A Runaway Match Nearly Causes Tragedy

With horses wet to their ears and fed with foam two young people drove into Klamath Falls one day this week. They were greatly agitated, and it was quite evident that something was amiss. They made hasty inquiries of one of our citizens and drove to the office of a well known firm. Soon after reaching there, things got lively, and one of the firm, accompanied by the young man, made a quick trip to the court house. Our curiosity was aroused by all this mysterious business, and investigation proved it to be a runaway match. Hardly had the knot been tied and other matters arranged, when the irate father of the bride appeared on the scene, and it was with difficulty that he was restrained from sending the young man into eternity. He was persuaded to sit down and listen to an explanation. He then learned that his son-in-law was a friend of Horning & Casey, the bustling and up-to-date real estate men, and that by their efforts he had carried out his wishes. In addition he learned that the young couple had purchased a home, the deed for which was recorded when Mr. Horning and the young man went to the court house. "Well, if that is the kind of judgment you have, young man," said the now mollified father-in-law, "I welcome you. A man who has sense enough to do business with Horning & Casey will never go wrong. They are up-to-date, have the best bargains and always find what their customers want."

JONATHAN BOURNE, JR.

Republican Candidate for United States Senator.

CHAMPION OF STATEMENT ONE

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., candidate before the Republican primaries for the nomination of United States Senator in Congress, for the long term commencing March 4, 1907, was born in New Bedford, Mass., February 23, 1855; was a member of the class of 1877 at Harvard University; came to Portland May 16, 1878; was a Republican member of the Oregon Legislature in the session of 1885 and the extra session of 1886; was one of Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention of 1888 and Oregon's member of the Republican National Committee from 1888 to 1892, and a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1892; and was elected as a Mitchell Republican to the Oregon Legislature in 1896.

Mr. Bourne has been more prominently identified with the development of the mineral resources of Oregon than any other man in the state, having expended in the last 20 years over $1,000,000 of his own money in the acquisition and development of Oregon mines.

While Mr. Bourne has had his residence and main office at Portland since 1878, he has had another office at New Bedford, Mass., and has carried on the business of his father's estate since 1889, which makes him familiar with many of the large interests and leading men in the east. These qualifications, in conjunction with his tremendous energy, originality, executive ability and experience in business and political affairs pre-eminently qualify him for making an able and influential Senator for the State of Oregon.

Mr. Bourne has always favored extending the direct power of the people over their government as far as possible. He was one of the leading spirits in the Initiative and Referendum movement from 1896 until it was approved by the voters at the June election in 1902. In 1904 he was a member of the executive committee of the Direct Primary Nominations League, and holds the same position with the People's Power League at this time. In all these movements he has been one of the few to guarantee the necessary expenses of preparing and proposing their measures to the people.

He says that the choice of United States Senator should be by direct vote of the people, and that the Legislature should be compelled to elect the man the people select. To accomplish this result, he is championing Statement No. 1 of the primary election law as the only method by which public opinion may be crystallized and made effective upon the Legislature.

In his petition for nomination he says: "If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, favor:

- Republican Politics.
 - Amending National Constitution for People's Election of United States Senators.
 - Publicity Political Campaign Expenses.
 - National Control of Corporations in Interstate Commerce.
 - Rigid Exclusion of Asiatic Coolie Labor; Good Wages Make Good Citizens
 - Legal Limitation Labor Hours for Safety on Railroads.
 - Parcels Post, Including Rural Delivery.
 - Pure Food Laws.
 - Liberal Appropriations for Panama Canal, Coast Defenses, River and Harbor Improvements, Including Columbia, Willamette rivers, Coos, Yaquina and other Oregon harbors, Celilo Canal, Government Canal at Oregon City.
 - Fair Share of Irrigation Fund for Oregon.
 - Loyal Support of Successful Candidates.
 - Rigid Enforcement Statement One.
 - Recesses for Second Elective Term.
- I desire that the following statement be printed after my name on the nominating ballot:
- I WILL SUPPORT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S DETERMINATION THAT JUSTICE BE DONE ALL MEN.

WILLIS S. DUNIWAY
CANDIDATE FOR STATE PRINTER

At Republican Primary, April 20, 1906.

"I hereby pledge the people of Oregon a great reduction of the enormous cost of the office, if elected, and I declare upon my honor that I shall seek neither to perpetuate old abuses of the office nor engage in new schemes to loot the treasury."—Willis S. Duniway.

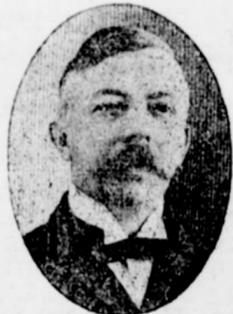

Willis S. Duniway is a man of sterling integrity and thorough knowledge of the printing business.—Portland Labor Press.

H. M. CAKE.

Candidate for United States Senator.

The growing interests of Oregon need a clean, young, energetic man in the United States Senate, and H. M. Cake, of Portland is that kind of a man. Those who know Mr. Cake and what he has done to make Oregon a more active, progressive state, know his fitness to fill the office of United States Senator.

No man in Oregon has been a greater factor in the movement to develop our resources and industries than Mr. Cake. He has devoted much time and energy at a personal sacrifice, to this work, with no thought of any form of personal compensation.

Mr. Cake is a champion of the policy of electing United States Senators by direct vote of the people and declares that if elected he will use every legitimate endeavor to bring about an amendment of the Federal constitution investing the people with this power.

He is on the side of the American workingman and strongly opposes the repeal or modification of the Chinese Exclusion act in the interests of cheap pauper labor.

For an Examination

For the purpose of selecting an appointee as Midshipman at the United States Naval Academy, the Hon. Binger Herman will give a competitive mental and physical examination, open to all boys in the First Congressional District of Oregon, between the ages of 15 and 20 years, at the State house in Salem, on Thursday and Friday, March 22nd and 23, 1906, before a board consisting of the Hon. J. H. Ackerman, Superintendent of Public Instruction, chairman; Prof. C. C. Boyer, of Willamette University; Hon. A. M. Crawford, Attorney General; Prof. W. C. Smith, M. D. Hon. R. E. Lee Steiner, M. D., and Henry McConnell, secretary. The subjects of the examination will be, writing and spelling, arithmetic, algebra, plane geometry, English grammar, composition and English literature, geography, American history and Civil government.
