Dear Teachers—Perhaps you will be pleased to learn that I am holding a position as stenographer with S. Strubheim & Son, wholesalers and jobbers of crockery and glassware, here in San Francisco. I have been with the firm three months and am doing nicely. However, I owe this position to what I learned in your College, and I think if I had not learned shorthand before I came to the city I never would have learned it, because I could not get down to hard study as there is so much going on here.

Yours very respectfully,
