The final vote for the three leading candidates for Goddess of Liberty was: Bertha Hammond, 169/4; Elsie Jamison 6585; Stella Engle, 5454.

Too bad the fireworks were n. g., but the committee cannot be held responsible for that. They bought them in good faith, and if they were blown out that Sacramento outfit, the fault does not rest at the door of the committee.

The invocation was said by Judge J. B. Griffith, followed by a quartet by Mesdames Galarneau, Krause, Henry and Miss Mae Worden. The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Alex Martin Jr., mayor of the city, who said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, fellow citizens, each and everyone of you, it is with great pleasure that I as chief executive of this city, a city we hope to see in the near future extend from the lake on the south to the great lake on the north, a city in which we are confident that in the near future we can number its inhabitants by the thousands, and in the county by the tens of thousands, I extend to you a most hearty and cordial welcome on this day of national rejoicing. We are living in a country loved by every native and adopted son, whose heart throbs with pride as he gazes upon the national emblem of freedom and realizes he is under a government based upon truly representative principles and laws. Again, in behalf of the city of Klamath Falls I bid you a most hearty welcome on this our day of independence.

The Declaration of Independence was then read by W. S. Slough. The quartet by J. B. Mason, Alex Martin, Jr., Burg Mason and Will Landon was followed by the oration of the day by Hon. C. T. Bonney, who sustained his reputation as a finished orator and whose patriotic sentiments were most cordially received by the vast concourse of people who gave his remarks the closest attention. His address was an able one.

At The Fair Grounds.

Immediately after lunch the people moved towards the fair grounds where the principal contests of the day were held. Every available seat and point of vantage was occupied long before the hour of beginning arrived, and intense interest was manifested in every event on the program. Following is the result:

50-yard race: J. C. Cravens, 6 sec.
20-yard fat man's race: Guy Merrill, 4 sec.
100-yard race: J. C. Cravens, 12 1/4 sec.
Little girls 20-yard race: Josephine Brantlach.
Tug of War, won by the Woodman of the World. First tug was a tie; second tug won by 3 inches.

Baseball game, Yreka vs. Klamath Falls, was a walk-away for the home boys, who trimmed the visitors to a tune of 24 to 4.

1/2-mile and repeat, horse race, won by Little Jim, 37 sec.
Second, by Little Jim in 38 seconds.
One mile saddle horse race, won by Lost River Ballie, time 1:57.
1/2-mile dash, Little Jim, 59 sec.

The proceedings at the grounds were a great success, and were witnessed by upward of 1500 people.
The great high dive from the Baldwin building would have been a thrilling spectacle, had it not been marred by injury to the diver, whose leg was badly smashed. The accident resulted in the loss of considerable saw-dust, and necessitated repairing.

The firemen's contest was won by hose company No. 1. This contest was very close and was attended by considerable excitement.
The log-rolling contest was won by Jack Kerr.

The fireworks on the lake were not attended by the same success accorded the events of the day. This was due to the inferior quality of the stuff shipped in here, and the Sacramento house from whom the goods were purchased bilked the committee good and hard. It supposed the house was a reputable one but if the goods shipped here are typical of the character of the house it is a good thing to give it a wide berth.

July 5 Events
The seven-mile launch race was won by launch Mae, owned by Major C. E. and W. S. Worden, time 56:49.
Swimming contest, won by John Perry, first, Jerry Martin, second, and Sam Woodard, third.
100-yard, boys under 18, won by V. Houston.
100-yard, won by J. C. Craven.
Girls race, under 17, won by Audrey Farrar.
50-yard, boys under 15, John Nelson.

Horse Races.
1/2 mile and repeat, Bessie Shirley.
1/2 mile dash, Little Jim.
1/2 mile pony race, Blanche R.
3-year old, Flora E.

The baseball game between the Klamath Indians and Klamath Falls nines was won by the latter on a score of 14 by 6. The Indians put up a good game but at no time was there any danger of the home team losing.

NOTES.

Mrs. E. B. Hall, representing Merrill and Whitelake. Mrs. John S. Shook, representing Dairy, Mrs. Louis Gerber representing Bonanza, Mrs. Alex. Martin, Jr., and H. Boivin representing Klamath Falls were appointed as a committee of awards on floats, and made the following selections: 1st—Buena Vista Addition; 2nd—Modern Woodmen of America; 3d—Team of mules, driven by Misses Marie McMillan and Bessie Hammond; 4th—Farmers' Implement & Supply Company; 5th—K. K. K. store.

Frank L. Applegate made an ideal Uncle Sam.
The thoughtful consideration shown the little ones by M. L. Burns and Tony Castel after the parade, shows that their hearts are in the right place.

The improvement in the Military band was quite marked, and the boys were complimented on all sides. They made a fine appearance.

Those old familiar spiels of "popcorn, peanuts, lemonade" and "You'll have to hurry to see the greatest living" etc., would have led one to believe there was a circus in town or that he was back on the Trail at the Portland fair.

The merry-go-round made its appearance here on the Fourth, but did not reap a harvest. Due no doubt to the absence of an engine and the asthmatic organ.

M. L. Burns, and corp of assistants, are deserving of unstinted praise for the success of the day. It meant a great deal of hard, thankless work, but they can get a good deal of satisfaction out of the fact that they "skinned" anything of the kind ever seen here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin, Jr., gave a home picnic to many of their friends on the Fourth. The refreshments served on their extensive lawn were greatly enjoyed.

The Fourth was marred by the absence of disorder and drunkenness. No accidents were reported and only two insignificant run-aways are chargeable to the event of the day.

The Yreka boys made a host of friends here by their manly conduct. They played the game for the sport there was in it, and exhibited at all times a gracious and cordial feeling. It is to be hoped that Yreka will always be represented by such a gentlemanly contingent.

Everyone was satisfied with the results of the celebration. Every business house was taxed to its utmost to serve its customers.

Every lemon in the city was used up on the Fourth, and all the ice cream was gone by 10 p. m.
Much favorable comment was made on the Farmers Implement and Supply Company. It was certainly an unique, practical and effective exhibit, and well deserved the distinction accorded it by the Judges.

Presented Virtue.
"My family," said the daughter with the mild blue eyes and saintly expression, "have no sympathy with my aims. All I want is to do good in the world. I do not care for balls or theaters, or operas. But papa does not appreciate these motives, I am afraid."

"O, yes, I do, dear," said her parent, with a sigh, "I appreciate your motives all right, only if you would confine yourself to balls, and theaters, and so on, instead of philanthropy, it would be a lot easier on my pocket book."—Washington Times.

Bound to Be Delivered.
"I don't believe you will be able to deliver all the speeches you have prepared."
"Oh, yes, I will," answered the congressman. "I may not be able to deliver them to my colleagues on the floor, but I'll deliver them to my constituents through the post office."—Washington Star.

No Hypocrite.

Better take off your hat, Sary; all the other whin folks has theirs off.
His Wife—Let them, the brass things! Nobody'll ever have a chance to say that I'd do anything in a show-place that I wouldn't do in church.—Brooklyn Life.

Domestic Bliss.
Younghub—This coffee, my dear, reminds me of what my mother used to make.
Mrs. Younghub (flattered)—Does it, really?
Younghub—Yes. I used to think my mother made about the worst coffee in the village.—Chicago Daily News.
