Somewhat Personal

This may seem—but has it ever occurred to YOU that YOU can protect YOUR family and YOUR estate with a policy in the EQUITABLE LIFE that is good for its face value any day that you may die, and that is also worth in cash all the premiums you shall have paid (and profits besides) if you live twenty years? Its true. For the proof and full particulars ask WILL S. WORDEN,
Resident Solicitor,
Klamath Falls, Oregon.

James E. Sullivan, a successful hotel man of Deer River, Minn., made proof on a timber claim Tuesday. Mr.
Sullivan is very much impressed with Klamath Falls and may decide to go into business here. He already owns some city property, which he purchased last summer, on his first trip here.
H. E. Smith, of Merrill was in the city Sunday.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. E. Polton, the cattle man of Ashland, was in the city the first of the week.

Ed Burris, of the Hotel Linkville, returned home Monday from a visit to Ashland.

G. W. Trefren, the real estate dealer of Ashland was doing business in the city Monday.

Wm. Flackus, the bridge builder, accompanied by his wife, was in the city Saturday from Dairy.

Fred Stahlman arrived home Saturday from a two months visit, with relatives, at Newman Calif.

Dan Griffith was down from Odessa Monday. He states that he has his new saw mill nearly ready to begin work.

day from Gazelle after 300 head of the Mitchell Bros. cattle which he started Tuesday morning.

Miss Mary L. Leader arrived in the city Monday en route to Klamath Agency, where she has a position as teacher in the Indian school.

Ed McCarthy returned to the city Monday. He assisted Mr. C. C. Malby in moving to his ranch on the Klamath river, and has been visiting with him since.

Rex Bord, John Shook and Silas Kilgore are representing Klamath county at the National Livestock Convention, which is being held this week in Portland.

porators of the new ditch, in conjunction with his father controls one of the largest banking institutions in San Benito County, Cal.

M. A. Eddy, of Pogeama, was in the city Saturday doing business here for the County Commissioners court.
He intends going to Ashland where he will remain several months.

Tuesday evening, January 7, the following officers were installed, by Fred Mellase, of Fort Klamath has purchased of Major Worden a 20 foot front lot lying west of the Linkville Hotel, on which he proposes to erect a two story stone building with launder. The first floor will be used by Mr. Mellase to conduct a wholesale and retail meat market. Mr. Worden still owns 20 feet adjoining and it is his intention to put up a similar building with a stairway between the two. These new stone buildings would be a fine addition to the West End.

Regular services as usual at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath.
Definite announcement will then be made concerning the Bible class for the popular synthetic study of the book of books, which is to meet weekly. Some illustrations of the helpfulness of the study as a means of intellectual and literary enjoyment, as well as spiritual profit will be given at both the Sabbath services.

The pastor has been privileged to sit at the feet of many of the world's greatest bible teachers, and is not without experience in such teaching.
He also has one of the best teachers made and will from time to time illustrate bible themes, and if the light proves satisfactory will give frequent illustrated lectures. There will be special courses of study for children, which will also be illustrated.
A small admission fee may be charged those not members of the classes to the illustrated services.

SOCIETY COUPLE WED.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Applegate was the scene Saturday evening of a very pretty wedding when their daughter, Miss Lena, was joined in marriage to Dr. H. B. Hargus.
The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate relatives being present. The ceremony was performed by Judge H. L. Benson.

The groom is one of the leading and most prosperous physicians in Klamath county and is connected with all the prominent lodges and clubs in the city. The bride, whom we are proud to own as a native of Klamath county, is very popular in social circles.
Dr. and Mrs. Hargus have moved into their beautiful new residence on Conger Avenue, which has just been completed and furnished.

BONANZA ITEMS.

Clard Daggett of the Falls was in town last week.

O. Short of Spring Lake was in town last Saturday and Sunday.

E. S. Terwilliger was over from Merrill gathering the last of his range cattle.

Owing to the small attendance at the meeting of the Klamath County live stock ass'n last week, the only business transacted was the appointing of John Shook and Rex Bord delegates to the National Live Stock Convention at Portland.

Tom Wiseman and Henry Schalklock have joined interests in the saloon business. Mr. Wiseman closing his saloon recently purchased of Alex.

Zevely and they are operating the business in the building occupied by Mr.
Schalklock.

Sunday evening two of the beaux of the town were treating their lady loves to the very best of the season, a sleigh ride. Whether the driver had the reins around his neck or over the dash board is not known, but in a very few minutes the occupants and sleigh were scattered around several blocks. Ten dollars for an old sleigh probably made the boys feel thankful that it wasn't a new one.

Bills are out for a leap year man-querade ball here on the 25th inst.
Bonanza, Jan. 12, 1904.

FORT KLAMATH JOTTINGS.

Horace Mitchell will last week looking after some beef cattle, which he contracted for last fall with George and Fred Loosley, for midwinter delivery at 74 cents.

Quite a number of our ranchers are feeling beef cattle for the winter and spring market, but not under contract as are the Loosleys. Among them are: Fred and Gus Mellase, Gordon Bros. D. Cronmiller, Pelton and Sisemore, Acy Fordyce, E. R.
Hanan and others. We hope they will find a good market for their beef.

Gus Mellase has left the reservation again, he and Fred having moved their cattle from Williamson to Wood River. They have been feeding 200 or 400 head down there for the last month or so.

The Misses Kittie Wells, Tilla Dixson and Bessie Butler visited friends at the Agency a few days last week.
They returned home in time for the dance at Butler's hall last Friday night.

Cally Gray of Hildebrand is paying his old friends and relatives at this place a visit.

Jas. Worlow returned yesterday from Medford, where his wife is spending the winter. When asked what he was grinning about so much, all he would say was: "it's a girl and its hair is red and just like its papa."

The Kingston Bros. of this place have quite a crew of men cutting, sawing and hauling logs from their thirty thousand capacity saw mill.
They are not saving much this winter, but are preparing for a big run next spring and summer.

Mrs. L. Heggis, who has been spending the winter back in Maine visiting relatives and old time friends is expected home the last of this month.

We are glad to learn that the people in and around Klamath Falls are beginning to realize the benefits they will derive by the extension of the Klamath Lake Railroad to that place, and hope they will give such assistance as may be necessary to cause the road to be built there. We believe this to be your golden opportunity, so don't let it slide by, as it will strike us sure. So you see we up here are so situated that we cannot give anything more substantial than good advice, and as we give that freely we hope it may not come amiss, but be the means of helping you to accomplish much good for that section.

KENO.

The young boys are having a gay time sleighing as the roads are just fine for cutters.

The town was quite excited last Saturday as Bird Loosley's team became frightened and ran away with wagon and hay-rack. They only broke the corner of the rack. See here, Bird, keep a close eye on your team and do not pay so much attention to the nearest house.

Mr. J. H. Gordon's baby has been quite sick with the croup, but is better at this writing.

Mr. Steve Hoyt of Klamath Falls made his census, C. E. and G. S.
Hoyt a pleasant visit last week.
Come again Steve, the ducks are plenty.

Fort Klamath has completed a new hall in which the young people had a fine big dance last Friday evening.

Louis Smatt and Ora Engle have had a beautiful new sleigh made.

Jesse Vose came in from the marsh last Friday.

Word was received here today that Peter Barker of Portland was dead.
He is a brother of H. C. Barker of this place.

The ladies of Fort Klamath have announced a leap-year party for the 12th of February.

JANUARY 11, 1904.

TWIN SISTERS.

IRRIGATION COMPANY—NOTICE.

W. K. Brown, engineer and one of the incorporators of the new Irrigation company, will be at the County School Superintendent's office in the court house at Klamath Falls during the next week, excepting Monday and Tuesday, January 18 and 19, which he will be at Whitney Mercantile Company's store at Merrill, prepared to explain their contract and receive signatures to the same.

If sufficient acreage is subscribed, survey will be made at once over the valley and ditch construction with a full crew will begin not later than July 1, 1904. Arrangements are being made to surrender the old contracts upon signing of the new.

All owners under the system are cordially invited to call during the time, either at Klamath Falls or Merrill.

GRAZING ON RESERVE.

Stock-men who wish to graze stock within the Southern Division of the Cascade Range Forest Reserve, are requested to make application at once to the forest supervisor, at Roseburg, Oregon, as all applications for this privilege during the season of 1904, must be on file in his office not later than February 19, 1904.

S. C. BERTHUM,
Forest Supervisor.

A PRISONER IN HER OWN HOUSE.

Mrs. W. H. Layba, of 1991 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by C. C. Chitwood.
