HIGH SCHOOL NEWS
 BY BERYL BALLARD

Chapel exercises of Monday morning consisted of songs by the students and a very instructive speech by Rev. Mr. Duniap. The subject chosen was "The Necessity and Value of Thorough Preparation."
 The Webfoot, the junior annual of the University of Oregon for 1905, has been presented to the K. C. H. S. by President Campbell. It is full of illustrations and humorous sayings and is very much appreciated by the students. Mr. Campbell congratulated us on our success. We, the students, regret his inability to attend the dedication exercises.
 Georgia Hoagland was called from school Friday by the serious illness of her father.
 A meeting of the Literary Society was called Monday afternoon. An amendment to our constitution was presented. One of the boys, in giving his opinion of the matter said: "It is all right for the majority to rule, but I believe in protecting the minority." This is a good sentiment for politicians.
 The Greek History, American Literature and Geometry classes are struggling with examinations.
 Laura Nelson was called home Friday on account of the serious sickness of her grandfather.
 At the last meeting of the County High School Board it was decided to take steps toward adding a thorough commercial department to the High School. Accordingly Professor T. C. Rowley, of Minneapolis, was employed to take charge of this work. He will assist in other work in the High School this year and will probably teach book-keeping, mathematics and penmanship. This will relieve the other teachers from the extra work they have been compelled to do and will also allow the organization of some new classes. Prof. Rowley is a graduate of the advanced course of the State Normal of Iowa. He has had nine years experience in teaching, was for four years principal of the High School of Douglas, Wyoming. Resigning that position he became cashier of the First National Bank of that city, which position he retained for four years. Last year he resigned his position in the bank and entered the law school of the University of Minnesota. He is highly recommended both by the officials of the bank and by his school officials where he has taught. His practical banking experience will aid him in conducting commercial work.
 From the plaintive voice of Virgil to Professor.
 Oh, Mr. Swan, this awful history
 To us is quite a mystery;
 Why we should study day and night
 And get our minds in such a plight
 For old examination.
 If you will give us another day
 We'll keep our promise and not play;
 We'll do what we think's exactly right
 And study, yes, with all our might
 For old examination.
 And home with us we'll take our books,
 Pay no attention to how it looks
 And when we've had our little rest
 We'll take our pens and do our best
 For old examination.
 Now Mr. Swan, please don't forsake
 All the pains in us you take;
 Oh may we not this history take
 For if we do our hearts you'll break
 For old examination.

YONNA ZEPHYRS
 BY "OPTIMIST."

The sleighing especially in the north part of the valley is fine this winter.
 Manuel Vierra and wife, on last Thursday, were out to Dairy enjoying a sleigh ride. Manuel reports that his stock is doing well this winter.
 Grandma Shook, who has been seriously ill for some time, we are pleased to report is up and around again. She is past four score years.
 Mr. Herbert Arant was out visiting the people of Dairy last Sunday. It is curious how Herbert admires the scenery in Yonna valley.
 Johnny Hibbert of Swan Lake, was trading in Dairy one day this week. Mr. Hibbert states that he can buy goods at Dairy cheaper than at Klamath Falls. The snow at the north end of Swan Lake valley is three and one half feet deep and it caused the roof of the shingle mill of Mr. Hibbert to cave in.
 Last week James G. Wight had his cattle moved from his ranch in Yonna valley to the Ward place in Pine flat, where Wm. Wood will feed them for the rest of the winter.
 Last week Oscar Lee was laid up for some time by being kicked in the face by a horse. The horse was sharp shod and left quite a scar. The wound healed quite rapidly and Mr. Lee this week is about again.
 One of Wm. Welsh's cows met with quite a serious mishap about two weeks ago. She was feeding at a straw stack and ate in on one side so the straw and snow on top of the stack tipped over and crushed her head in the ground. The cow is still alive and eats some but it is necessary to raise her up with a derrick every day.
 Jesse Cramm and Mr. Burcell, the homesteaders, who live up in the timber near the old Crickshank shingle mill, were helping Fred Beck butcher Monday last. The gentlemen resent the statement in the Express a few weeks that "They were snowbound and in danger of starvation." They came out from their homesteads on snow shoes. They stated that they expected such a winter and were prepared for it.
 Jacob Rueck returned from attending the meeting of the Water Users Association at Klamath Falls, on Sunday. He reports that important business was transacted in regard to the purchase of water rights along Lost River. Mr. Rueck is spoken of for the office of county Commissioner, and he would make a good one.
 Last week a party consisting of Paddy Collahan, Jim Collahan, Hank O'Brien and Johnny Anderson went on a trip on snow shoes up in the Trout creek or Tom Can country. They returned with eighteen horses that had been penned in by the deep snow. It took them three days to make the trip. They traveled about twenty miles a day and carried their food with them. Mr. O'Brien reports quite a strenuous time of it, as sometimes he would tumble into a horse track and stick up like a fence post.
 These seems to be the times for graft and you can find it every where. The real estate dealers of Klamath county have started in to practice it in an open manner. They take an option on a man's farm for a certain price per acre, then when they go to sell, they not only get their commission but they raise the price several dollars per acre. This does an injustice to both the man who buys and the man who sells. The Klamath county farmer who has lived a strenuous life on a dry ranch certainly ought to be rewarded for his long and hard work by realising all that his farm will bring on the market. The man who purchases a home ought to have it as cheap as possible and not give a big per cent of his hard earned dollars for a little work by a real estate agent. I would suggest to the farmer that if they list their property for sale, that they stipulate that the price per acre shall not be raised above a certain amount.
 "Sagebrush" the peanut politician from Dairy has, in his feeble way, had much to say about the misdeeds of the Republican party and especially of the leaders from Oregon. The fact is that for a number of years it has been the common practice to ignore the law and acquire the public lands, and Roosevelt is the first President who has had nerve and integrity enough to enforce the laws. Sagebrush also makes the statement that it requires hard times to bring the people to their senses. In this he is quite right. The people of Klamath county remember that in the years from 1892 to 1896, under Cleveland's administration, wages for hay hands were one dollar per day, and beef cattle brought $16 per head for choice stock. Yes! those times brought the people to their senses and we have not had a Democratic President since.
 In a recent issue of the Express, Sagebrush makes a piteous wall about the way voters of Klamath county are registering. There is some significance in the fact that at Dairy, out of sixty-two voters registered, only eleven are Democrats. It seems as if the people had taken Sagebrush's remarks as a big joke. Up to February 5 sixty-two voters had registered at Dairy, thirty-seven are Republicans, twelve Socialists, eleven Democrats and two Independents.
 Dairy, February 6, 1906.

NOTES FROM BONANZA
 BY C. U. AGIN.

The church people have bought the cottage built by Earl White and are moving it down to the lots owned by the church, to be used for a parsonage. Mr. Pattee and J. V. Robinson have the contract for moving the building and have it nearly completed.

 At the regular monthly meeting of the Town Board last night some very good ordinances were passed. There was one passed for the taking of dogs and the control of same, and another for the protection of horses. Those will not be allowed to stand tied in the streets of the town without hay, as has been the custom, for more than eight hours in the day and five hours at night, without subjecting the owner to a fine and the horse or horses will be held as a lien for the payment of the fine. This is undoubtedly a good law and should be strictly enforced. The saloon keepers also were warned to adhere more strictly to the law and the provisions of their bonds, and try and keep the town in a more decent condition. The notion has seemed to prevail among some of the people that at church time on Sunday, they must try and have a good time and make as much noise as possible. This will be looked into more strictly in the future and some one will be made an example of for the benefit of the others.
 B. F. Nichols arrived last night with a load of freight from Pokeyama, having made the trip in six days. He was loaded for the Driscoll Mercantile Company, who are alive to business and bound to take the necessities of life if it does take winter freight to keep supplied.
 Thos. Garrett, of Bly, spent Sunday in town. He was over after grain.
 J. A. Parker, of Bly, arrived last night from the railroad with his daughter, Bertha Bell, from Washington, who has come home for a visit. They departed for Bly this morning both glad to get so near home at this time of the year. Mr. Parker was principally raised on the mountain between Klamath Falls and Ashland and has resided in Klamath county ever since he resided under that name. He reports the roads in a worse condition than he has ever saw them during his residence here.
 Mrs. Davis of this place now has some fine pictures of the "Oliver Drummer Scow" most completed, and they will show to a person not accustomed to the mountains what it is to travel in the winter.
 Miss Marie Hamaker had an attack of tonsillitis last week which kept her from school a couple of days. She is however at school this week.
 Dr. Johnson is not very stout yet, and has had a hard time this winter, owing to his recent illness. He has had to make several night rides in the cold which has kept him in a rather tender condition. Take good care of yourself Doctor and not get down again as we need your assistance quite often.
 We are told the Beekman tract of land in Langell valley is about to change hands, and will be signed up to the government for the Upper project. This will assure the building of the dams necessary to the construction of the Upper project this summer and make us move to keep up with the times.
 Bonanza, Feb. 6. C. U. Agin.

TULE LAKE TIDINGS
 BY NEWS PEDDLER.

We are having lovely weather here now. If it were not for the snow on the ground, one could fancy that spring was surely here. Several have started in to plow and put in their spring crops.
 The snow has melted sufficiently so that the lumber trade between Merrill and Slack's sawmill has been resumed.
 There is a rumor to the effect that this part of the country is being bought up by a syndicate for colonization purposes.
 About one hundred and twenty head of horses passed through the valley lately on the way to the railroad.
 Mrs. W. C. Dalton has returned from a trip to the eastern states.
 Grant Gay is looking very happy lately. When asked the cause, the reply is: "It's a girl, born the 27th of January." We all extend our best wishes to the little lady who has come to dwell in our midst.
 February 5, 1906.
