Order in Escheat.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath.

The State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. E. R. Rames, as administrator of the estate of Joseph Pennig, deceased, George Chastain as County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon, and all other persons claiming to be heirs of Joseph Pennig, deceased, Defendants, Order in Escheat Proceedings.

The Court in the above entitled action, by W. H. Moore, District Attorney for the Second Prosecuting District of Oregon, and H. W. Kersee as special and additional Counsel for said State, and it appearing from such information that the sum of $280.00, lawful money of the United States, now in the custody and possession of Defendant George Chastain, is County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon, as for reasons set forth in said information scheated to the State of Oregon, and it further appearing from said information that one Joseph Penning, late of Klamath County, Ore-was seized and possessed thereof, and that on or about the 7th day of August, 1865, the said Joseph Pennig, deceased, died intestate at the County of Oregon, leaving no heirs or widow, of near kindred capable of inheriting said sum of money; and on the 12th day of August, 1865, the Defendant E. R. Reames was duly appointed administrator of the estate of said Joseph Pennig, deceased; and that said estate was duly and completely administered by said Reames, and the said sum of money delivered and discharged from his trust to said Plaintiff by the order of the County Court in and for Klamath County, Oregon. That all debts against the estate of Joseph Pennig, deceased, have been fully satisfied and paid, and all expenses of administration also fully paid. That upon the settlement of the final account of said estate there was found to be a balance of $750.00 in favor of said Plaintiff, which said sum was duly paid to said Plaintiff and unexpended which said sum was County Clerk of said County, on to-wit the 5th day of July, 1898, deposited with the then county Clerk of said County, by said defendant E. R. Reames, as such administrator, and in and to the record of said County, a certain deed, such clerk and law is in the possession and custody of Defendant George Chaslain, a County Clerk of said County, and by virtue of and in accordance with the order of the County Court heretofore mentioned, which said order has never been revoked, and that said order is in full force and effect, and that said State is interested in the said land, and said State has a right by law to said money and all thereof. That the defendant E. R. Reames has no right, title or interest in or to said sum of money or any part thereof. That defendant George Chaslain has no right, title or interest in or to said sum of money or any part thereof except a right to the possession and custody thereof, under and by virtue of the order of the County Court of Klamath County, Oregon, heretofore mentioned.

It also appears from said information that defendant George Chaslain, County Clerk of said District Attorney to file said information on behalf of the state of Oregon, and that said Governor also appointed H. W. Keese, Attorney at Law residing at Klamath Falls, Oregon, as special and additional counsel for said State of Oregon in the premises.

Wherefore said defendant George Chaslain prays judgment in favor of the State of Oregon, to the effect that it be adjudged by the Court that said State has a right by law to all of

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested or claiming to be interested in the estate of said John Penning, deceased, appear and show cause, if any they have, within six weeks from the first publication of this order, by the title, ownership and right of possession to the above described $150.00, lawful money of the United States, should not vest in the State of Oregon.

It is further ordered that this order be published in the Oregonian newspaper from the date hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, published in Klamath County, Oregon, for the publication thereof to be made September 1st, 1905.

Done in open Court this 12th day of September, A. D. 1905.

Order in Escheat Proceedings.
In the circuit court of the State of Oregon,
of the county of Clatsop.
The State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. George
Adams, as county clerk of Clatsop county, Respondent, and all other persons claiming to be heirs of Benjamin Howard, deceased, Defendants.
Order in Escheat Proceedings.
An information having been duly filed in this court in the above entitled cause, by W. M.
Moore, District Attorney for the Second Judicial Circuit of Oregon and J. H. W.
Hewes as special and additional counsel for the state, and it appearing from such inforinformation that the sum of $98.21 lawful money of the United States, now in the custody and possession of defendant, George Chastain, as county clerk of Klamath county, Oregon, has for reasons set forth in said information exhibited to the State of Oregon, and it further appearing from said information that one Benjamin Howard, late of Klamath county, Oregon, now deceased, was the last person on or about the 26th day of April, 1907, that said Benjamin Howard died intestate, in Marion county, Oregon, leaving no heirs, widows or known kindred capable of inheriting said sum of money; and that said Benjamin Howard, immediately prior to his death was a resident and inhabitant of said Marion county, Oregon, and left an estate therein. That on the 17th day of February, 1908, one G. W. J. Wilson was duly appointed administrator of the estate of said Benjamin Howard, deceased, and that said estate was duly and completely administered upon, and said administrator duly relieved and discharged from his trust as such administrator of said estate, and that the court in and for said county of Marion, in and for the State of Oregon, in its said order of discharge, did award to him for his said services as administrator of said estate of said Benjamin Howard, deceased, and all debts and expenses of administration have been paid and fully satisfied. That upon the settlement of the final account of said estate there was found to be a balance of $268.21, belonging to said county court of Klamath county, Oregon, so ordered about the 1st day of May, 1900, deposited with the then clerk of said county, by the administrator G. W. J. Wilson, and ever since that time the said money has been in the custody of such clerk and now is in the possession and custody of defendant George Chastain, a clerk of said Klamath county. By virtue of and in accordance with the order of said court, the said money was paid out of said order of court has never been revoked, and that in consequence thereof said sum of $200.00, was cheerfully to the State of Oregon, and said State has a right by law to said money, and said money is the property of said State, and said State has no right, title or interest in or to said sum of money or any part thereof, except the right to the possession and custody thereof, in accordance with the order of the county court of Klamath county, Oregon, heretofore mentioned.

It also appears from said information that the Governor of the State of Oregon directed the said District Attorney to file said information in said county court, and that said Governor also appointed H. W. Keesee, Attorney at Law, residing in Klamath Falls, Oregon, as special and additional counsel for the State of Oregon in the premises.

Wherefore the said State of Oregon demands judgment in favor of the State of Oregon, to the effect that it be adjudged by the court of money-to-wit: $98.21, and is the owner and entitled to the possession thereof.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested or claiming to be interested in the estate of said Benjamin Howard, deceased, appear and show cause, if any they have, within six weeks from the first publication of this order, why the title, ownership and right of possession to the above described $98.21, lawful money of the United States, should not vest in the State of Oregon.

It is further ordered that this order be published for six consecutive weeks from the date thereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, published in Klamath county, Oregon,

On the 31th day of October, 1905,
I have in open court this 29th day of September, 1905. By the court
HENRY L. BENSON, Judge.
