

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

W. O. SMITH, Editor and Proprietor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.
TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday, October 19, 1905.

The big Republican "love feast" is over. Fully 500 prominent Republicans from all parts of the state and members of all factions, met in Portland on last Thursday, and as a result of the conference the Republicans of Oregon will forget all past differences and work together for the success of the party and the good of the state.

Harmony is the watchword of the party in Oregon this year, and if anyone should be found guilty of advocating any other policy it will mean his political death. Harmony is the only salvation of the party and for this reason it is safe to say that the big conference of Republicans which passed and endorsed the resolutions pledging themselves to "work together in harmony and good fellowship, with the single purpose of securing to the Nation and to the state a perpetuation of the Republicanism of Lincoln," was perfectly sincere in its action, and very much in earnest.

A great crisis is passed for the Republican party in Oregon. The leaders of the party are pledged to harmony. This does not mean that they will all support and vote for some candidate that will be put up by a political boss, but rather that they will forget all past differences and begin anew, and support the party ticket that will be selected by the individual voters of the Republican party. The fight must be made and won at the primaries and there is to be no getting even at the polls.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT THE REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE

PLEDGE FOR HARMONY.

RESOLVED, That the Republicans here assembled, proud of the brilliant achievements of the Republican party, and confident of its continued usefulness in the future, renew their enthusiasm in the faith, and pledge each other to work together in harmony and good fellowship, with the single purpose of securing to the Nation and to the state a perpetuation of the Republicanism of Lincoln; and to that end we unite in calling upon our fellow-citizens, whatever their past affiliations may have been, to join with us in an honest endeavor to put aside personal differences and local prejudices, and to establish the Republican party in Oregon upon a firm and enduring basis.

REPUBLICAN RECORD.

RESOLVED, That we reaffirm the principles of the Republican National platform, adopted at Chicago, June 22, 1904, and congratulate the country upon the continuation of the era of prosperity that began under the wise and beneficent administration of public affairs by a Republican President and a Republican Congress. There never was a time or place in the history of the world when the blessings of life were more bounteously bestowed than upon the American Nation today. American citizens enjoy advantages that others well may envy; and while foreigners so fully appreciate the benefits to be had under the Stars and Stripes that they are now pouring into this country in unprecedented numbers, it is a source of gratification to our people that our great industrial growth and the unexampled development of the resources of mine and farm and workshop since 1897 is due to the fact that the Republican party, with its policy of protection, and with its firm stand for a safe and honest monetary system, has exercised the functions of government. With such a bright record of achievement, the Republican party expects a continuance of the confidence heretofore manifested in the public elections. And we, therefore, call upon the people of Oregon to give their support in the next elections to the party of protection and prosperity.

ROOSEVELT COMMENDED.

RESOLVED, That the unprecedented majority given by the voters of Oregon to the Republican Electoral ticket at the election last November, was an expression of confidence in the sincerity, the honesty of purpose and the ability of President Roosevelt. His administration of the affairs of the Nation, at home and abroad, and his activity in promoting the peace of the world, justify the faith that the common people have in him as a wise and patriotic executive officer. The Republicans of Oregon, here in convention assembled, respectfully extend to him congratulations upon the successful termination of his efforts to bring to a close the protracted and bitter war between two nations with whom our country has ever maintained most cordial relations of friendship and amity. We especially commend the steps taken by him to promote internal peace and contentment in the Philippines, and to encourage the trade relations of our people with the several nations of the Orient. In his battle for civic righteousness he is entitled to the cooperation of all good citizens.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

RESOLVED, That, in the judgment of the Republicans here assembled, it is important to secure from the Government at Washington sufficient appropriations to complete the improvements under construction at the mouth of the Columbia River and at Celilo, as well as at other places upon the bays, harbors and principal water-courses of the State of Oregon, as promptly as possible, and that the growing importance of the commerce of this state justifies us in expecting at the hands of Congress such liberal appropriation for our rivers and harbors as will at once and for all time remove all barriers and open our state to the exchange of commercial products with the markets of the world.

DIRECT PRIMARY LAW.

RESOLVED, That it is the deliberate judgment of the Republicans of the State of Oregon in voluntary association convened—

First—That the direct primary law should be honestly, faithfully and loyally observed in spirit and letter in making all nominations of candidates for public office elective by the people contemplated by the same, and any defects that may be reasonably apparent in the administration of said law should be noted and referred to the next Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon for correction, revision or amendment, as experience may demonstrate.

Second—That the Republicans of every precinct in each county of this state be urged to bring before the electors at such primary election to be voted for as candidates for nomination such leading, influential and representative Republicans as can be induced to stand for such nominations at such primary election, and that in making such selection the Republican electors should choose their candidates without regard to any past factional division or previous identification with any so-called faction, and solely with regard to their ability, integrity, honesty and fitness for the office for which the candidate may be nominated.

Third—That when capable, efficient and honest men have been nominated at the primary election, and have become the regular Republican candidates for the respective positions for which they have been chosen, they are entitled to and deserve the loyal, cordial and enthusiastic support of every Republican elector in the state, and to this end and in order that such nominations may be fully ratified and approved, it is the judgment of the Republicans of Oregon, in this assembly convened, that there should be held immediately after the primary election and as soon thereafter as the nominations shall have been made a convention in each county to ratify all nominations made by the people, and to elect delegates to a state convention to ratify all nominations made by the people for state offices, and to elect delegates and to ratify nominations for Congress made in the respective Congressional districts of said state, and such other district nominations as may be made by the people.

Fourth—That said state convention, in addition to such ratification of candidates so nominated shall adopt and announce a platform giving authoritative expression to the principles of the Republican party upon questions of State, National and local concern, and shall pledge its candidates for office to a faithful adherence to Republican principles.

Fifth—That at said respective county conventions and such state convention the respective county, state and district committeemen to be chosen by the people under said primary law be respectfully requested to organize by the election of appropriate officers and the organization of suitable and proper committees to carry out the will of the people and to promote the election of the Republican candidates, and to organize the Republican electors of the state into a complete, harmonious and perfect organization to the end that the interests of the people in the state and Nation may be faithfully protected and preserved.

Sixth—That the existing state, district and county central committees, until their successors shall have been elected under said primary law, are respectfully requested to carry out these resolutions to the best of their ability, and to call said conventions at an early date after said primary election as may be reasonably practicable, and that delegates to such conventions shall be apportioned and selected in the usual method obtaining in such cases and according to political and parliamentary rules existing in the absence of express provision of law, and that all Republican electors be earnestly urged and invited to participate in any precinct election to choose delegates to such county conventions, and that all leading influential Republicans, without regard to past political or factional differences, be respectfully urged and invited to become delegates in their respective counties to said various conventions, to the end that such conventions, when assembled may be the free and untrammelled choice of the Republican electors of the respective counties, and that the state convention to be convened may be representative of the best leadership in the Republican party in this state.

RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES.

RESOLVED, That the members of the National Congress, representing the State of Oregon therein, be requested to support the measures recommended by President Roosevelt in his recent message to Congress, relating to the regulating of freight rates on the railroads of the United States, now before the National Congress.

REWARD OF INITIATIVE LAW.

RESOLVED, That the State of Oregon should maintain its reputation for conservatism and reliability; that hasty and half-baked laws not only injure at home, but give the state an unenviable reputation, and drive from it the investor and the settler. That it is the sense of this assemblage that the Republicans of Oregon should be on their guard against fantastic and peculiar proposals for legislation under the initiative amendment to the constitution, especially as various schemes under the guise of remedial legislation are likely to be promulgated in the interest of the minority parties.

First—Such a proposal is that for ousting public officers by vote during their terms of office. A public officer rarely is elected without the opposition of a considerable minority of the voters, which can readily be increased to a majority in times of public excitement; and if the tenure of office is to be made uncertain and the office is likely to be vacated with temporary changes of public sentiment, the best persons cannot be secured for public office, nor will officers dare to act with courage and independence.

Second—The proposal to submit to the public, under the initiative method a scheme for giving members of minority parties representation in public office, without being chosen by a plurality of votes cast at public elections, should not have the countenance of Republicans. The principle that "the majority rules" has had trial in this country since before the creation of the Government of the United States, and has proved to be just and fair, and to work well in practice. The attempt of those interested to force themselves into office by use of the initiative amendment to the constitution should be discouraged and voted down.

FRANK C. BAKER.

RESOLVED, That we express our appreciation of the courtesy and wisdom of Hon. Frank C. Baker, chairman of the Republican State Committee, in convening this conference; we have confidence that his action will result in permanent benefit to the party.

G. R. DIMICK, Chairman.
WALLACE McCAMANT, Secretary.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

(Ashland Editor)

George Chase and wife of Chase's station, Klamath county, arrived in Ashland today returning from the fair and stopped off for a short visit with friends.

Al Duncan, who has been visiting relatives in Ashland for some time, returned last week to his home in Langell valley, Klamath county.

DEATH OF H. E. SPENCER.

H. E. Spencer, one of the pioneer residents of this section, who came to Ashland in the fifties, died at an early hour this morning at the home of his son-in-law, Nathan High in Ashland, aged about 86 years. The remains have been prepared for shipment and will be taken to the deceased's old home on Spencer Creek, Klamath county, where they will be buried beside those of his wife.

Many years ago the deceased owned a 160-acre tract of land in Ashland, now known as the Galey-Carter tract, which he sold to S. B. Galey. In 1869 he lived on Emigrant Creek. Later he settled on a tributary of the Klamath river a few miles below Reno, which now bears his name, and there followed farming and ranching. Since Nathan High acquired a blacksmith shop in Ashland, he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. High, being too old and feeble to live alone. He leaves five children: A. C. Spencer, H. E. A. Spencer, Fred Spencer, and Mrs. Belle High who reside in this valley and Eugene Spencer, whose home is near Spencer Creek, Klamath county.

W. W. Fiddler and daughter, Miss Pearl, are in from Klamath Falls on a visit.
A. M. Sutton is in from Klamath Falls after his remaining load of goods, preparatory to a five years' residence in Klamath county.
Sam Parker, wife and son are in from Illy, Klamath county, to spend the winter in Ashland.
Miss Minnie Love returned home to Central Point yesterday after a summer stay near Fort Klamath.
Mrs. A. E. Bamber and three children returned Saturday from a summer's stay at Klamath Falls. Mr. Bamber will return about Christmas.
County Commissioner Fred Melhase, one of Klamath county's wealthy citizens, and his right hand man, C. B. Crisler, were in town the past week buying a lot of goods.
Mrs. C. V. Shuck and children and Miss Lura Shuck were in from Merrill, Klamath county, the past week visiting. They are extensively engaged in the bee and honey business.
John V. Houston, the well-known Klamath Falls and Merrill opera house proprietor, was on yesterday afternoon's train for the Portland Exposition accompanied by his wife.

DUNHAM-DEESON WEDDING.
E. A. Dunham and Miss W. Katherine Deeson were the principals in a pretty though quiet wedding at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Engineer and Mrs. H. C. Cole, on the Boulevard, last evening.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. Evan P. Hughes at 7:45 p. m. in the presence of relatives and a few friends. A wedding lunch was served. Both young people have been residents of Talent for many years. The bride is the beautiful and charming youngest daughter of the well-known pioneer family of that place where she was born and raised, while the groom is the son of E. H. Dunham, a well-known citizen of that place, who came out from the east several years ago. The groom entered the railroad train service a few years ago, but chose that strenuous vocation as his occupation. While employed as a freight brakeman a defective part of a car caused him to fall and the car wheels crushed his right leg necessitating amputation. After a scarring judgment against the company for $20,000 the company compromised by giving him a check for $16,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunham left on the midnight train for San Francisco to spend their honeymoon, after which they will go to Klamath Falls, where Mr. Dunham has purchased a business and will settle down.

He Had the Doty.
Lawyer to defendant, who has been accused of stealing a pair of boots: "It's all right, you're discharged—you can go now."
Defendant (nervously)—"Don't be in such a bloom'n' hurry."
Lawyer—"But what are you waiting for?"
Defendant—"For the plaintiff to get out of the way. I've got the balls blown out, and 'e might recognize 'em—'Ally Sloper."

Unnecessary Noise.
Mrs. Church—I see there's a new society formed which will be a great blow to your husband's business.
Mrs. Gotham—What society is that?
"The Society for the Suppression of Unnecessary Noises."
"I can't see how that will affect my husband's business."
"Doesn't he sell phonographs?"—Yonkers Statesman.

No Use.
Stern Parent—I tell you what it is, Martha, I'm tired of seeing that young fellow coming here two or three evenings a week. I think I shall have to sit on him!
Martha—I wouldn't, pa; 'twould be of no use. I've done it myself several times, and I think he rather likes it—Smith's Weekly.

A Brown Taste.
Cannibal Chief—Who was that I ate last night for supper?
Cannibal Chief—That was Mr. Brown, your excecny.
"Well, that accounts for it."
"Accounts for what, your excellency?"
"The Brown taste I have in my mouth"
