Order in Escheat Proceedings.
In the circuit court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Klamath.

The State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs. George Chastain, executor of the estate of Benjamin Howard, deceased, Defendant.

Order in Escheat Proceedings.
An information having been duly filed in this court in the above entitled action, by W. J. Moore, District Attorney for the second Judicial District of Oregon, and H. W. Keese as special and additional counsel for said State, and appearing from such information that the sum of $398.21 lawful money of the United States, now in the custody and possession of defendant, George Chastain, as county clerk of Klamath county, Oregon, has for reasons set forth in said information been claimed by the State of Oregon, and it further appearing from said information that one Benjamin Howard, late of Klamath county, Oregon, now deceased, was the last person legally seized and possessed thereof, and that on or about the 20th day of April, 1897, he said Benjamin Howard died intestate, in Marion county, Oregon, leaving no heirs, widow or known kindred capable of inheriting said sum of money; and that said Benjamin Howard, immediately prior to his death was a resident and inhabitant of Klamath county, Oregon, and left an estate therein. That on the 14th day of February, 1898, one G. W. J. Wilson was duly appointed administrator of the estate of said Benjamin Howard, deceased, and that said estate was duly and completely administered upon, and said administrator duly relieved and discharged from his trust as such administrator by the order of the county court in and for Klamath county, Oregon. That all debts against the estate of said Benjamin Howard, deceased, and all debts and expenses of administration have been paid and fully satisfied. That upon the settlement of the final account in said estate there was found to be a balance of $398.21, belonging to said estate, unclaimed and unexpended, which said sum of money was by an order of the county court of Klamath county, Oregon, on or about the day of May, 1900, deposited with the county clerk of said county, by the administrator G. W. J. Wilson, and ever since said time has been in possession and custody of defendant George Chastain, as county clerk of said Klamath county, by virtue of and in accordance with the order of the county court heretofore mentioned, which said order has never been revoked, and that in consequence thereof said sum of $398.21, has been claimed by the State of Oregon, and said State has a right by law to said money and all interest thereon, and that said George Chastain has no right, title or interest in or to said sum of money or any part thereof, except the right to the possession and custody thereof, in accordance with the order of the county court of Klamath county, Oregon, heretofore mentioned.

It also appears from said information that the Governor of the State of Oregon directed the said District Attorney to file said information on behalf of the State of Oregon, and that said Governor also appointed H. W. Keese, Attorney at Law, residing in Klamath Falls, Oregon, as special and additional counsel for the State of Oregon in the premises.

Said information also contains a demand for judgment in favor of the State of Oregon, to the effect that it be adjudged by the court that said State has a right by law to all of said sum of money, to-wit: $398.21, and is the owner and entitled to the possession thereof.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested or claiming to be interested in the estate of said Benjamin Howard, deceased, appear and show cause, if any they have, within six weeks from the first publication of this order, why the title and estate of said George Chastain, as county clerk of said county, should not be vested in the State of Oregon.

It is further ordered that this order be published for six consecutive weeks from the date thereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, published in Klamath county, Oregon, and that the first publication thereof be made on the 5th day of October, 1905.

Done in open court this 27th day of September, 1905. By the court
HENRY L. BENSON, Judge.
