

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

E. J. MURRAY, Editor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.
TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday, March 29, 1906.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and repealing elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of this act," approved February 24, 1905, the People's Power League of Oregon duly filed in his office on February 21, 1906, an initiative petition containing 8542 signatures properly attached to the said act, and duly certified in accordance with law, denouncing that a proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon to be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of said Constitution, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws," which said proposed amendment is hereinafter particularly set forth.

Now, THEREFORE, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act, hereby make and issue this Proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that the People's Power League of Oregon has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto and, demanding that there be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906, said day being the first Monday in said month, a proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws," which said proposed amendment is as follows:

"Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon shall be and hereby is amended by inserting the following section in said Article IV after Section 1 and before Section 2, and it shall be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV:

"Section 1A. The referendum may be demanded by the people against one or more items, sections or parts of any act of the legislative assembly in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete act. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an act shall not delay the remainder of that act from becoming operative. The initiative and referendum powers reserved to the people by this Constitution are hereby further reserved to the legal voters of every municipality and district as to all local, special and municipal legislation of every character in or for their respective municipalities and districts. The manner of exercising said powers shall be prescribed by general laws, except that cities and towns may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers as to their municipal legislation. Not more than ten per cent of the legal voters may be required to order the referendum, not more than fifteen per cent to propose any measure by the initiative in any city or town."

Done at the Capitol at Salem, this 28th day of February, A. D. 1906.

(Sd) GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor.

Huge Drainage and Irrigation Project.

The following by Guy Elliott Mitchell has been sent to every paper in the United States, and will doubtless produce results:

In the "Land of Burnt out Fires" lying near "Where Rols the Oregon" is a corner of our country brim full of nature's wonders, and which was once better known than it is today as the scene of the terrible Modoc massacre. In this nearly uninhabited region the engineers of Uncle Sam are busy on a huge drainage and irrigation work which may be considered the most unique of any of the government projects. It is known as the Klamath project, and its lands and waters are directly bisected by the Oregon-California boundary line. Most of the lands to be reclaimed, however, are in Oregon.

It is a vast plateau region, lacking in rainfall, yet wealthy in soil and adorable in climate, and wanting only irrigation to support in comfort a very great population. Oregon's immense valleys and smooth benches lie, as they have lain for centuries, awaiting the advent of water to blossom into productivity. Uncle Sam has promised the water for some of this great region, and the rush of settlers in that direction indicates that the home builders will be there when it comes.

The Klamath project involves a great work of drainage, irrigation and storage in unusual combination. Of the 400,000 acres in the Klamath Basin, 250,000 are to be irrigated under the project at a cost of over $4,000,000, but which makes the acreage charge a small one. Klamath lake and Tule lake are two great sheets of shallow water of nearly 150,000 acres in extent, which are to be drained and converted into small irrigated farms. These will probably be among the richest agricultural lands in the world. Tule rushes have grown in these for centuries and they are almost musk beds. Other lands are to be irrigated through the construction of dams and the conversion of Upper Klamath lake, Clear lake and Horseshoe reservoir into great storage basins.

NEVER FOUND TO BE LOST AGAIN. The waters from Clear Lake reservoir will find its way on to the irrigated

JONATHAN BOURNE, JR.

Republican Candidate for United States Senator.

CHAMPION OF STATEMENT ONE

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., candidate before the Republican primaries for the nomination of United States Senator in Congress, for the long term commencing March 4, 1907, was born in New Bedford, Mass., February 23, 1855; was a member of the class of 1877 at Harvard University; came to Portland May 16, 1878; was a Republican member of the Oregon Legislature in the session of 1885 and the extra session of 1886; was one of Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention of 1888 and Oregon's member of the Republican National Committee from 1888 to 1892, and a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1892; and was elected as a Mitchell Republican to the Oregon Legislature in 1896.

Mr. Bourne has been more prominently identified with the development of the mineral resources of Oregon than any other man in the state, having expended in the last 20 years over $1,000,000 of his own money in the acquisition and development of Oregon mines.

While Mr. Bourne has had his residence and main office at Portland since 1878, he has had another office at New Bedford, Mass., and has carried on the business of his father's estate since 1889, which makes him familiar with many of the large interests and leading men in the east. These qualifications, in conjunction with his tremendous energy, originality, executive ability and experience in business and political affairs pre-eminently qualify him for making an able and influential Senator for the State of Oregon.

Mr. Bourne has always favored extending the direct power of the people over their government as far as possible. He was one of the leading spirits in the Initiative and Referendum movement from 1893 until it was approved by the voters at the June election in 1902. In 1904 he was a member of the executive committee of the Direct Primary Nominations League, and holds the same position with the People's Power League at this time. In all these movements he has been one of the few to guarantee the necessary expenses of preparing and proposing their measures to the people.

He says that the choice of United States Senator should be by direct vote of the people, and that the Legislature should be compelled to elect the man the people select. To accomplish this result, he is championing Statement No. 1 of the primary election law as the only method by which public opinion may be crystallized and made effective upon the Legislature.

In his petition for nomination he says: "If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, favor:

- Republican Politics.
- Amending National Constitution for People's Election of United States Senators.
- Publicity Political Campaign Expenses.
- National Control of Corporations in Interstate Commerce.
- Rigid Exclusion of Asiatic Coolie Labor; Good Wages Make Good Citizens.
- Legal Limitation Labor Hours for Safety on Railroads.
- Parcels Post, Including Rural Delivery.
- Pure Food Laws.
- Liberal Appropriations for Panama Canal, Coast Defenses, River and Harbor Improvements, Including Columbia, Willamette rivers, Coos, Yaquina and other Oregon harbors, Celilo Canal, Government Canal at Oregon City.
- Fair Share of Irrigation Fund for Oregon.
- Loyal Support of Successful Candidates.
- Rigid Enforcement Statement One.
- Roosevelt for Second Elective Term.

I desire that the following statement be printed after my name on the nominating ballot:

I WILL SUPPORT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S DETERMINATION THAT JUSTICE BE DONE ALL MEN."

An Exciting Experience.

Last Monday witnessed one of the hottest contests ever held in this city. It was over a piece of property placed in the hands of a local real estate firm for sale. It was a bargain, and two parties wanted. Negotiations were on for some time, and noon Monday was the time set to close the deal. Both parties made a race for it, landed about the same time, got worked up to a high pitch and then began to bid up the property. There was only one end to it—the highest bidder got it. "That's the best bargain I ever made" said the man who got it. "I'm glad I put my property in the hands of Horning & Casey, for they certainly can do business for a man," was the opinion expressed by the owner of the land sold. Try them and see.

AFTER SHAVING

Almond Cream is a pleasing emollient after shaving. Tender faces which the razor seems to irritate lose all their smarting under Almond Cream's soothing effect. Use Almond Cream for any skin irritation. It is limpid and imperceptible on the skin, yet exerts a healing result that feels good. 25 cts and 50 cts per bottle CITY DRUG STORE MAIN STREET, KLAMATH FALLS
