Miscreant Crossed Wires in North End of Town and Shut Out Lights

The north end of Klamath Falls came to one-caudle power Tuesday night. Upon investigation it was found that some mischievous person had wantonly in order to give lights to the remainder a club house always produce health the old year dies and the new year is of the town, Manager Gates found it becessary to cut the wires for the time and leave the north end dark.

There was no wind blowing and he is positive that the wires were maliclonely tampered with.

He says that the Klamath Canal Company has kindly tendered the use of its gaseline engine as soon as its shaft is completed and that in a few days the electric light service will be improved.

In about two weeks his father will report on the improvement and work will begin in the general over-hauling of the system at once. Klamath Falls will soon be well supplied with light.
