

SOME INTERESTING FACTS.

In England one woman in every six turns her own living.
One pint of milk produces, on an average, one ounce of butter.
In Italy the use of land is considered to be 24 times the annual rental.
China is believed to hold 20 times as much coal as the whole of Europe does.
The polar currents, according to experts, contain less salt than those from the equator.
Full, 300,000 domestic animals, valued at $200,000, are annually massacred by wolves in Russia.
Asia contains more than one-half of the total population of the earth, and Europe nearly one-fourth.
The finest cotton is that grown on the low sandy islands lying on the coast of South Carolina and Georgia.
Small farms are the rule in Japan, and every foot of land is put to use. The farmer who has more than ten acres is considered a monopolist.
Probably the youngest general in the world is a nephew of the late Shah of Persia, a boy not yet 15 years old. He holds the rank of full general in the Persian army.

RELIGIOUS WORKERS.

Lord Rastock, known as the "Trench-war priest," often delivers religious addresses in London and the provinces. He founded in Russia the sect known as the Pishonaki, which is a combination with Hindu Carismas.
The industrial work for women in Puchon in charge of Miss Jean Adams, a self-supporting missionary from Pittsburg, is known to be a great boon to the many otherwise helpless old women. The large majority of a town are widows with children to support.
Rev. C. Bruce, chaplain and superintendent of the seaman's church and institute of Portland, Ore., is next in line to his father, Lord Thurlow, of the British peerage. He is a grandson of the earl of Elgin, who was succeeded as governor general of India by Lord Curzon.
The archbishop of Canterbury is said to be engaged in the formation of a league for the celebration of the goddess Sunday from society. The association is to consist exclusively of matrons of high life, and Lady Wimborne is to be president. Gold dinners will be one of the rites instituted upon.

EPIGRAMS ON WOMEN.

Passion wins maid and perseverance widows.
Man is fickle and woman capricious, or vice versa.
A woman acquires logic when she has a checkbook of her own.
It is woman's most delightful quality that she is not interested in politics.
The man who sums women up in a sentence is the man whom women can't live with.
The woman who is attracted by the man of the massive brain will do wisely to marry his good - King brother.

PEOPLE IN PRISON.

Earl Carr, of Mountain View, Wash., is known as the Chappapa wild killer. He is 14 years old.
Dorr W. Stevenson, mayor of Arispe, Ia., is 21 years old, but he had not reached his majority when elected.
Jen Tom, one of the most progressive Chinamen in St. Louis, will soon make application to be admitted to the bar.
Judge Joseph H. Kibbey, just appointed governor of Arizona, has a high reputation as an expert on irrigation law.
Mrs. May Kee, wife of a wealthy Chinese merchant in Indianapolis, is popular in the most exclusive circles of the Hoosier capital.
United States Senator-elect George S. Nixon of Nevada, now many times a millionaire, was a telegraph operator 26 years ago.
Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, English ambassador to the United States, has thoroughly mastered the subtleties of the American joke.
Mrs. A. Caroline Knight, preceptress of the U. S. Grant university at Athens, Tex., has resigned. Her teaching life covers a period of 63 years.
Mrs. John Cox, wife of a New York architect, is the first woman to become principal of the Chappapa institute, one of the best known quaker schools in the United States.
Frank Vincent Du Mond, the famous artist and proprietor of the Lyme school, has been appointed chief of the art department of the Lewis and Clark exposition.
The French government has bestowed the decoration Palmes Academiques upon Miss Franca Johnston, of Washington, D. C. but one other American woman has been honored in this way.

IN THE ROYAL SWIM.

The queen of Holland has given 500,000 francs for the erection of a hospital for crippled children at The Hague.
When she is able to travel, which has not been often lately, the czarina of Russia almost invariably takes her camera.
Lady Wimborne is about to establish a book shop in London. Her object is to encourage the sale of Church of England books.
Sir Henry Mortimer Durand is said to be the first British ambassador to thoroughly appreciate American jokes. Funny stories with the finest points he sees instantly and enjoys to the full.
Since he was a young man the German emperor has kept a complete account of the successes that have attended him with the gun. Up to the present he has killed close upon 50,000 head of game.
Admiral Baron von Spain will retire from command of the Austrian navy shortly and will be succeeded by Vice Admiral Monte Cuccoli, who has a fine reputation among the naval men of the world.
In a gymnasium, fitted up for the Kaiser's use on board the steamship in Hamburg, the London Graphic says, is an electric horse, "which is understood to be particularly energetic in its movements."

RANDOM RUMINATIONS.

It's all right to be good, but don't be known as a good thing.
It takes a mother-in-law to lay down the letter of the law to a lawyer.
When a girl has freckles, she sympathizes with the leopard, who cannot change his spots.
We regard a man as level-headed whose ideas seem to be about at the same level as his own.
If a friend asks your opinion on a matter, simply get his and endorse it if possible and he will go away happy.
An old bachelor can never understand why a young father should feel proud of the fact that the baby looks like him.
Most single women say they wouldn't marry the best man in the world, and most married women know they didn't.
Many men have achieved a reputation for philanthropy because they gave back the collar button to the man from whom they stole a shirt.

SAPIENT SENTENCES.

Perfect people are very tiring.
Arrogance leaves behind a trail of ill-feeling and enmity.
Too many men spend their money before they get hold of it.
We strengthen ourselves by the exercise of lifting up others.
The dollar you give does more good than the millions you wish you could give.
Generosity is based on moods and dispositions. Justice is based on principle.
When a man has learned to get along with what he has he has learned the first lesson in getting along.

AMONG THE JAPANESE.

Kissing and shaking hands are rarely practiced in Japan.
The Japanese "Hello" at the telephone is "Moshi moshi," or "Ano ne," with the accent on the "ny."
The Japanese farewell, "Sayonara," means something like "If it must be so," or "If we must part this, so be it."
The Japanese have a mailed preparation known as ame, which is a kind of candy or barley sugar, made by the action of barley malt on glutinous rice.
Splendid Offer.
The chance of his life has come to Robert Mantell. A young woman has written him offering to live up his productions by playing mouth organ solos between the acts. She says in a letter which he mistook for Volapuk until his leading woman pointed out to him that it was merely advanced spelling—spelling with regard only for sound, not for appearance—that besides being the only mouth-organ artist on the stage, she is handsome, and has her own trunk.—Boston Herald.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, For Klamath County.
Wm. W. Hazen, Plaintiff, vs. J. S. Sully, et al., Defendants.
To, Charles Percy Nichols, the above named defendant.
In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before the 10th day of August, 1905, that being the date of the last publication prescribed in the order for service of summons by publication; and if you fail to answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, that is to say:
That plaintiff be decreed to be the owner in fee of Lot 2 in Block 12 according to the duly reported plat of the town of Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon; that whatever claim defendant may have to said lot be decreed to be inferior and subordinated to plaintiff's title and that defendant be forever barred from asserting any claim in and to said Lot 2 in Block 12 of said town of Klamath Falls, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.
This summons is published in the Klamath Republic by an order of Hon. Henry L. Benson, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County made June 28, 1905 directing said summons to be published for six consecutive and successive weeks, the date of the first publication to be made on the 29th day of June, 1905, and the last publication on the 10th day of August, 1905.
