Horned.

Patience—They always ask me to play when they know I can't play without any music.

Patience—I see.

"The next time I go there I'll take my music with me."

"Just so they won't ask you to play, I suppose."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Real Thing.

"What is tact, mamma?" asked small Floramay.

"Tact, my dear," replied the knowing mother, "is a woman's ability to make her husband believe he is having his own way."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Watches Him.

She—Why is it a woman never looks at the man she's marrying when at the altar?

He—I don't know; but I do know she keeps her eye on him pretty well after the wedding.—Yonkers Statesman.

Fat, Indeed.

City Lawyer—Do you country lawyers ever get any fat fees?

Rural Lawyer—I should say so. Why, just yesterday one of my clients settled his fee with a 500-pound hog. Guess that's fat enough.—Chicago News.

Prompt Apprehension.

Mrs. Ferguson—George, dear, how do you like my new hat?

Mr. Ferguson—Do you want my real opinion of it, Laura?

Mrs. Ferguson—No, I don't; you mean thing!—Chicago Tribune.
