THE COLUMBIA HYDRAULIC RAM

PUMPS AWAY UNCEASINGLY WITHOUT ANY ATTENTION

THE COLUMBIA HYDRAULIC RAM is a simply constructed and inexpensive machine that can utilize a small fall of water for the purpose of raising a portion of it to any desired height. It is the farmer's friend in the "dry season" and is indispensable to those owning land high above ditches. It will furnish water for domestic purposes, even elevating pure water of the spring by means of the impure or muddy water, as found in some streams. Requires no attention. Practically no cost of maintenance, there being no parts to get out of order. A ram will pay for itself in a short time. Every ram installed is giving utmost satisfaction. We keep a large stock constantly on hand. Write to our Hydraulic Department today for illustrated literature.

PUTS BAN ON LOVE BY MAIL

Postmistress Issues Cruel Manifesto Against the Boys and Girls at Glassport, Pa.

Pittsburg, Pa.—The postmistress of Glassport, Mrs. R. M. Russell, who is past the "spooning" age, is not popular with the young men and women of that town.

A flood of letters has poured through her hands of late. How the postmistress knew they were love letters is something the young people of the town are determined to fathom.

When they reached the post office they read a notice which said that no more "love making" would be permitted in the post office and that "all boys and girls under 18 years of age must have a written order from their parents before mail is delivered."

Mrs. Russell says the young people of the neighborhood have been stimulating their love affairs through the United States mail, many tender missives being exchanged. She says the parents complained, and to protect herself she posted the notice. "If the young people declare they will use their influence with the department to find out how the postmistress knew love letters were being received. Meanwhile McKeesport, three miles away, shows an increase in mail, Glassport young people exchanging correspondence through that office now.

BEAR LIVES IN HERMIT HUT

Administrator Unaware of Grizzly's Presence Until Knocked Through the Entrance.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Near the old San Gabriel mission, within nine miles of this city of 200,000 souls, a hermit has lived for many years in a little adobe hut. He died and was buried. Not having any known relatives, Deputy Administrator Petermelick went out to the shack to take charge of the old man's effects.

In the 40 years that Senor Don occupied the adobe, no living soul, save himself had crossed its threshold. As the hermit died suddenly away from the shack the deputy was the first one to break the solitude of the dwelling. When he pushed open the door it was so dark inside that objects were not distinguishable, so he stepped inside. Then he was confronted by a grizzly bear which rose to his hind feet and with a blow of his paw sent the deputy flying through the door. The deputy did not stop to inventory the property, but took to his heels. The bear followed him out to the shack and then struck out in the direction of the mountains. It is thought that bruin found the door of the shack open and entered, and that the door then got pushed shut by the bear, making him a prisoner.

CINDERELLA TRIES POISON.

Girl Forced to Stay at Home While Sisters Enjoyed Pleasures Would Die.

New York.—Because her elder sisters could go to dances and theaters while she was forced to stay, Cinderella-like, at home at night after working to help support the family by day, pretty little Pauline Katz, 18 years of age, living on Second avenue, attempted to commit suicide by swallowing wood alcohol.

Prompt work by an ambulance surgeon saved the girl's life, but after being saved she sobbed that she wished to die, and threatened to attempt her life again if she had the opportunity.

For weeks Pauline has brooded over her lot in the long evening when she stayed at home after hard days of toil as a buttonhole operator in a downtown clothing factory. She worked at the machine all day, and on Saturday turned in her wages to help run the home.

She longed for the pleasures of life, but her parents told her she was too young, and forbade her going to dances or theaters or receiving the attentions of young men.

ARMLESS GIRL PLAYS BALL.

Fourteen-year-old Mary Ada Hendricks, who lives at Ansel, Wayne county, Ky., was born without arms, but she does not allow that infirmity to stand in her way of enjoying life. She plays many musical instruments with her toes, and is particularly expert with the banjo and guitar. By placing a stool above the keys of a piano she can play several pieces in a creditable manner. She also manipulates an accordion, and she can get more music out of one of those instruments than the ordinary person in full possession of arms and hands. She can catch a rock between her toes and throw it, and almost any bright afternoon she may be seen playing baseball much better than the average boy.
