Rural free delivery has enabled farmers to obtain better prices for their products. Being brought into daily touch with the state of the markets, they are enabled to take advantage of information heretofore inaccessible to them. For this practical help they are indebted to the party that "does things"—viz, the republican party.

FIRST VOTERS, READ THIS.
Roosevelt and Fairbanks are both young men, as are a majority of the leaders of the republican party. If you believe in progress, if you want to see our country the richest and its people the most contented and prosperous on the face of the earth, if you believe in throwing open the doors of opportunity to young men, if you do not believe that smoke-stacks are a proper place for cob-webs and birds' nests, if you would rather hear the whirl of revolving wheels than the murmur of discontent, if you believe in happiness instead of unhappiness, if you believe in courage and honesty, if you believe in frankness instead of secrecy, if you believe in deeds rather than promises, if you believe in reason rather than ignorance, then cast your first presidential vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

A TREAT FOR OUR READERS.
We have made arrangements to publish during the winter months, a number of delightful new stories by authors who are attracting the attention of the American public by their clever and interesting accounts of life in the west. We will begin the first week in October, with Paul DeLaney's new novel "Tollers of the Columbia." This is a home story by a home author, that treats graphically home scenes and incidents, appealing strongly to all the people of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.
Our aim is to give our readers the best paper that we are able to get out. One that will contain all the news, and every issue be a credit to our county. That our efforts are appreciated, we are fain to believe from the fact that we have added 192 names to our subscription list during the past year. We have not only secured these new subscribers, but we have kept them. But we are not yet satisfied, we are going to have our paper go into every home in the county. If you are not already a subscriber you might as well get in line first as last, for you cannot afford to miss Paul DeLaney's new story which begins the first of October. The story alone is worth the subscription.—The Editor.

BECKWITH PASS

Is Chosen as Route Over Sierra Mountains by Gould Corporation for Transcontinental Line.

RENO, Sept. 20.—Ten engineers of the Western Pacific Company began work through the Beckwith Pass today. This is the first open move made by the company in Nevada, and shows conclusively that the company is about to begin active work on its transcontinental line, and the much mooted question of a route through the Sierra Mountains has at last been decided. It will be through the Beckwith Pass.

The engineers are following along the line of the Nevada, California and Oregon Railroad. This shows that the company will probably absorb the narrow gauge.

This is the final survey. Two preliminaries, one east to Winnemucca, the other south to Reno, have been made to Fish Springs. Which of these two will be chosen will not be known for several days.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. Another transcontinental railroad combination is planned. Edwin Hawley is its sponsor. The undertaking involves the so-called Hawley lines in the middle States, including the Alton and the Toledo, St. Louis and Western roads, extending into Eastern trunk line territory, and the Western Pacific, now being built from the Salt Lake gateway to the Pacific Coast. Such a deal, if carried out, would mean a combination of lines from the Great Lakes to the Pacific Ocean. The scheme has been formed in detail, and all that remains to be done is to put it into effect.

COLONISTS FOR OREGON.

Four Carloads a Day Come West Over the O. R. & N.

Four carloads of colonists reached Portland yesterday from the East over the O. R. & N., and each train brings an equal number.

As the rates apply for these colonists only so far as Ashland on the South, the larger number of those coming to Portland will remain in Oregon, provided they decide to settle in the West.

It is reported that large numbers are coming over the Northern lines into Washington, while many stop off before coming this far West. The traffic is so far as heavy as that of last year, and many new settlers are being brought into the country through the efforts of the railroads.—Oregonian.

DECIDES AGAINST OREGON.

Department Will Not Review Decision in Swamp-Land Case.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The acting Secretary of the Interior today denied the motion for review of the departmental decision rendered May 26 holding that the swamp-land grant to the State of Oregon did not include lands embraced within the Klamath reservation, and also that the title of Indians to these lands was of prior date to the passage of the swamp-land act. This action of the Department deprives the State of about 97,000 acres of land. The case probably will be appealed to the supreme court.

W. B. Matthews, state's attorney, announces that he will fight to the last ditch, as he is confident the Department is in the wrong.

HEREFORD-LEWIS.

Last Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the bride's home on Slash street, Judge B. Daly performed the ceremony that united in holy bonds of wedlock Jas. D. Hereford and Mrs. Della M. Lewis.

Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known throughout this entire county. The groom is one of Lake county's most extensive stock raisers. The bride has resided here the most of her life and has a host of friends, who extend congratulations and wish the happy couple a peaceful voyage on life's matrimonial seas.

Mr. and Mrs. Hereford have gone to homekeeping at the bride's home in West Lakeview.—Lakeview Herald.

Andy Hose has wood of all kind for sale.

LOCAL NEWS.

See Newton for Livery.
Andy Hose sells hay and grain. See the new line of shirt waists at the City Novelty.

Bert Alford arrived in the city Thursday from Rogue river on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Alford.

Highest market price paid for chickens at the Central restaurant.

Straw Bros sold last week 150 head of beef cattle to C. Swanson of Sacramento. Cows 41, steers 51, weighed and delivered at Merrill.

Certainly, the roads will be just as bad this winter as they were last. Who said so?

Andy Hose the wood merchant. Chas. Silvers, former county commissioner of Klamath county, and John Turner, of Picard, arrived in the city Thursday and remained several days on business.

If you wish to select from the most complete line of late millinery goods ever shown in Klamath Falls, wait for Mrs. A. J. Neilson, who will be here about October 1st.

C. R. Anderson and wife arrived in the city from Lakeview Sunday and Mrs. McMillan from Chico Monday. They assumed the management of the Linkville Hotel Tuesday.

If you want to find Andy Hose just go to the Old Midway Livery Stable. If he is not there, he is out selling wood and will be back soon.

Harry Glazier left this morning for Klamath Falls where he has accepted the position as manager of the saddle department in a harness shop. Harry's friends regret his departure, but wish him all kinds of success.—Lakeview Herald.

Dan Maloy returned last Saturday from Klamath Falls where he sold 600 2-year-old wethers to Louis Gerber. Mr. Gerber instructed Dan to buy a few thousand more head for him, but when Dan arrived at Lakeview a letter from Mr. Gerber was in waiting for him requesting that no sheep be bought. It is thought that the slump in the market is only temporary.—Lakeview Herald.

THERE IS A LOVE STORY.

In "Tollers of the Columbia" that is rugged and robust, but tender and enchanting, picturing all the human elements that fascinate. If you would know about the failures and successes, hopes and fears of the fisher folk of the Columbia River twenty years ago, you must read this interesting story. It will soon begin in this paper and your names should be on our subscription list.

BUY A PIANO.

Our Southern Oregon "man" J. M. Ward is now at Medford. We secured Mr. Ward for the work of establishing and building up our business from Eugene to Ashland. We've cut out consignment and commission salesmen as being too expensive and entailing a higher price on pianos than customers should be asked to pay.

Mr. Ward is on a straight salary, and is solely interested in carrying out our instructions to the letter.
Our plan will be to sell our best pianos at all times possible, even if prices may not seem so attractive. Although, upon investigation, they will be found to be too low, and much lower than we can continue long in asking. We have not established our business in Klamath Falls as thoroughly as we intend, and to that end have instructed our Mr. Ward to undersell us, even in our Portland and Seattle stores, till, in his judgment, the price-cutting has lasted long enough, and he has secured enough sales to his credit to put our Southern Oregon trade onto a paying basis.

After he has done that, you will only need to pay our city store's prices, and they won't be high. Mr. Ward will not have a big stock to get shop-worn before sold, but a snug most carefully selected one that will be constantly replenished from our Portland main store. You can order any piano of our twenty different makes. In that way you will get the best, in the best condition, at the very lowest price. But as before stated, the low prices are liable to end sooner than you think if you wait too long. If you were sure there was a saving to be made, you would buy now, would you not?

Write or call on Mr. Ward at Medford and find out.

We sell such pianos as the Knabe, Everett, Steck, Hardman, Packard, Fischer, Ludwig, Vose & Sons, Conover, Cable, Hamilton, Ellington, Willard, Wellington and Kingsbury. Easy terms or cash.
