KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

W. O. SMITH, Editor and Proprietor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.

TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday, June 1, 1905.

WONDERS OF OUR COUNTY

Crater Lake and the Great Agricultural Basin.

Washington,—Crater Lake, in Klamath county, Oregon, is one of the wonders of the wonderful west. This strangely beautiful body of water is included in a national park, and though at present it is not easily accessible, it will prove a Mecca for many of the thousands of eastern people who will visit the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland this summer.

South of Crater lake is the great Klamath country, including parts of Klamath county, Oregon and Siskiyou and Modoc counties, California, a land of lakes and a territory of great possibilities. The United States reclamation service has found this section so promising that its engineers are planning a drainage and irrigation system to cover about 250,000 acres of government land.

The Klamath country is now without immediate railroad connection, but two companies have given assurances that they will begin railroads to connect Klamath Falls with the Southern Pacific line, running between San Francisco and Portland.

The land owners have found it necessary, owing to the lack of transportation facilities, to confine themselves to the cattle industry and the cultivation of hay. Alfalfa yields from four to five tons per acre. The lands produce heavy crops of grain, apples, pears, plums, cherries and peaches, and the smaller fruits are successfully grown. Sugar beets raised as an experiment show a high per centage of sugar. Most of the vegetables, and especially onions and potatoes, yield bountifully. The streams and lakes abound with trout. while ducks of every kind and geese tempt the huntsman.

COMING TO KLAMATH

TO ENGAGE IN MERCANTILE BUSINESS

L. Jacobs & Co. Will Soon Occupy New Heidrick Building.

L. Jacobs & Co. have the remainder of their stock merchandise nearly all packed and expect to commence loading for shipment at Henderson station tomorrow. It is their intention to be in their new location at Klamath Falls and ready for business by the 15th of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs came to Springfield three years ago and at once opened a small store on Mill street. Later he sold an interest in the business to Mr. Cox, the firm then being run under the name of Jacobs, Cox & Co. and was moved from Mill street to the Van Valzah block on Main. After a year of successful operation Mr. Jacobs purchased Mr. Cox's interest and the firm has since been known as L. Jacobs, & Co. After the erection of the Woodman building he occupied the west half where he has since held forth.

L. Jacobs has been one of Springfield's most enterprising citizens. The firm carried a general line of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, and ladies' and gents' furnishing goods, and have enjoyed an immense trade during their business career in Springfield. L. Jacobs & Co. have been the foremost business firm of Springfield, and their success has come through their efforts to please their customers. Everybody received courteous treatment, good values and always found what they wanted. They have been active and painstaking and Springfield can be justly proud to have a firm that has the life and progressiveness rarely possessed by firms except in large cities. They carried one of the largest exclusive stocks of dry goods in Lane county but within the past month have greatly reduced their stock.

Mr. Jacobs informs us that he will have a large shipment of goods from Frisco and Chicago that will arrive in Klamath Falls about the time his Springfield car arrives that will make him a much larger and better stock than he carried while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs will be greatly missed from this community both in a social and buisness way. They have always numbered prominently in all social and public gatherings and however large may be the assemblage it is never complete without their presence. We are sorry to lose this estimable couple from our midst but what is our loss will be Klamath Falls' gain.

The News join their host of friends in wishing them all manner of success in their new location.—Springfield News.

RAREST AMERICAN BOOK.

Not a Copy of New England Primer, First Edition, Known to Exist.

"I am often asked," said a New York bookseller, "states the Boston Post, "which is the rarest American book.

"It is a puzzling question to answer, for a dozen different works might be named—for example, the folio edition of the Columbus letter, the only known copy of which is in the Lenox library, on Fifth avenue, or Bayard's 'Journal' (New York: William Bradford, 1693), the first book printed in this city, long supposed to be lost, but unearthed by an American girl in 1902 among Gov. Fletcher's papers in the archives of the public record office in London, where a unique copy had rested in obscurity since it was forwarded by the New York governor 211 years ago.

"To my mind, the rarest American book is the New England Primer, 'the little Bible of New England,' as it has been called, which is so rare that the earliest printed editions have vanished, no one knowing, indeed, when and where the first edition was actually issued.

"A few collectors think that the first edition was printed in Cambridge, Mass., in 1668, basing their belief on a statement made by Marmaduke Johnson, a printer in that town, who was summoned before the general court in Boston in September, 1668, to give an account of the books he had lately printed. In Johnson's answer to the council he stated that 'he had printed the Primer,' and this work may have been the long-lost first edition of the book. No copy, however, has ever been found.

"The late Paul Leicester Ford, who published in 1897 an authoritative account of the New England Primer, believed that the first edition was printed in Boston about 20 years later by Benjamin Harris, a Protestant publisher, who came from London to Boston about the year 1686, and there began to make and sell books.

"The value of copies bearing early dates is wonderfully high. In 1876, when little attention was paid to the book, the Lenox library gave five dollars for a copy of the edition of 1727, the earliest known. Two years ago a firm of rare book dealers in this city gave $7,500 for a copy of the edition of 1735, the second earliest known, selling it at a considerable advance on that sum to a private collector in Brooklyn."

Through the Eyes of a Child.

"Of course," said the taller, "you greatly enjoyed the ocean voyage with your mamma and papa."

"Oh! yes," replied the little girl, "but it was all so funny."

"How?"

"Fancy playing upstairs all day and then at night having to go down in the cellar when it was time to go to bed."—Golden Days.

GIVEN AWAY

"The Three Most Beautiful Roses"
By Paul de Longpre

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without donbt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents.

Mr. Paul de Longre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints Roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars(7,500.00).

Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine.

The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., excels all other home and family magazines. The Woman's Home Companion is published bp The Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago, Ill., at One Dollar a year, and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes, where it is read each and every issue by three million.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, For Klamath County.

Wm. W. Hazen, Plaintiff, vs. Samuel Percy Nichols, Defendant. } Suit in equity to quiet title. Summons.

To Samuel Percy Nichols, the above named defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 15th day of June, 1905 that being the date of the last publication prescribed in the order for service of summons by publication; and if you fail to answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, that is to say:

That plaintiff be decreed to be the owner in fee of Lot 3 in Block 13 according to the duly reported plat of the town of Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon; that whatever claim defendant may have to said lot be decreed to be inferior and subordinated to plaintiff's title and that defendant be forever barred from asserting any claim in and to said Lot 3 Block 13 of said town of Klamath Falls, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published in the Klamath Republican by an order of Hon. Henry L. Benson, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County, made May 3, 1905 directing said summons to be published for six consecutive and successive weeks, the date of the first publication to be made on the 4th day of May, 1905. F. H. Mills & A. L. Leavitt, Attorneys for plaintiff.
