

KLAMATH CO. PRODUCTS.

Magnificent Display of Products Now on Exhibition at the Klamath County Promotion Club's Rooms in Carrick Building.

This year's crop of apples and fruit has been the largest and best ever known in Klamath County. And the display of apples grown in Klamath county which can be seen at the Promotion Club rooms, we believe can hardly be equaled anywhere in Oregon. Nearly all of the fruits and vegetables have been grown on dry land without irrigation. The largest exhibitors are O. A. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamakar and N. S. Merrill. We are unable to give the entire list but some of the best exhibits are as follows:

By W. F. Arant—apples—Duchess of Oldenburg, Yellow Newton, and Rainbow.

By N. S. Merrill—Grimes Golden Pippin, King of Thornyskins, White Bellflowers, Waxen Winter Sweet, Green Pippins, Gloria Mundi and Northern Spy.

By Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamakar—20 ounce Pippins, Gloria Mundi, Dutch Mignon, and Siberian Crab.

By O. A. Stearns—White, Winter Pearmain, Duchess of Oldenburg, Virginia Greening, Namsless, Espopus Spitzenburg, Rhode Island Greening, Smith's Cider, Wine Sap, Gloria Mundi, Northern Spy and Yellow Newtown Pippins.

By Mrs. A. D. Carrick—20 ounce Pippin and Snow Apples.

By J. L. Hanks—Several varieties.

By F. L. Armstrong—Link River, Fall Pippin, Klamath Seedling, Strawberry Pippin and Klamath Pippin.

By Mrs. J. T. Henley—Ben Davis and White Bellflower.

By Shook Bros.—Ben Davis.

By J. F. Goeller—Baldwins, Early Graveston and 20-ounce Pippin.

There is also an exhibit of 40 apples which were grown on a limb 41 inches long.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamakar have some fine exhibits of Italian Prunes, White Willow Peaches, late Crawford Peaches, Green Gage Plums and Butter-nuts.

W. A. Wright has some fine specimens of Black Walnuts grown on his place.

Mrs. E. E. Wise and Mrs. L. Biehn display an exhibit of fruit. Mrs. B. F. Van Brimmer, Petite Prunes, J. L. Hanks, Pear Tomatoes, J. F. Goeller, late Crawford Peaches, F. L. Armstrong, Concord Grapes.

A NEW STEAMER

Is Being Built For the Upper Klamath Lake—Engines and Boilers Expected Today.

J. T. Totten and H. E. Hansberry, two well known and experienced Columbia River Steamboat men will build a large passenger and freight steamer to be run on the upper Klamath Lake, which they expect to have completed by the middle of March. The steamer will be a three-decker, 108 feet long, 21 foot beam and 4½ foot hole. It will be built with a double cabin. The passenger cabins will seat 150 people and the boat will be able to carry about 75 tons of freight. The speed will be from 10 to 12 miles per hour.

The boiler is being brought from the railroad by Joe Moore and is expected here to day. It is a scotch marine boiler 5 by 12 and will pack 200 pounds of steam. Two 7 by 36 engines will be used. The boat will be equipped with four staterooms for the accommodation of the crew. The boat will be built at the head of Link River, above Moore's saw-mill. The construction work will commence about the first of the week and will be under the supervision of George W. Walker, one of the best ship-builders of Portland. The cost is estimated at over $5,000.

COLLAHAN-CLANTON.

Popular Young Couple of Alkali Valley Are United in Marriage.

Bonanza, Oct. 25.—Last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horton in Poe Valley, the Rev. Starr officiating, Mr. Patrick Joseph Collahan and Miss Gertie Clanton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The groom is a native son of Klamath county, whose parents were among the oldest and most respected pioneers of Alkali Valley. The bride is a charming young lady. The young couple will make their home in the upper end of Alkali Valley.

After the ceremony all partook of the wedding dinner which was prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Chas. Horton, and the good things of life which were on the table would have done justice to the appetite of a King. In the evening there was a grand serenade, which lasted until midnight. All wished Mr. and Mrs. Collahan all kinds of luck and dispersed for their respective homes, the only regret being that there could not be more such popular weddings.

VIGILANT

HAVE SELECTED SITE.

The Roman Catholics Will Build Church and School in Klamath Falls—Have Also Secured a Site at Merrill.

Rev. C. J. O'Reilly, Roman Catholic Bishop of Baker City arrived in the city Saturday to join Father Hendricks who has been here some time making arrangements for the establishment of a school and church in Klamath county. Bishop O'Reilly addressed a very large audience of our prominent citizens at the Opera House on Sunday evening and spoke to the people of Merrill on Monday evening. He is a very earnest and broad minded man and made a lasting impression on his audience. Before leaving for the railroad Wednesday morning, he spoke very highly of the kind and courteous treatment he received from the people of Klamath Co. and also of their evident desire for the establishment of a church and school here. Block 5 in Fairview addition has been secured of Major Worden and Mrs. Sargent and the Bishop stated that they would probably commence building in the spring. After the establishment of a school and church, they may also add a hospital if circumstances will warrant it. N. S. Merrill has donated a block in the town of Merrill to the church there. Father Hendrich will remain in Klamath county for the present.

BIG RALLY AT FORT.

Large and Enthusiastic Audience Greet Capt. Stone at Fort Klamath Last Saturday Evening.

Fort Klamath, Oct. 24.—(To the Republican.) The first political speech of the Campaign was given here last Saturday when Capt. O. C. Stone addressed the residents of Wood River country. Politics has created little interest here so far but Capt. Stone's enthusiasm has aroused to new life the apathy of the Republicans of this vicinity, and a strong effort will be made to poll as large a vote as possible for Wood River Precinct next November. Mr. Stone has proven himself a strong speaker and a staunch Republican, and his common sense arguments were listened to with enthusiasm and were favorably received by the large audience present.

The arrangements for the meeting were under the supervision of Jas. Wheeler and Dan L. Cronemiller.

There will be a special meeting of the Klamath County Promotion Club at their rooms corner of Main and sixth streets, next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A talk on the objects and opportunities of the Club will be given. The addition of handiwork, such as ladies fancy work, to the present exhibit is contemplated, and the public both ladies and gentlemen, is invited to be present. C. C. Brower, Secretary.

STATIONERY

We have two messages for the people this week. One for the ladies and the other for the men. Every lady should be particularly choice in the selection of the stationery she uses in writing to her friends. Don't destroy a good impression by using cheap or improper writing paper. Styles change in stationery as well as in other things. There is a size and shape which is proper for ladies and also a distinct style and size proper for men. Let us show you what is proper this year. We have a complete line in all the latest tints of stationery, papeteries, box goods and tablets.
