expect to move into their new quarters the last of this week.

This office has just received a complete line of the latest wedding note in plain and old style, hand made fany script. Work neatly done. Orders taken for engraved work.

W. C. and B. F. Dalton, of Tule Lake were in the city Monday. They say that there is no truth in the report that the Carr Land & Livestock company had lost any stock on account of the severe weather and lack of feed.

The I. O. O. F. have secured the use of the A. O. U. W. hall and their ture. The quarters vacated by them cerned, has authorized a rescinding of the notice he recently sent out to signers of the old contract.

Harry Pearson returned to the city Monday from the Big Marsh where he has been feeding cattle for George Ager. He reports that the past month has been hard on cattle and that in a great many cases hay is becoming scarce but that there won't be any heavy loss of stock.

Cal., will arrive tomorrow, when The Klamath Canal Co. will put three surveying corps in the field, in order to have all the engineering work done by July 1, when the construction work will commence.

Mr. F. O. Bunting, of Lakeview, Oregon, has presented this office with a fine collection of pictures of his white faces, taken on his ranch. The pictures are very artistically arranged on a gray mat, 30x40 inches, which is set in a handsome double jet black frame, and makes a very fine addition to our collection of stock. Mr. Bunting is one of Lake county's progressive stockmen and believes in buying the best, and being up-to-date in his business methods. He was a delegate to the recent live stock convention and was very favorably impressed with the interest shown by the stockmen generally.—N. P. Rural Spirit.

THE MEAT PROBLEM.

Can the Farmer and Local Butcher Again Handle Meats?

Cattle and hogs are now selling on the fat stock markets at about half the prices they commanded a little over a year ago. A remarkable fact to be noted in this connection is that the consumer is paying rather more for his pork and about the same for his beef as when the farmer was receiving the fancy prices of 1902. The retailer of meats claims that he, too, is paying last year's prices. There is only one other place for the difference to go, and that is the pocket of the packer. If it be conceded that the packer worked without profit last year it is undoubtedly true that he is making enormous profits now.
The question is even seriously asked whether the present spread of prices will not justify the farmer in again dressing his hogs, curing the meat according to the custom of the days of his father and supplying town folks as they were supplied in the days of old lang syne. The dressed beef problem is a more complicated one.
Should the local butcher re-establish his slaughtering appliances he would doubtless soon find competitors selling packing house beef at prices which he could not meet.—N. P.
Rural Spirit.

ASHLAND HAS TROUBLES.

Proprietors of five places arrested for violating city's prohibition ordinances. Case on trial today enlists great interest. Prosecuting witness plays "good fellow" and says he was served with drinks freely. Defendants swear that they sold him no whiskey. Jury of six men is sizing up conflicting evidence. Case still in progress.

A storm which has been gathering over the heads of the alleged violators of Ashland's prohibition ordinances in this city, during the past two months broke suddenly last Friday afternoon and there was a mild sensation in town when Chief of Police Good arrested and brought before Recorder Berry the following persons: J. R. Murry, Thos. Roberts, Jos. Dequiere and the members of the firms of Nollip & Norris and Selsby & Snider. Recorder Berry fixed their bonds at $100 in each instance, which were furnished, and the hearing of Selsby & Snider, of the Ashland House, was set for 10 o'clock, Saturday morning. The complaints charging defendants with the illegal sale of liquor were sworn to by Chief of Police Good, upon information furnished by T. K. Roberts of Woodville, in the northern part of the county.—Ashland Tidings.

STOCK ITEMS.

Louis Gerber started the last of his beef cattle, 390 head, Saturday from the Ball and Colwell ranches for Montague. Wm. Campbell had charge of the stock.

Fred Stukel will take out a couple of hundred head for Mr. Swanston some time next week. This closes the beef driving until August when the first drives are usually made from the ranges. Mr. Gerber informs us that the high prices of alfalfa, the last two months, worked a big hardship on beef feeders, and a good many cattlemen will find the profits on the wrong side of the ledger.
There ought to be 75,000 tons of hay cut on the Klamath basin instead of 20,000, which is about the amount grown at present.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: I wish through your columns to contradict some of the wholesale fabrications, regardless of facts, which are at the present time being published in some of the leading Oregon and California papers about cattle and horses dying in this and Modoc counties.

I am not familiar with the conditions in the vicinity of Alturas but as far as the northern end of Modoc county is concerned and Klamath county, I speak from authority which I know is correct. I only yesterday met Mr. W. C. Dalton, the superintendent of the big Carr Land and Livestock Company. Mr. Dalton stated that his cattle were all right also his horses and that his losses would amount to nothing worth speaking of. The snow is at present all gone and as cattle have been fed all winter and spring is now here, there will not be a loss of two per cent in Klamath and the northern end of Modoc county. I have also interviewed the Shook Bros. and all the big stock men from Sprague River and Langell Valley and know by letters received by my foreman that while all admit that hay is short, that as spring has begun, there will be no loss of live stock to speak of. Yours truly, LOUIS GERBER.

COMMITS SUICIDE.

Michael Hartery, a Pioneer of Klamath County Takes Strychnine at His Home near Hayward.

Word was received here by telegraph and also by letter of the death of Michael Hartery at his home in Castro Valley, near Haywards, Cal., at about 7 o'clock Saturday evening, during the absence of his stepdaughter, Mrs. R. B. Hatton and her husband. They were in San Francisco, visiting Mrs. Hartery, who has been ill in St. Joseph's Hospital for several months. The body was found this morning when the family returned from San Francisco, the discovery being made by Mr. Hatton.

The evidence seems to show that death was caused by taking a large dose of strychnine and also by drinking a full bottle of whiskey. The Call has the following:

"An element of mystery surrounds the suicide of Hartery, who came from Klamath Falls, Oregon about a year ago. He owned a large cattle ranch in Southern Oregon, which he sold, before coming to California, for $68,000. He purchased a fine ranch in Castro Valley soon after coming to this part of the state, at once moving there with his family.

Mr. Hatton says he can give no reason for Hartery's rash act, unless, perhaps, he was suffering from extreme melancholia on account of the prolonged illness of his wife, who has been in the hospital for several months. During this time Mrs.
Hartery has improved but little and it is feared that she may not recover.
The news of her husband's suicide has not yet been broken to Mrs.
Hartery. Hartery left a note addressed to the Oakland Bank of Savings, where he had an account, requesting it to pay all money deposited there by him to his wife. The note is as follows:

Oakland Bank of Savings: Please pay whatever money is in your possession to my wife, Louisa Hartery.
I am in sound mind and body.
(Signed) MICHAEL HARTERY.

The remains were removed to the branch morgue at Haywards by Deputy Coroner Grindell. An inquest will be held at 10 a. m. next Tuesday.

Michael Hartery was a native of Ireland, and was 66 years old at the time of his death. He came to Klamath county in 1872, shortly after the breaking out of the Modoc war, and resided here continually until a year ago when he sold out his big stock ranch in Tule lake and moved to California. He was considered as one of the most prosperous and wealthy stockmen of the county and was noted for his hospitality. He was married Nov. 13, 1897, to Louisa Boddy.

THE TOWN ELECTION.

The Citizens Show Interest in the Fight and Elect a Good Ticket.
Klamath Falls can feel justly proud of the town officers, which were elected on Monday. The election, while conducted with friendly feeling, was a hot fight from the start.
There were three tickets in the field; one was supported by what is known as the "Wilson element," the second was a ticket named by J. C. Rutenic and had the support of Houston Bros., the third was put in the field by the business men. The latter ticket was elected in its entirety.
The successful candidates are as follows: For trustees—L. F. Willits, Frank Ward, B. St. Geo. Bishop, Alex. Martin, Jr. and Geo. R. Hurn; for recorder—C. C. Brower; for treasurer—J. W. Siemens.

Mr. Hurn received within five votes of the total number cast.
There was no opposition to J. W.
Siemens for treasurer.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off.
This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J.
Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results. Sold by C. C. Chit-wood.
