

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

E. J. MURRAY, Editor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.
TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday, June 14 1906.

From Exchanges.

The vote in Oregon seems to be emphatic this time against woman suffrage. Six years ago it was lost by a small margin. This time the majority is about 10,000 against allowing the women to vote. At the same time the people show a strong inclination to sit down on anything fathered by the liquor interests of the state. Note the vote on the proposed amendment to the local option law which is buried by the avalanche of votes.—Ex.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has leased nine floors of the new Flood building which stands at the corner of Market and Powell streets, San Francisco. These accommodations will house all the general offices of the company and no doubt form the nucleus for all the railroad and steamship companies having ticket offices in the California metropolis.

W. F. Reed has returned from Klamath county, where he went in search of G. E. Mabce, who sold him J. W. Derriam's team and wagon. He bought a ticket for Thrall, Calif., when he left here, but probably did not stop there.—Southern Oregonian.

The contract for building the proposed school house at Central Point has been let to C. H. Veghte of Ashland, for $13,500, that of Henry Clark of Grants Pass, $13,300 being rejected because it was not accompanied by the required check. There were two other bidders, Geo. W. Priddy and H. Snook.

Major C. E. Worden and Capt. J. W. Siemens, president and cashier of the bank and trust company recently organized at Klamath Falls, were in Ashland today, and left for Portland this evening, looking up equipment for the new institution which expects to open for business Sept. 1st.—Tidings.

John McKee and son Wallace of McCloud are preparing to build a sawmill at the south end of Upper Klamath lake at a cost of $30,000. The timber will come from Hyron mountain. They expect to have the mill in operation by next fall. The machinery for the mill is now on the summit between Laird and McCloud, where it was left last winter owing to the storms after it was started to the south end.—Siskiyou News.

A pool of 123 timber claims in Crook and Klamath counties was sold in Albany, Saturday to the Deschutes Lumber Company for $196,800 or $1000 per claim. About 100 of the claims were owned by Albany people and were taken up in the great rush for timber land about four years ago. The sale was effected by means of a pool of the claims and was handled by the holders of the claims themselves.

Chas. Parrish and Roy Hamaker have purchased 150 acres of land from H. S. Parrish which lies near the Casey place in the valley, the price being $30 per acre.

B. E. Hayden and wife arrived Monday from the North Platt government project. Mr. Hayden will be located here this summer where he will have charge of the drainage part of the Klamath project in the Merrill region.

Merrill is to have two new churches before the end of the year. Recently it was announced that the Presbyterians were to build at once and now the Methodists are to have a place of worship. Rev. R. E. Dunlap was here last week from the Falls completing the preliminaries for the building. It will be in the Terwilliger addition east of town and is to be erected at a cost of about $15,000. The main room is to be 28 by 50 and the lecture room 14 by 28.

Some of the stone is now on the ground for the Presbyterian church foundation and the lumber has been ordered from the Turner mill. Work is to be pushed on this church as rapidly as possible.

Part of the timbers are on the ground for the rebuilding of the bridge across Lost river in Merrill. Flackus Brothers secured the contract for the reconstruction.

Frank Worley met with a very painful accident last Saturday which cost him the fore finger of his left hand and the badly lacerating of the thumb and two other fingers. Mr. Worley was working at the Rhoads saw mill and in some way got his hand in the cut-off-saw. He was brought to town and Dr. Patterson found it necessary to remove the fore finger but the others were dressed and will be saved.

For Sale—The span of stallions formerly owned by Hervey Lindley, Esq. $750 spot cash. Can be seen at Thrall, Cal. E. T. Abbott, General Manager, Klamath Lake railroad. 2w

The Long Thoughts of Youth

"Mamma!"
"Yes, dear."
"Mamma, why did my hair have to be red?"
"Why, I don't know, darling. It just happened so, I guess."
"Did you pick out the color, mamma?"
"No, dear. It just happened to grow that way."
"Well, did papa pick it out?"
"No, it just chanced to grow that color, dear. I guess God made it so."
"O, God picked it out for me, did He?"
"I don't know that He exactly picked it out, dear, that is, I don't know that He—well, you know, He didn't exactly say your hair would have to be red, but He rules everything, you know, even the birds and little fishes."
"Well, He didn't give any of the birds or little fishes red hair, did He?"
"No, but then that's different, you know."
"I don't see why it's different, mamma. Didn't He know I didn't want red hair?"
"Why I don't know, child. He probably didn't think about it."
"Well He knows everything, doesn't He? He wouldn't have to think about it to know it. Why couldn't He just as well give me a color I like? He has plenty of brown hair, hasn't He?"
"I suppose so, dear. But then, we must take what God gives us and try to be satisfied."
"But why did He give it to me when I didn't like it? I never did anything to Him, did I?"
"No, child. But that's His will, you know. We mustn't ask why."
"But don't you think it's sort of mean for God to give me red hair just because He wanted to? He had plenty of brown hair. Why didn't He give me brown?"
"Hush, child. God loves you. You mustn't talk so."
"Well, mamma, if you loved anybody, would you go and give them red hair to wear around all their life?"
"No, I don't know that I would."
"Well, don't you think God loves me as much as you do?"
"Yes, much more."
"Well, then, why did He give me red hair?"
"I don't know child. We must not try to inquire into His purposes."
"Do you s'pose, mamma, there's any red hair in heaven?"
"No, dear; we'll all have new bodies there."
"Well, we'll have red hair, won't we?"
"I guess so, dear."
"Why isn't it likely to be red hair, then?"
"Why, it will all be different there, child. We'll all have golden hair there."
"Well," (with a deep sigh) "it will be a big relief to be able to go out on the street without hearing somebody say, 'Here comes that brick-top Perkins kid again!'"—J. W. Foley in Success.

For Sale—320 acres good farming land two miles due West of Klamath Falls at $15 per acre. Also my home ranch at Keno, Oregon. E. A. Emmitt. If
