that is good for its face value any day that you worth in cash all the pre-stock conditions in San Luis Obispo and Monterey counties and from there to Los Angeles, including the counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura and the southern part of San Joaquin, as very bad. Large numbers of cattle and stock are dying from starvation.

LOOKS LIKE A SURE THING.
Over 22,500 Acres Already Signed For the Big Irrigation Canal.
Mr. Brown, one of the incorporators of the new ditch and who is here receiving signers for the contract, states that there are now 22,500 acres signed, besides this there are a number of ranchers who have written that they would be in town in a few days and sign up and also a few whom he has been unable to see.
He is now only waiting the arrival of Mr. Hawkins, who will leave California on the 10th, when it will be definitely decided whether the ditch will be built or not. Those who have not already signed and wish to be requested to do so during the next week.

BONANZA NOTES.
Albert Walker, of Bly, was in town over Sunday.
J. L. Yaden is in town looking after his stage business.
Owen McKendree lost about 50 tons of hay by fire last Saturday night. The fire was of incendiary origin, and several boxes were dug in the bottom of the stack and fire started at each place.
Another meeting last week of the Langell Valley Telephone Co. for the purpose of building and operating telephone lines in Klamath Co. Frank amount of stock, 100 shares of $10 each. More than one-half of stock has been subscribed. A line will be built from here to Frank Grohs' ranch by the way of Lorella, and it is the intention to have it completed by June 1. DASH.

Bonanza, Feb. 2.

STOCK ITEMS.
Mitchell Bros. took out the last of their beef cattle last week, some 230 head bound for Gazelle.
C. A. Bunting sold some 200 head of fine beef cattle to Mitchell Bros.
The cattle started for Gazelle last Sunday.
T. J. Offield started 225 cattle for C. Swanson & Son last Monday from Merrill to be shipped to Sacramento.
Shook Bros. sold 70 head of beef cattle last week to Louis Gerber.
McCall Bros. took out 1000 head of fine mutton sheep last week for Louis Gerber. The sheep were fed on the Wm. Ball ranch.
C. Swanson, the Sacramento wholesale butcher, was a visitor at Merrill last week.
There are still about 1000 head of beef cattle in the Merrill country belonging to Swanson and Gerber.
In addition to having a fine band of sheep, Mr. Gerber has the distinction of having the two tallest herders take his sheep to Montague that ever left this part of Oregon. The Mc-Call Bros. are giants. Claude McCall stands 6 feet 4 1/2 inches and his brother, Irve, stands 6 feet 7 inches. The combined length of both is nearly 13 feet. Mr. Gerber says no danger but what they can look ahead for forage.

MERRILL ITEMS.
Guy Merrill returned from San Francisco and way cities last week.
He reports a good time.
Last week was a record breaker for surprise parties. Five surprises, and one that was a surprise each way.
The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Geo. Lesley has been quite ill. She is improving now.
L. Gerber, of Lorella, who feeds tons of alfalfa each year, was here on business last week.
Miss Allie Ball entertained a number of her girl friends last Thursday.
The event being to celebrate her 10th birthday. In all about twelve were invited and a most enjoyable time was had.
Dr. Merryman, of Klamath Falls, paid our city a short business visit last week. If that ditch comes the doctor will wear the broad smile as he has a nice claim in the Sand Hollow country that will produce almost anything.
Our city was thrown into a high state of excitement last Saturday by the mysterious disappearance of one of our beans. Many were the con-jectures, elopement, suicide, accident, etc. But Ted had simply gone home with Clay. Now laugh.
Mr. Albert Whitney has just returned from California. He reports stock of all kinds dying for lack of water in the southern part of the state. Oregon will do for us.
Cats. Cats can be had here, any color, size, sex or number, cheap for cash.
If W. H. Musselman, our teacher, gains strength as fast as he expects to, he will begin school again February 15.
Mr. Mack Irvin departed for parts east last Monday.
Why not organize a club of Republicans at Merrill.
Mr. Swanson of Sacramento is here looking after his beef cattle, also buying a little hay. He left for his home Monday.
Mr. Cale Oliver is building a chicken house for those prize chickens.
Caleb Oliver and Johnny Martin paid Poe valley a short visit last Sunday.
Bert Davis and family have moved to the Bevens ranch, where Mr.
Davis has a position with Walter Ritter. They moved out Sunday.
A Saturday night leap year dance is billed for next Saturday night.
The married women to take single men and the single ladies to take married men and pay expenses. Mr.
Ratiff says he is engaged and now every one is wondering.
"One little skunk not as large as a rabbit can stink up a thousand sheep and then trot off with its tail over its back. One long-tongued lying gos-siper can stir up a whole town and besmear the fairest character in it and trot off unharmed. Of the two I would rather be the skunk, for the gossiper is sure to go to hell and all the skunk has to do is to die."
Merrill, February 1. REGULAR.
