FROM EXCHANGES.

(Lakeview Herald.)
District Attorney W. J. Moore expects to leave next week for Klamath Falls and Ashland.

Special Agent W. W. Scott was here from Klamath Falls several days of last week looking over matters pertaining to the local land office.

Abel Ady, a Klamath Falls real estate dealer, was a Lakeview visitor several days of the past week. He was here on land office business.

R. H. Dunlap arrived here from the Klamath Reservation Tuesday and is spending a few days in town renewing old acquaintances.

Oscar C. Stone, a Klamath Falls attorney, was debarred from practice before the land office last week on charges filed and prosecuted by Special Agent W. W. Scott.

Presiding Elder Dunlap of the M. E. church who is located at Klamath Falls was here this week to attend the M. E. Quarterly meeting and conference. He preached to a large congregation Sunday night. The Elder leaves for Paisley Thursday morning.

Mrs. Amelia McKendree, the beloved wife of Creed H. McKendree, of Bonanza, passed from this earth last Friday night at 10 o'clock. Death was due to tuberculosis from which she had been suffering for some time.

Amelia Antone was well known in this vicinity where she grew to womanhood. She was a daughter of Mrs. L. C. Meyer residing near Lakeview. She was married to Creed McKendree on Nov. 24th, 1899, and two children resulted from the happy union. Deceased is survived by her husband and a little four-year-old son, the other child a daughter, having preceded the mother into that great beyond by about one year.

The remains accompanied by a large number of relatives and friends were brought to Lakeview on Sunday and were laid away in the I. O. O. F. cemetery Monday morning.

(Lakeview Examiner.)
C. H. McCumber was here a day or so last week from Klamath county on land business. Mr. McCumber is a perfectly reliable cruiser and has been kept busy this summer locating strangers.

T. B. Wakefield, one of Warner Valley's stockmen, returned from Merrill, Klamath county, last Thursday, where he went several weeks ago in charge of 108 head of beef cattle belonging to himself and the Frakes boys. Mr. Wakefield bought hay at Merrill, and remained there till he was offered a satisfactory price for the cattle in his charge. This offer came from Frank Blommingcamp, and he accepted it.

(Medford Mail.)
James Boyd, of Bly, who has been quite sick at his daughter's, Mrs. R. A. Lares, we are glad to say, is much improved. Dr. Jones is in attendance.

O. B. Bunch and family, of Fort Klamath, spent several days in Medford this week, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Bunch is employed in the government service as forest ranger, but is now on furlough.

Chas. Martin, of Fort Klamath, who purchased last week one-half of the J. E. Hodge place, together with the dairy herd, has leased the remaining half and taken possession, continuing M. Hodge's work in the city's milk supply.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hodge were over from Klamath Falls this week, and while here they invested in another small chunk of Jackson county real estate. Some few months ago Mr. Hodge purchased nearly twenty five acres of fruit land from Wilbur Jones and now he has purchased 5.62 acres more from this tract—to sort of square up, with the compass points, the original purchase. He now has thirty acres of this land, the best in Jackson county and for it he has paid $17.00 an acre.

(Ashland Tribune.)
Miss Kitty Wells returned last week from Fort Klamath where she spent the summer.

Tubert Sanford returned home Friday from a week's vacation spent about Klamath lake and the duck grounds of the Big Marsh.

A. E. Hunt came in yesterday from Junction, Lane county, with 240 head of stock steers on the freight. Two cars of the shipment were unloaded at Gold Hill for Polton Bros. of Sams Valley. The remainder Mr. Hunt started on the drive from here today enroute to Fort Klamath.

John Griffith and Dick Handies were in Ashland from Odessa, Klamath lake, the first of the week.

(Ashland Tribune.)
Miss Ella Smart of Fort Klamath, returned with Miss Kitty Wells and will spend the winter in Ashland.

Mrs. William Earl was a noon passenger for Klamath Falls today. She will remain there this winter.

Use Chitwood's Toilet cream for chapped hands and lips.
