeys, chickens, bread, cakes and pies of all kinds that were good and a plenty for as many more as there were to eat of it. After supper all things were cleared away and a dance for every lady was had, which continued until about 4 o'clock a. m., when all went home feeling they had had a good time and hoping the entire year would be as pleasant to them as the first part. —KENO—

REAL ESTATE ACTIVE.

$100,000 Worth of Klamath County Real Estate Changes Hands During First Week in New Year.

The first week in 1904 has witnessed many transfers of property in Klamath county. In every case the price has been an advance over sales during last year and shows the rapid increase in value of our city and country property. There have been about a dozen small sales of city property. The larger deals are as follows:

Tuesday, Jan. 5: J. Frank Adams to E. P. McCornack, 1050 acres in Tps. 40–11 and 41–8 near Merrill. Consideration $14,600 and subject to liens which will total about $40,000.

Walter G. Ritter and Thomas Saulsbury to E. E. Fitch: lots 1 and 2 and part of lot 3 in block 28 and lot 1 and part of lot 2, block 29, town of Merrill, known as the Merrill Livery stables. Consideration $2000.

Monday, Jan. 4: John Haphazard to J. G. Pierce, 720 acres below Altamont. Consideration $3600.

Monday, Jan. 4: J. G. Pierce to John Dixon, 240 acres near Altamont.

Ellen C. Dalrymple and C. H. Dalrymple to C. Cunningham, 320 acres in Section 9 & 12, Tp. 25 S., R. 8 E. Consideration $1327.

Monday, Jan. 4: Caleb T. Oliver to E. E. Fitch, the Mascot Stock ranch, containing 153 acres. Consideration $6400.

Monday, Jan. 4: E. E. Fitch to Caleb T. Oliver, the Merrill Livery stables in town of Merrill. Consideration $4800.

N. S. Merrill to Silas O. Jones, 490 acres adjoining the town of Merrill and all under the ditch. Consideration for the land, $30,000. For the stock, etc. $10,000. Deal not fully completed.

BIG CANAL REVIVED.

Prominent California Capitalists Ready to Build Irrigation Canal into Klamath Basin.

C. W. Hawkins, a wealthy banker of Holister, Calif. with two associates, W. K. Brown and B. F. Gould have been in the city since the first of the year investigating the proposition of building an irrigation canal from the Upper Klamath Lake.

Mr Hawkins states that while the amount of land that would come under the ditch is not as large as he had been led to believe, yet he is quite satisfied with the outlook and is willing to build the ditch.

A copy of the contract to be used by these people has been left with E. R. Reames and any those interested are invited to call and look it over. None of the objectionable features of the "Brong" contract are to be found in the new one and as a whole it appears to be a good fair proposition to the land owner.

At an informal meeting Tuesday of a number of prominent ranchers the contract was gone over and at their suggestion a number of changes were made. Those present then showed their approval of the scheme by signing for their land. Mr. Hawkins and party went to Merrill yesterday to look over the country and meet a number of the land owners there.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Organization Approved by Nearly All the Business Men at a Meeting Saturday.

The meeting for the purpose of organizing a Board of Trade for Klamath county, which was called for Saturday afternoon at the court house was well attended.

Judge H. L. Benson and C. C. Chitwood were elected chairman and secretary respectively of the meeting. The matter was thoroughly discussed and it was voted as the sense of the meeting that they organize and incorporate a Board of Trade. The following gentlemen were named as a committee to draw up articles of incorporation and plan of organization: J. W. Hamakar, Geo. T. Baldwin, and E. R. Reames of Klamath Falls and Francis Bowne of Bonanza. The meeting then adjourned to meet again to complete organization at the call of the committee.

OF INTEREST TO TEACHERS.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

To whom it may concern: In accordance with the late legislative enactment, the state board of education will issue state life diplomas on and after March 24, 1904 to teachers who have taught not less than six years successfully in the public schools of the state and who hold state diplomas received in consequence of having held state certificates and having taught for years successfully in the public schools of this state and having passed an examination before a county superintendent or a board of county examiners in book-keeping, composition and physical geography; provided they passed an examination before the state board of examiners at the time of holding examinations for state certificates, viz: February and August of each year, in the additional branches of algebra, English literature, Oregon school law and general history and present a recommendation from the board of county examiners and have paid a fee of $10; provided, further, that the applicant shall have made an average of 85 per cent in all the branches herein prescribed and shall not fall below 70 per cent in any one branch; provided, further, that the applicant has complied with all the other requirements of the law.

Such teachers may at their discretion take an examination for a state life diploma in the additional branches in February, 1904, and the standings secured at such examination will be placed to their credit and, if successful, a state life diploma will be issued on March 24, 1904. All such applicants must file with the Superintendent of Public Instruction a separate application on blanks furnished by him for that purpose. Respectfully yours,

J. H. ACKERMAN,
Superintendent Public Instruction.

VACANT STATE LAND.

The State of Oregon has for sale some 250,000 acres of school land, mostly in Eastern Oregon. This land consists of the 18th and 36th sections in each township, where not already sold. With the exception of land which shall hereafter be surveyed, all this school land is offered at the uniform price of $2.50 per acre. Land hereafter surveyed will be sold to the highest bidder, but no bid of less than $2.50 per acre will be accepted.

In addition to the lands mentioned above, the state has some 50 improved farms which were taken by the state upon foreclosure of mortgages given to secure loans from the irreducible school funds. These lands vary in price according to the actual value, which depends upon location, soil, improvements, etc. These farms are held for sale by the State Land Agent, who acts under the directions of the State Land Board.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by C. C. Chitwood.
