LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON. TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday, May 4, 1905.

HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR MAN WANTED

President Roosevelt is looking for a man large enough to take charge of E. P. McCornack, Salem. the Panama Canal and push it to completion. He says that he is willing to Churchill Co., Yreka...... pay such a man $100,000 a year if he can find him. But that's the difficulty. Biehn Bros There is such a man to the country, perhaps, but it is not easy to pick him H. F. Murdoch...... out from the vast multitude. If he can be found he will prove a jewel be- Charles D. Pierce..... are born rather than made, or, rather, they are born and made, possessing Geo, T. Baldwin. both natural genius and the acquired talent without which even genius is J. W. Hamakar abortive. Contrary to the general belief, the great prizes of life do not fall L. Gerber..... to the most brilliant, the cleverest, the shrewdest, the most long-headed or Alex Martin Jr. the best educated. The real desideratum, the prize of prizes is the level W.S. Worden headed man, the man of soundest judgement. If President Roosevelt suc- Fred Methase ceeds in finding his hundred-thousand-dollar man, he will not be 'recognized R. St. Geo. Bishop simply for shrewdness, but rather for the soundness of his judgement. Re- Frank Ward Hability, under any and all emergencies, is the great test. Can a man stand J. W. Bryant. without being tripped; or if he is thrown, can he land upon his feet? Can P. L. Fountain. he be depended upon at all times to do the right thing, the same thing, the Light & Water Company..... sensible thing? Above all and more than all has he a level head and good Schallock & Daggett horse sense? Is he liable to fly off on a tangent and "go off half cocked?" Geo. McDonald..... Is he "faddy," with wheels in his head, or is he a man of perfect equanimity Mills & Leavitt his temper easily or can he control himself even under the greatest provoca- H. H. VanValkenburg tions? The Panama potentate, as we have remarked, will be hard to find, as hard as the search for the golden fleece, the head-waters of the Nile, the E. S. Phillips Northwest passage, and akin to the century-quest for the philosopher's Robt. H. Bonnell stone. But he is somewhere among the eighty milhons of Americans and lucky will be our popular President if he succeeds in dragging him into the J. T. Alexander..... light. The original commission, though made up supposedly of strong men, B. S. Grigsby... with Admiral Walker at their head, has already proved a failure. No one was equal to his opportunity, not one has shown any of the qualities of the man of destiny. They must all step aside, marked "no good," while the search continues for the real dictator, the premium canai digger, the more than De Lesseps, the greater than Eads, the twentieth century Napoleon who is worth a hundred thousand dollars-and more -a year. -The Ameri-
