He says that the population of Merrill and the country adjoining has increased wonderfully since last year. Many times before he has been offered the nomination for important offices, but each time he has been averse to entering politics.

Bonanza News

(From our regular correspondent)
James Taylor and Charles Hughes were in from Bly and remained over Monday. They took back a load of grain. Come again and we will treat you all right.
The local Rebekah lodge had a time on last Thursday night and four new members signed the constitution. They report having had a good eat and a nice social time. They are composed of the best people and living under the best principals in the universe, hence they have a good time.
Dr. Johnson had a narrow escape last week while returning from Poe Valley. The tongue of his buggy became loose and dropped in the snow and as the horses continued going it caused the buggy to double up and threw the Doctor in the top. Fortunately the horses were stopped before any serious damage occurred.
On Monday of this week the Board of School Directors called a meeting pursuant to the petition presented to them duly signed by a large number of the legal voters of our town, asking the holding of a meeting to vote $10,000 bonds for the erection of a new school house. Hence the assertion made by me in the last issue has developed and the notices calling for a meeting for that purpose are now posted and the election is called for the 24th day of February 1906. We feel assured by the expression of the people that the bonds will be voted almost to a man, hence we look for our new addition to the place in the shape of improvements that will be a credit to our town and to any town in the state. We begin to feel truly proud.
Our ad for the church organ has begun to materialize already. In less than 24 hours after the paper came to town we had fifteen shares taken and the money placed in the hands of Mrs. Bean for that purpose. Let the good work go on.
A large crowd attended the church on last Sunday evening and listened to a pleasant and instructive talk from Rev. Allen.
On Monday of this week J. O. Hamaker sold at auction to the highest bidder for cash all the belongings of Chas. Wyly who has departed for parts unknown to the writer.
Hon. John S. Shook and Mr. Jones of Dairy, were in our city last Sunday and made us a pleasant call.
Eugene Wilkerson accompanied by his sister, Miss Geneva, were in town from Lovell last Monday. Miss Geneva is an accomplished "School Marm" and we are always glad to see her.
We heard the other day that G. K. VanHiper of our town was getting the Sheriff fever in his hat and would be out for the democratic nomination for that office.
J. O. Hamaker went to Bly Tuesday of this week to visit his daughter and his brother S. C. of that place, so he said, but perhaps it was the thoughts of the nomination for County Judge that took him.
Bonanza, Jan. 30. C. U. Agin.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

HAPPENINGS IN THE LODGE ROOMS AND HOMES

Mrs. Oliver Gates gave a musicale to about twenty of her lady friends, Wednesday afternoon at her new home on Washington street. It was an assemblage of the musical talent of the city. Among the numbers were: Duet by Mesdames Gates and Krause, reading by Mrs. Zumwalt and vocal solos by Mrs. Zumwalt, Mrs. Krause and Miss Obermuller. A musical guessing game was one of the features of the afternoon's entertainment during which dainty refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mesdames Swan, Baldwin, Martin, Oberchain, Zumwalt, Galarneau, Perry, Krause, McGeehan, E. I. Applegate, McGowan, Ross Anderson, McMillan, Reames, Willis, Shattuck, Hubbard, Benson, Reaburn, and Miss Obermuller.

A very delightful "500" party was given Thursday afternoon at the Lake-side Inn parlors by Mrs. C. Ross Anderson and the Misses McMillan, in honor of Miss Obermuller. Dainty refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. Alex. Martin Jr. and Miss Stella Campbell. Among those present were: Mesdames Reames, Martin, Zumwalt, Reaburn, McGeehan, Aldridge, Perry, Cope, Hubbard, Stone, Ward and Woodbury, and Misses Obermuller, Campbell, Straw and Applegate.

Mrs. H. B. Hargus gave a farewell reception, Tuesday evening at her home on Conger avenue, in honor of Mrs. S. S. Mitchell, who will leave shortly for San Francisco. Cards, music and refreshments were the entertainment of the evening. Among those present were: Mesdames E. R. Reames, G. W. Maylone, L. B. Yaden, Otis Krause, H. P. Galarneau, Edna McMillan, Frank Ward and S. S. Mitchell.

The members of the Woodmen Lodge gave a "Smoker" at their regular meeting.

Socialist Meeting.

The Klamath Falls Local met at the City Hall, Sunday at 3 p. m., and a lively time was had. County Organizer Chas. Sherman was present from Dairy, and gave an encouraging account of the progress of Socialistic ideas in that section of the country. Interesting addresses were also made by some visiting comrades from Ashland. Several citizens have given notice of their intention to become members of the Local in this city at the next meeting, which will be at City Hall Sunday, February 4th at 3 o'clock p. m. All Socialists are requested to be present at that time. Secretary.

The Mail has had very little to say with regard to the candidates for nomination to the several state, district and county offices. The publisher has been asked by several candidates to support their candidacy. Some of these requests have not been given a thought, others are now being considered. There are plenty of good, honest, capable men among the Republicans of the state, district and county to fill the offices if nominated and elected and when such men are mentioned The Mail will faithfully support their nomination, and if nominated will be working for their election until the polls close. Right in line with the above we are going to say that Prof. W. C. Hawley, of the Willamette University, is our candidate for congress from this, the First District. Since his visit to Medford a few weeks ago we have been asking questions of those who know him well and from them not a word has been spoken which was not complimentary. More will be said later of Mr. Hawley's candidacy in these columns.—Medford Mail.
