

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

E. J. MURRAY, Editor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.
TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday, March 15, 1906.

Never miss an opportunity to let outsiders know what a great city and county you live in.

The time is at hand when every man, woman and child can uncork their enthusiasm and begin to boast.

Now that the ditch contractors are here with their coats off, things will take on a different hue. "There will be something doing every minute," from now on. We would advise those who are desirous of getting in on the ground floor to "get busy," for if they don't they are apt later on, to find some one in the cellar.

Don't fail to mail at least one copy of the local papers to a friend. It helps to advertise the county, and this is a duty for every citizen to perform. We are glad to report that many have followed our suggestion of last week along this line. We had on hand a large number of extra copies and our supply has been exhausted. This week we intend to increase the number, and hope to be able to supply all demands. But, for fear we may run short, mail this copy anyway. It will do a lot of good. Let your friends see what is going on here. They want to know.

Mr. Reid, who has been representing the Portland Board of Trade, and who sought to have the County Court appropriate a sum of money from the general fund for a write-up of the county in a book to be issued under the direction of the Board, left here last Thursday. The sentiment was strongly in favor of using this fund at home, believing that better and more effective work could be accomplished for the good of the entire county by so doing. This will probably be done later in the summer, after the distribution of the contemplated edition now being prepared by the Chamber of Commerce. This publication is being issued at the expense of the business men of this city, who desired to show the rest of the county that they were impartial in their efforts to advertise this section, and that no one part of the county was going to be neglected or favored. After this is demonstrated it is purposed to ask the County Court to make an appropriation, which they probably will do.

FAVORITE OF THE PEOPLE

The old Salem ring politicians don't take kindly to Walter L. Toozie of Woodburn for congress.

He is a little too active and energetic for them. He is too independent to suit them.

He has all the energy and strenuousness of Roosevelt, keeps his ear as close to the ground as did McKinley.

He wrote a platform that was a surprise to the ring leaders. It struck out boldly on new lines, and all they could do was to copy it.

If Walter L. Toozie is nominated, he will not have to give all the fat places to two generations of old political hacks.

He will not be mortgaged up to the neck financially for money advanced to him by bosses who will dictate his appointments.

The producers and the laboring men and the real workers in the Republican party will have something to say as well as the fellows who have worn out official chair bottoms and had their pictures painted at public expense.

Toozie will not be the tool of any boss. He will get his nomination from the people, and he will be a congressman for the people, of the people, and by the people, or stay at home.—Salem Journal.

CHARMING VALLEYS OF GREAT FERTILITY

So Says Judge Gaston of Portland.

The following from the versatile pen of the distinguished citizen of Portland, Judge Joseph Gaston, tells a story replete with facts. Perhaps no more competent or conservative investigator can be found than Judge Gaston, and his interesting account of his travels through that section of the state tributary to Klamath Falls will prove of interest to REPUBLICAN readers. Judge Gaston's trip embraced the country from Portland to Higgs, then down the Columbia Southern railroad to Shanks, thence to Prineville, Bend, Rossland, Silver Lake, Paisley, Lakewood, Klamath Falls, Polkanna, Thrall, then back to the main S. P. line and home to Portland.

One hundred miles west of Lakeview is located the progressive town of Klamath Falls. The country between the two places is made up of rolling hills covered with much fine timber and interspersed with charming little valleys of great fertility. The whole country is covered with flocks of sheep and herds of cattle, like all the country from Shanks to Lakeview. This live stock is now, of course, all gathered into the feeding grounds to be fed from the great racks of alfalfa until the show disappears.

Alfalfa is the great forage standby of Eastern Oregon, and the article which produces the fat, the muscle, the wool and the cash, no matter whether fed to horses, cattle or sheep. One can't talk timothy hay to any Eastern Oregon stockman, for he has more facts and arguments than one could answer with a book. Klamath Falls has more resources and advantages to build up a city than any other place in Oregon outside of Portland and Baker City. The Government will irrigate and reclaim from 32,000 to 250,000 acres of rich land around the town. All the other lands within a radius of many miles is rich, productive soil, and much of it is covered with fine timber. Right at the town is a vast cheap water power which can be used five times over in a mile to operate manufactories or electric roads.

The town is already a bustling place, confident of its own future; with electric lights, city water, banks, stores, hotels, newspapers, steamboats, and every shop, factory and facility to push ahead with an active, healthy growth. Sixty new houses have been built the past year; many are under construction, and there is a certainty of having railroad connection with the whole country within four months. Real estate is booming and prices advancing; and the town can never have a competitor within its own exclusive territory.

The soil of all this region that I have passed through is of volcanic origin and rich in the mineral elements which furnish a fertilizer already in place, which in Western Oregon and the Eastern States has to be purchased from the manufacturing chemist.

The climate is mild. I did not believe this when coming here to see in the worst snow storm for many years. People in the Willamette Valley generally believe this is a cold, hard climate, but it is not as cold to man, animal or plant life as ten degrees above the freezing point at Portland. The difference is produced by the humidity of the atmosphere. Here the air is dry; in the Willamette Valley it is humid.

Ashland Normal Notes.

March 8th.

Roy Walker, a former student, and now a student at the U. of O., visited with old friends at the Normal Friday.

The Athena Literary Society met Friday morning at the Chapel. After the transaction of the regular business, the question "Resolved, that Representatives in Congress should vote their own opinion," was debated. Those on the Affirmative were Ethel Osborn and Anna Swinney, on the Negative, Vera Storey and Esther Jarvis. The question was decided in favor of the Negative. The following officers were elected to serve six weeks: President, Kate Broad, Vice president, Edna Kingcade, Secretary, Maude Minear, and Treasurer, Elva McFarland.

School was dismissed last Tuesday, in respect to the memory of Miss Belle McFarland, who died Monday evening. Miss McFarland was a member of the Junior class and one of the brightest students in school. She was very popular with every one and will be greatly missed by both students and teachers.

Monday morning, Miss Kaiser told of the original meaning of different words in common use. This talk was very instructive. Thursday Mrs. Payne recited for the students. The selections were well given and much enjoyed by all.

The Y. W. C. A. met Wednesday noon in the chapel. The subject, "Our Duty as Christians" was well prepared by the leader, Miss Darby. There was a good attendance and much interest was shown in the subject.

Cary Loosely, one of our old students visited the Normal Thursday.

Mrs. Nadie Singleton, a member of the Senior class, has been quite ill this week.

The Enterpen club will meet Saturday evening at the home of Miss Mabel Pelton.

Newson and Underwood, druggists, are the latest addition to the mercantile establishments of Klamath Falls. The store has been fitted up and will be in charge of Mr. Newson. We bespeak for this firm a cordial welcome and liberal share of patronage. They have equipped their store very handsomely and installed a first class stock of drugs, perfumes, stationery and cigars.

John Uerlings has had several of his chickens killed during the week by bird dogs. Mr. Uerlings' patience is about exhausted, and he is seriously thinking of adopting the motto of "dead chickens; dead dogs."

5000 Reward.
I will pay the above reward for a watch my repair department cannot put in perfect running order. L. Alva Lewis.

Registration of Land Title

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath.

REGISTRATION OF LAND TITLE
In the matter of the application of Sarah E. Taylor to register the title to the following described land to-wit: Beginning at a point 60 feet north 33 degrees 45 min. west, of a point 60 feet north 28 degrees 45 min. east, of the northeast corner of Block No. 12 in the City of Klamath Falls (formerly Linkville) according to the original plat of said city as recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon; thence North 21 deg. 15 min. West, 261 feet; thence North 28 deg. 45 min. East, 155 feet 9 inches; thence South 51 deg. 15 min. East, 120 feet; thence South 28 deg. 45 min. West, 155 ft. 9 in to the place of beginning containing two acres, save and except a piece or tract of land described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point on lot North 31 deg. 15 min. West of a point 60 feet North 28 deg. 45 min. East, 155 feet 9 inches; thence South 51 deg. 15 min. East, 120 feet; thence South 28 deg. 45 min. West 155 feet 9 inches to the place of beginning, which was conveyed to Maris Mitchell 1885; also a certain right of way deced to the Big Klamath Pulp Company, commencing at a point where said ditch enters said land of Sarah E. Taylor first above described on the west side thereof, and running as it now runs, that is to say in the same course and direction through said land, the said tract being taken in fee of the size and dimensions between terminal points and along the line thereof as follows, to-wit: Sixteen feet wide measuring from the lower or southern side thereof, which is also excepted from this petition.

Now, therefore, unless you appear on or before the 15th day of April, A. D. 1906, and show cause why such application should not be granted, the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the application and you will be forever barred from disputing the same.

GEO. CHASTAIN, Clerk.

AFTER SHAVING

Almond Cream is a pleasing emollient after shaving. Tender faces which the razor seems to irritate lose all their smarting under Almond Cream's soothing effect. Use Almond Cream for any skin irritation. It is limpid and imperceptible on the skin, yet exerts a healing result that feels good.
