Fred Melhase and Monroe Morgan came down from Fort Klamath yesterday with 84 head of beef cattle, which Mr. Melhase sold to L. Gerber for 75 cents a pound. The cattle were weighed at Mitchell's.

All services as usual at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. Subject of the sermon at 11 a. m. "Be sure your sins will find you out," and at 7:30 p. m. "Christianity a system of Persuasion." All made welcome.

A. C. Lewis & Co. are fixing up their shop and will put in a new meat chopper for making sausage. Mr. Eick has a reputation for fine sausage and it has been found necessary to add new machinery in order to supply the demand.

Capt. O. C. Applegate informs us that he was officially notified yesterday that the government had approved the right of way for the proposed Telephone and Telegraph line of L. Hessig, through the reservation from Fort Klamath to Klamath Falls. Mr. Hessig has the poles all ready and the work will be rushed. Mr. Applegate has also submitted a proposition to the Indian Department, to build a connecting line between the Agency and Yainax.

Louis Gerber informs us that he is thoroughly acquainted with the land inundated by the breaking of the levee in the Sacramento valley, having spent a great deal of his time there since 1860. He says it is one of the richest tracts of land in the world. Thousands of tons of potatoes, onions, hops, beans, corn and asparagus are grown annually. He received a letter from his brother John, yesterday stating that the crop is practically ruined for this season and that the damage would be over $1,000,000.

W. S. Worden yesterday received a dispatch from Delta, Ohio, that Mr. A. L. Sargent of this place had been stricken with paralysis. Another a few hours later announced that he died at 10 A. M. the same day. Mr. Sargent left for Ohio last January hoping that the change might benefit his health and he was supposed to be improving until the arrival of the sad news. The remains will be brought to Klamath Falls for interment at a later date. Mrs. Sargent and daughter, Mrs. Worden have the sympathy of the entire community.

Judge Hanna has just handed down a decision in the case of John Connolly against Henry Snowgoose, tried before him in November, while he was taking the place of Judge Benson. The action was for $1000 for timber left standing on Connolly's land after the expiration of a contract to remove it, also for rent of a residence, and the value of fuel furnished. The judgment is to the effect that Connolly is not entitled to recover for the timber, and that nothing was owing him for rent or fuel, carrying with it a judgment for costs in favor of Snowgoose.

FORT KLAMATH JOITTINGS.

Mr. Garrett of the Marsh is spending a few days here.

Mr. Ager passed through this valley a few days ago on his way to the Marsh where he has 75 or 100 head of cattle.

Colly Gray, while out hunting last week, unfortunately had his gun accidentally discharged. The ball, a 32 caliber, striking him in the fleshy part of his leg below the knee ranging downward, coming out at the ankle. He is getting along nicely at the home of his sister, Mrs. Kirkpatrick at this place.

Fred Melhase starts today with his beef cattle for San Francisco after having failed to get a satisfactory offer here. Fred will have the top price for his beef, if he has to spend a thousand dollars to get it.

Yes, we also think the American thoroughbred referred to by Mr. Vigilant is a sure winner in the coming races. But I think the others referred to will have an up-hill pull, notwithstanding one of them has made a wonderful record in the racing heretofore. He successfully induced a great many republicans twice, but the third time I think the republicans will have him, provided, however, that good judgment is used in the republican convention in filling their ticket with efficient and upright men, and men whose loyalty to their party in the past cannot be questioned, and who have no home factional fight to be handicapped with. With a ticket composed of such men, the republicans have a per cent over the democrats on election day, as this county is doubtless republican by quite a good majority. In view of that fact, if the party fails to elect their nominees the fault lies with them. We have no fault to find with the democrats or their nominees, but I don't think it right that they should rob the republican party of its just dues (the republican vote) any election. I have not been advised so far as to who wants to sacrifice their good name for the good of their party, but presume there will be plenty show up at the proper time. My advice to the aspirants for the various offices, if you are not sure yourself that your own past record is clean, don't try to fool the people by trying to make them believe it is. As every dark spot will show when placed upon the wall.

There is to be a wedding in the upper end of our valley next Sunday. The contracting parties to the same being among our best young people. Would give names were it not that the wedding is to be kept a secret till the day set for it to take place, but if Chauncey wants to tell it himself, all right, I won't. Kaso.

SOME PRIVATE THINKS.

ED. REPUBLICAN: Well now comes Henry Watterson, the distinguished editor of the Louisville Courier, probably one of the ablest democratic writers of our time, and wants young Hearst to go out and get a reputation before presenting himself as a candidate for president of the United States. Of course Hearst don't like Bryan and he thinks that Hearst is toadying too much to the big 16 to 1 leader and thinks he will be a heavy load to carry. I see sentiment and public opinion have somewhat changed, as McClellan and Parker are only occasionally talked of. Six months ago everybody laughed at Hearst's pretensions for the presidency, but his enemies are not so hilarious now. A Hearst paper will be launched at St. Louis several months before the convention meets. And there will undoubtedly be a brass band, a steam calliope and all the other adjuncts and paraphernalia of Hearst Journalism at hand, and I assure our democratic friends, that if young Hearst gets the nomination, win or lose, we will get a run and lots of fun for our money.

It looks as if the war news was at least a little one-sided. The Japs are just lamproving it to the Russians. The Russians have ordered a rigid censorship of dispatches both entering and leaving their territory, while the doors appear to be wide open on the other side.

This condition may account in a measure for the one sided naval and military operations up to this time. The Japs make it as pleasant as possible for press correspondents, while the Russians never had much use for the men of the pen. If the war is to be short it seems on the surface to concede victory to Japan, but will Russia dare surrender to such a nation as Japan? Will the Czar have to hold the white flag and make his Kow-Too to the Mikado. It doesn't look reasonable that he will?

At all events if the war lasts during this coming season, Oregon and California will be selling the beligerents millions of dollars worth of raw material and others necessities. Yours,
VILGENT.

BONANZA ITEMS.

Jesse Helms of Ashland was in town last week shaking hands with friends. Mr. Helms is a D. V. M. and has decided to locate in Medford about April 1st to practice his profession.

Messrs. Hawkins and Brown the promoters of the much talked of canal at the Falls, made a trip through Poe Valley and this neighborhood last week examining the land, with the idea of extending branches of their ditch this way. They expressed themselves as being very agreeably surprised at finding such a fine laying valley for irrigation.

F. J. Bowne and A. T. Langell were at Sprague River last week, returning with a few wild horses.

Owing to the almost impassible condition of the roads on the mountains, the mail is being carried on horse back from Rocky Canon to Bly.

Our church people held something of a house warming in the new church last night with an entertainment of singing and reciting, followed by a basket social. The proceeds from the sale of the baskets netted the church about sixty dollars.

The Socialists of Dairy Precinct held quite an enthusiastic meeting at Dairy last Saturday. It is rumored that they intend to put up a county ticket this coming election. It is supposed they want to see their names with those that also ran.

Bonanza, March 1. DASH.

Our county clerk, James Driscoll, was up at Bonanza and Poe Valley last week promoting a new and novel irrigation and navigation idea. Look out for dynamite Jim.

A. D. Hargold says he is thinking of putting torpedo boats on his irrigation canal below Bonanza—he's afraid of the Japs.

The church social Monday night was a success. The church will be in the near future be dedicated.

Hay is getting scarce. The hard winter may come the last two weeks of the feeding season when hay stacks are gone.

The town board of Bonanza are considering the proposition of putting in sidewalks and gasoline lights in the city. Bonanza will not be in the dark long.

Timber men are getting scarce.

The new comers will now have to turn their attention to the agricultural lands. The boom is coming.

With sawmills, railroads, ditches, and steamboats on our canals, our town and vicinity will boom no doubt.

The telephone line from Bonanza to Bly and Langell Valley will be put into practical working order this spring.

The farmers are getting the rusty plow and harrows out preparatory to putting in the spring crop. We are anticipating a good crop this season.

Alex McDonald was on route from the Falls to his stock ranch this week. UP TO DATE.

WET OR DRY RANCH?

Notice is hereby given that The Summit Lake Irrigation and Power Co. is intending to extend its system of irrigation below the gap at Olene. The survey of the proposed system is now being made with that object in view and we desire to sell water rights to any land owner who may have land to be irrigated thereby.

We wish to make a fair, square contract. We will not talk to you three months regarding one contract, then at the last moment take you to a secret chamber and pull out a new contract stating... If for any reason there shall be a shortage of water?? (we won't sell ourselves short) and if by reason of scarcity of water or inability to furnish water arising from any cause we shall be unable to supply water for more than one flooding during any irrigation season, we will keep your ten dollar bonus and charge you half the maintenance fee and if by reason of any such cause no water shall be supplied to you in any irrigation season you are to pay no maintenance fee and we shall be under no further liability to the purchaser.

We will furnish water. If we fall leave ourselves ready to compensate you for loss of crop or refund your ten dollars also.

Where is the water? Clear Lake and other large reservoir sites have storage capacity to furnish water for all irrigable land in the county. The water may be brought through the channel of Lost river to our point of diversion below Bonanza, thence through the gap at Olene to the lands below for ten per cent of the amount in cost water can be procured in any other manner. It will be only a matter of building a ditch about two miles further than will be extended the present year.

Stop! Do you want a wet or dry ranch at the discretion of our whims or inability. We will extend our survey to show the possibility of its success. If we can benefit your lands allow us the pleasure; if you get irrigated occasionally only remember a red-headed-son-of-a-ditcher told you so.
A. D. HARGOLD,
Pres. S. L. I. & P. Co.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results. Sold by C. C. Chitwood.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

Wm. Stuffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. I used many remedies, he says.
