Order in Escheat.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath.

The State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. E. R. Reames, as administrator of the estate of Joseph Pennig, deceased, George Chastain as County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon, and all other persons claiming to be heirs of Joseph Pennig, deceased, Defendants, Order in Escheat Proceedings.

An Information having been duly filed in this Court in the above entitled action, by W. J. Moore, District Attorney for the Second Prosecuting District of Oregon, and H. W. Keesee as special and additional Counsel for said State, and it appearing from such Information that the sum of $180.90, lawful money of the United States, now in the custody and possession of Defendant George Chastain, as County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon, has for reasons set forth in said Information escheated to the State of Oregon, and it further appearing from said Information that one Joseph Pennig, late of Klamath County, Oregon, now deceased, was the last person lawfully seized and possessed thereof, and that on or about the 7th day of August, 1895, the said Joseph Pennig died intestate, in Klamath County, Oregon, leaving no heirs, widow, of known kindred capable of inheriting said sum of money; and that on the 12th day of August, 1895, the Defendant E. R. Reames was duly appointed administrator of the estate of said Joseph Pennig, deceased and that said estate was duly and completely administered upon, and said administrator duly relieved and discharged from his trust as such administrator by the order of the County Court in and for Klamath County, Oregon. That all debts against the estate of Joseph Pennig, deceased, have been fully satisfied and paid, and all expenses of administration also fully paid. That upon the settlement of the final account in said estate there was found to be a balance of $180.90 belonging to said estate, unclaimed and unexpended, which said sum of money was by an order of the County Court of Klamath County, Oregon, on to-wit the 5th day of July, 1898, deposited with the then County Clerk of said County, by said defendant, E. R. Reames, as such administrator, and ever since said time has been in the possession of such clerk and now is in the possession and custody of Defendant George Chastain, as County Clerk of said County, and by virtue of and in accordance with the order of the County Court heretofore mentioned, which said order has never been revoked, and that in consequence thereof said sum of $180.90 has escheated to the State of Oregon, and said State has a right by law to said money and all thereof. That the defendant E. R. Reames has no right, title or interest in or to said sum of money or any part thereof. That defendant George Chastain has no right, title or interest in or to said sum of money or any part thereof except a right to the possession and custody thereof, under and by virtue of the order of the County Court of Klamath County, Oregon, heretofore mentioned.

It also appears from said Information that the Governor of the State of Oregon directed the said District Attorney to file said Information on behalf of the state of Oregon, and that said Governor also appointed H. W. Keesee, Attorney at Law residing at Klamath Falls, Oregon, as special and additional counsel for the State of Oregon in the premises.

Said Information also contains a demand for judgment in favor of the State of Oregon, to the effect that it be adjudged by the Court that said State has a right by law to all of said sum of $180.90 and is the owner and entitled to the possession thereof.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested or claiming to be interested in the estate of said Joseph Pennig, deceased, appear and show cause, if any they have, within six weeks from the first publication of this order, why the title, ownership and right of possession to the above described $180.90, lawful money of the United States, should not vest in the State of Oregon.

It is further ordered that this order be published for six consecutive weeks from the date thereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, published in Klamath County, Oregon, the first publication thereof to be made September 14th, 1905.

Done in open Court this 12th day of September, A. D. 1905.

By the Court. HENRY L. BENSON, Judge.
