In this issue of the Republican appears the announcement of Silas Obenchain for the office of Sheriff of this county. Mr. Obenchain needs no introduction to our readers. During his term of office he has shown himself to be thoroughly qualified to discharge the duties devolving on him and in a manner that has met with the cordial approval of the people he has so faithfully served. If he is re-nominated, his election is assured, and his return to office will mean the continuance of an administration that has been marked by conservatism, honesty and efficiency.

Capt. W. Siemens received a letter Tuesday from the attending physician that County Commissioner Fred Melhase, who is in San Francisco receiving medical treatment, was greatly improved.

R. A. Emmitt's Platform.

As a candidate for County Judge it is proper for the voters to be informed as to my position in regard to a new Court house.

I am opposed to either moving the present site or building a new one for at least four years, unless demanded by a majority of the tax payers.

The one we have, with slight repairs and repainting is sufficient for the present.

I further pledge myself if elected with the aid of one or both Commissioners to entirely pay off the county debt which with the increase of taxable property can be done without retarding the necessary county improvements.

R. A. EMMITT.

Keno, Feb. 28, 1906.

An Old Time Dance.

SCHOOL BONDS VOTED.

school house completed and dedicated.

But in all candor and justice to all parties we did on last Saturday vote $10,000 bonds for a new brick six-room school house, and we are going to have it built and ready for occupancy by this October, 1906.

Who can say that the people of District No. 2 are a set of ignoramuses? We are second to none from an educational standpoint and the old log school house and wooden benches are things of the past.

Geo. Deal of Langell Valley was in town last Friday and Saturday, trading with our merchants. George said if we would vote bonds and build our school house, he wanted to buy town lots and build here to get the benefit of the school. Come on, George; we did it.

Frank Grohs will build here this spring, also Creed H. McKendree, D. F. Driscoll, J. S. Evans, Wm. Grose, Chas. Pattee, G. K. VanRiper and several others.

We have fine brick clay within our city limits, and will give the right man a chance to put out some good brick this season.

Our school board proposes to add the 9th and 10th grades this Fall term of school. Good.

R. I. Kilgore took possession of the New American Hotel on Monday, and when in the city call on Roy, and he will make you comfortable.

J. O. Hamaker is surveying the Fairview addition to Bonanza this week for Messrs. McKendree, VanRiper and Pattee. They are adding eighty acres to our beautiful city and if anyone is thinking of buying town lots in one of the best towns in Southern Oregon, they would do well to see them.

We are sorry that the real estate men of Klamath Falls are so jealous of us as to try and spoil the deal we had in the course of consummation and interfere with the trade some of our people had with C. C. Beckman. It looks as if they were afraid the Government would look at our part of the Project and do this work before they, the "R. E. A.", were ready to get options on the county. This is an injury to the whole county and it is a fact well known to the Reclamation Service that it is necessary to control the flood waters of Lost river before the lower project can be completed. Now, boys, don't be "weecheeks" as the Klamath says, meaning "stingy."

F. D. Swingle, the President of the Langell Valley Telephone Company and Geo. T. Kline were in town Saturday delivering certificates of stock. Mr. Swingle went over to Ashland and Mr. Kline returned to his home in Langell Valley.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

BY BERYL BALLARD

Mrs. E. G. Willson visited our school Wednesday afternoon. She presented to our Literary Society a gavel hewn from a piece of Klamath county mahogany. She expressed her interest in our school and wished our Literary Society great success for the future.

Quite a few of the High school students partook of a literary treat given by the public school Thursday afternoon. The program delivered was in part as follows: Song by the school, "Psalm of Life" was delivered exceedingly well by one of the younger pupils. A recitation by Vera Houston was excellent. The debate considering that little preparation had been made toward it, was fine. Those who fought for the affirmative were Jessie Telford, June Grigsby, Negative, Agnes Marple, Roxie Shive. Subject, Resolved that science has done more than art for civilization. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. We are glad to see an interest being developed in this work.

Rev. Mr. Smith addressed the students during chapel exercises Monday morning. His speech was quite instructive and was much appreciated. We realize more fully every day the fact that the people are taking a great deal of interest in our welfare.

The regular Literary Society meeting was held Friday afternoon in Assembly hall. As much business was to be transacted Professor Swan allowed us the entire afternoon. We were honored by the presence of Principal of Public school, Prof. Dunbar. He was called upon for a few words of address. He said that he had heard just what he came up to hear and that was disputes and contradictions, our ways of settling them etc. He advised the girls to have more voice in the discussions.

The gavel presented by Mrs. E. G. Willson was accepted and a committee appointed to draw up a paper of thanks to said party. New officers were elected for the coming term. Carlton Spencer was nominated and elected as president, and Ruth Smith secretary. When four o'clock came only one piece on the program had been rendered. The remainder was postponed to some future date.

The program for the next Literary meeting will be as follows:
Song..... By the school
Original story..... Laura Nelson
Recitation..... Carlton Spencer
Five Minute Talk..... Vincent Yaden
Recitation..... Amy Lenz
Essay..... Elsie Gates
Declaration..... Frank Wilson
Music..... Eanaya Elliott
Composition..... John Yaden
Prophecy..... Mr. J. G. Swan
Reading..... Minnie Barnum
Current Events..... Perry DeLap
Reading..... Lucile Cox
Music..... Ruth Smith
Debate, Holly Siemens, Maud Nail, Vernie Cliff and Lilly Arnett.

Thursday's Business Letter.

There is perhaps little music in business, but there is often business in music. An attractive asset of Klamath Falls, although not listable in dollars and cents, is its band as now organized. The new instruments, consisting of saxophones, melophones, clarinets, tuba and others are of the highest grade and built for music making. They are of low pitch, and especially adapted for concert playing. They are as different from the blatant, brassy horns recently discarded as Schubert's serenade is different from "Pig in the Parlor." The members of the band are faithfully practicing and the new organization will probably first be heard, publically, in a novel entertainment to be given by the boys within a few weeks.

In a manner, too, the announcements to be made by the Klamath Commercial Agency will be music to investors, small and large. Among other attractions is a townsite proposition, downright new, that is certain to appeal to everyone. It is not an addition or a suburb, nor is it a town to be platted and sold simply because there is room on the land for a few houses. It is not in any sense a self-sucker scheme. The town will have an assured backing, business and population; and while it will never be a city, it will be a lively, prosperous town.

The Agency, at present, is perfecting its plans, and its various realty enticements will not be placed upon the market for a few weeks. It will pay you to wait for them.

If you are thinking of subdividing and selling your large holdings, it will cost you nothing to consult us in regard to doing the work for you. We are well equipped for the purpose. We have two attorneys to attend to the legal matters; a civil engineer to do the surveying; representatives in the Coast cities and New York; and can advance the necessary moneys.

If you wish to sell anything or to buy anything; to organize and incorporate a company for any purpose; if you have any accounts to collect; if you wish to borrow money on mortgage security; or transact any business in which you need assistance, we will be pleased to have you call.

ROY HAMAKER, Manager. KLAMATH COMMERCIAL AGENCY.
