

CITY BRIEFS.

Go to Winters' for Jewelry
Miss Blanche DeCordova returned Monday evening from a visit to Kansas. J. T. Totten, who has been quite sick the past month, is now able to be out once more.

New line of rings at Winters'
Geo. R. Hurn and wife left for San Francisco Sunday morning. They will be absent about two weeks.

C. T. Oliver started work yesterday on an addition to his already large barn in the rear of the Lakeside Inn.

Fine watch repairing at Winters'
P. L. Fountain left Sunday morning for Medford and other points in Rogue River Valley for a two weeks stay.

Lewis Gerber, the stockman, was in the city yesterday from the Merrill Feed yards, where he has been wintering his stock.

A full line of Dry Goods at the Novelty Store.

H. V. Mitchell left Sunday morning for San Francisco, where he will join his wife who is spending the winter in the city.

The Stills Company invite all their old and new patrons to call at their new store and inspect their stock of goods. Next to the City Drug Store.

20 per cent off on Dry goods at the Brick Store.

The beautiful new piano for the High School building has arrived and was placed in the assembly room Tuesday. The instrument is a fine Baby Grand Chickering.

Quite a number of logs belonging to R. S. Moore have been floating around the lake below town the past two weeks. The heavy south winds washed them over the boom.

Visit the Novelty Store Millinery and Dressmaking parlors.

Pres. Campbell's subject at the dedication of the High school will be "Relation of High Schools to the University." Supt. Ackerman will speak on "The High School, Past, Present and Future."

The Novelty Store, which is owned by Stills Company, was moved the first of the week into the new Worden building next to the City Drug Store. The new quarters are very neat and roomy and particularly adapted to the display of dry goods and millinery.

20 per cent off on Clothing at the Brick Store.

Attorney H. L. Holgate, of Klamath Falls, has been in Portland the past week, having returned from Echo where he was assisting in the organization of a Water Users Association. On Tuesday he gave an address before the Portland Board of Trade on "Reclamation, its Progress and its Obstacles."

New line of watches at Winters'
Presbyterian Church.—Sunday school with well organized classes for all grades, at 10: a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. on "A Wise Petitioner Requiring Things of God." C. E. Service at 6:45 p. m. and sermon at 7:30 on "Common Ways of Condemning God." Prayer service at 7:30 Wednesday evening. All made welcome.

At the big meeting of the Oregon Development League at Portland Friday and Saturday the following officers were elected: President, E. L. Smith, Hood River; secretary, Tom Richardson, Portland; vice-presidents, A. Bennett, Irigon; Dr. J. T. McCormack, Marshfield; George T. Baldwin, Klamath Falls; B. F. Minkley, Ashland; S. H. Friendly, Eugene.

New line of emblem pins and charms at Winters'
Many voters who are being registered are not having their political affiliations recorded, either through their own ignorance or the carelessness of registering officers, or in some instances through lack of inclination to declare their politics. It should be borne in mind that such will not be qualified to participate in the primary elections though it will not interfere with their exercise of the franchise at the June general election.

New line of Fountain pens at Winters'
The Reclamation Service has been notified that the abstract of the Ankeny & Henley canal has been accepted and all that now remains for Mr. Ankeny to get his money is for him to attach a voucher to the abstract and forward to the Secretary of the Interior. The agreements to purchase the Adams, Klamath Canal Company and Carr property have been approved but the abstracts have not yet been accepted as there are a few details in the perfecting of title to be arranged yet.

Nell Brothers started Tuesday morning with 238 head of beef cattle belonging to J. E. Felton, for the railroad.

Bonanza News

(From our regular correspondent)
Our town is covered with the "Beautifull" snow about 6 inches deep, the lower 5 inches however is water.

Our Minister Rev. Allen and his good wife returned to our city on last Friday from Lakeview where they had been enjoying a visit to Mrs. Allen's parents. They report having had a fine visit and were well pleased with Lakeview. Bro. Allen preached to a crowded house on last Sunday night.

Regular Prayer meeting on Wednesday night, and a social gathering of the Church people at the residence of J. O. Hamaker was announced for Thursday evening.

Our I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs did themselves proud on last Saturday night, at a Joint Installation. After the usual meeting of the Subordinate Lodge, the Rebekahs and a few invited guests were admitted to the hall making about 50 persons present, and then the local Rebekahs took charge of the meeting and J. O. Hamaker acting as D. D. G. M. and Mrs. Myrtle Simmons acting as Grand Marshal, they proceeded to install the officers elect of Fraternity Rebekah Lodge No. 106 as follows: Miss Doris Goss, N. G.; Mrs. Margie Hoagland, V. G.; Mrs. H. H. Johnson, Sec'y; and Mrs. M. J. Chastain, Treas.; J. O. Hamaker, R. S. N. G.; Mrs. Bertha Clopton, L. S. N. G.; Mary Patterson, R. S. V. G.; Annie Hamaker, L. S. V. G.; Myrtle Simmons, W. Anna Langell, C.; H. L. Clopton, I. G.; D. B. Nichols, O. G.; Birdie McDonald Chaplain.

The installation being completed the Subordinate then proceeded to install. P. G. Marion Bennett, acting as D. D. G. M. and J. O. Hamaker, as G. Marshal, they installed into their respective offices the following: Chas. V. Pattee, N. G.; John W. Logue, V. G.; J. O. Hamaker, Sec'y; and H. L. Clopton, Treas.; D. B. Nichols, R. S. N. G.; D. F. Driscoll, L. S. N. G.; Levi McDonald, V. G.; J. H. Driscoll, C.; Jake Rueck, R. S. V. G.; I. D. Ross, L. S. V. G.; S. H. Patterson & W. A. Walker, S. S.; W. J. Bauman, I. G.; W. Webber, O. G.; L. J. Bauman, Chaplain.

After the installation ceremonies were completed the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows formed and marched out, then returned and placed in order the following line of march making the following letters I. O. O. F. & F. L. T., which was loudly applauded by the spectators. Then as there had been noised around that something good could come out of all Israel, the tables were spread with a nice lunch with plenty of hot coffee and tea, which was enjoyed by every one. After lunch the tables were cleared and the crowd enjoyed a social hour with singing and instrumental music. At 1 a. m. we bid each other adieu and took our selves home, voting thanks to the I. O. O. F.

Telephone news from Royston this A. M. announce that there is about 4 1/2 feet of snow there and that S. S. Stiles and another Drummer with Mike Taylor are there and succeeded in pulling their wagon to the barn a distance of about 100 yards this forenoon.

Mr. Decker and another Drummer left this morning to try their luck on the mountain but they took a sled, don't know how they will make it.

The People's Store of this place has been grinding feed since the wind began to blow so they could run the wind mill, it being a 10 foot geared wheel. J. O. Hamaker is miller in Chief.

Ashland Normal Notes.

Henry Carter, a former student of the Normal visited the school Tuesday. Mr. Carter is now a student at the Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon.

Miss Laura Allen, class of '04 visited the Normal Tuesday. Miss Allen has been teaching at Wagner Springs.

Vacation is over and nearly all the students are back in their old places ready for work again with several new ones among the ranks. The new students are: Miss Lindley, St. Johns, Wash; Maud Harr, Watkins, Ore; Ada Dittsworth, Preyton, Ore; J. P. Miller, Derby, Ore; Ethel Stratton, Ashland; C. O. Logan, Ashland; Dave and Will Cottrell, Medford.

The Athletic Society met in Professor VanScoy's room Monday. James Martin was elected Captain of the basket ball squad. A challenge from the town team was accepted and the

POINTS ABOUT THE SALMON

The Biography of This Game Fish is Filled with Puzzling Blanks.

Who knows the way of the eagle in the air, or of the salmon in the sea? Of all fish the most tantalizing, he has been the life study of thousands of men, writes Frederic Ireland, in Scribner's. Yet how little anyone really knows about him and how conflicting is the testimony as to what is known! If you want to get the idea that there is no such thing as abstract truth, you can form that opinion quickly by sitting in front of the fireplace in a fishing club some evening when the most experienced members are present and feel like talking. There is scarcely any proposition connected with the life history of this fish upon which any two men of 40 or 50 years' experience in salmon fishing will agree. The biography of the fish is filled with puzzling blanks. You catch a glimpse of him in his infancy. He mysteriously disappears, returns during adolescence, and then is gone again until, on his third appearance, the infant has grown to be fully mature. Who would think the childish smolt of a few ounces, that slips quietly down river in the early spring, could come back in the same summer in the pride of youth as a three or four pound grise? And the next time he goes, upon what meat doth he feed, that he jumps to maturity and ten pounds' weight? What ports does he visit while he is off on his deep-sea cruise? Where does he keep the chart by which, after his far-away wanderings, he unerringly returns to his birthplace? And why do many grise come to some rivers and comparatively few or none to others? In Miranichi waters there are in August ten grise to every full-grown salmon. In the Tobique there are scarcely any grise at all.

LOCOMOTIVE DEVELOPMENT

Immense Increase in Size of Railway Engines in the Last Ten Years.

Leaving out narrow gauge, switching and other light engines, there were 29 American locomotives in 1893 having an average weight of 128,558 pounds. At the St. Louis exposition there are 29 American locomotives having an average weight of 195,239 pounds, reports the World To-Day. At Chicago the total weight of the heaviest locomotive was 195,000 pounds. This was criticised for excessive weight, and the general opinion was that it was the limit. At St. Louis the average is greater than the heaviest at Chicago, the heaviest being 393,012 pounds (light weight engine and tender). This is a mountain climber which is yet an experiment. The next heaviest weighs 287,580 pounds, and there are six others weighing over 200,000 pounds each. The total weight of the 29 largest locomotives shown at St. Louis is 5,603,425 pounds. The heaviest engine at Chicago was exceptional, weighing 26,000 pounds more than the next heaviest, which in turn weighed 13,000 pounds more than the next. Perhaps it would be fairer to omit the heaviest at St. Louis as being entirely exceptional, a sporadic case. We would then have the average weight at St. Louis of 188,176 pounds, as against an average of 128,558 in Chicago, an increase of about 46 per cent. If the Malet compound is included in the comparison the increase has been over 50 per cent.

LIGHTENS THEIR LABORS.

Firm of Cigar Manufacturers Retain Their Employees with Music.

A modern philosopher has expressed his approval of the man who sings at his work, says Cassell's Journal.

A recognition of the fact that work is improved by being performed under cheerful conditions has led a certain firm of American cigar manufacturers to entertain their employes with music.

Every day a performer on the guitar attends at the factory, and plays and sings to the operatives. The musician sits in a chair and thrums out the popular melodies of the day, thus putting the workers in the best of spirits.

As the factory is a large one, the troubadour shifts his position from time to time, so that all the workers shall have the benefit of his music.

Some of the cigarmakers are of Spanish blood, and at times it happens that they become so engrossed in the music as to cease their work. When this occurs the minstrel promptly recalls them to their duties by "moving on."

The proprietors find the little innovation entirely beneficial, for it prevents the sullenness and discontent that proceed from close confinement and monotonous work.

Benefits from Volcanic Eruptions.

It appears that the volcanic eruptions which devastated Guatemala last year were really blessings in disguise. The coffee fincas, or plantations, suffered severely, and so gloomy was the outlook that many planters abandoned their ash-covered acres and considered themselves ruined. As it happened, the eruptions were followed by heavy and long-continued rains, which washed away a large proportion of the ashes and incorporated the rest of them with the soil. In the result the mixture proved of great benefit to the coffee trees and the new crop is said to be as large again as last year's. Now the planters who did not get their share of volcanic dust are lamenting their plight and looking forward to more eruptions as soon as may be.

Drug Quality
The dawn of the new year finds us with all our old customers and many new ones. Each year demonstrates by the increase in our trade that our drugs are quality drugs. If it was not so our trade would not increase so. If we did not furnish pure drugs we could not count so many new customers.
We are going to give you such pure drugs and increasingly good service the coming year, that will merit all your trade.
