A list of the Democratic campaign managers looks like a roll call of a big trust directorate.

Uncle Sam makes mistakes occasionally, but he has never bought the same political gold brick twice.

Judge Parker is said to have written Bryan: He voted that way, too, a August 5, but were held by the State ber of people in Albany who have couple of times.

The best appeal the Democrats are making to the country is based on their promise not to disturb the Republican legislative achievements.

The Dingley law brought preperity and has maintained it for seven years. The persons who are tired of prosperity can close it by patronizing the Democratic ballot box.
