(Bonanza Bulletin)
Born—to the wife of Thos. Michael on the 13th., inst., a baby girl.

Postmaster Clifton was kicked by a horse Thursday evening with such impetus, that he has since required the aid of crutches.

C. H. McKendree on Wednesday purchased the Edler beef at Keno Springs for L. Gerber, paying 4 and 5 cents for them weighed at Horton's later on. This is a good buy and the beef are fine.

Mrs. Ida Gibson, of Alturas, Cal., arrived overland Tuesday afternoon to attend at the bedside of her son, Fred Vinson, whom she found convalescing. Mrs. Gibson expects to remain in town until Fred has sufficiently recovered to be taken to Alturas, and then take him home with her, as Dr. Johnson forbids him doing any work this summer.

Evangelists Mr. and Mrs. Risley, who have been holding revival services in Bonanza since June, are meeting with phenomenal success, thirty-seven people having been baptized, among whom were, according to correspondence in the Lakeview Examiner: "Mrs. Edith Siskel, Mrs. B. A. Ragan, Mrs. Geo. Maxwell, Mrs. Earnest Hamaker, Messrs Ernest Brigham, James Nichols, Clarence Davis, Mrs. Cora Brown, Misses Sadie Brown, Winola Forbes, Leona Bean, Erma Hoagland, Marie Harpold, Mrs. Burnham, Mrs. F. C. Bechold, Misses Ella Nichols, —Bray, Messrs Will Sparks, V. H. Stevens, Otto Hishaw, J. O. Hamaker, A. D. Harpold, Ollie Robinson, Mrs. J. O. Hamaker. It is hoped that the good work is by no means through when the good brother and sister Risley go on their way, but will unite and help one another and take up their cross and follow Christ and prove faithful unto death, in the prayer of his unworthy servant."

(Lakeview Examiner)

Clarence Snider, who has been taking a medical course in a Portland school returned to Lakeview last Thursday with his mother for his vacation. Miss Mae Snider stopped at Klamath Falls to visit with friends at that place for a short time. Clarence had the mumps while at Ashland.

Judge H. L. Benson and his son-in-law, Mr. Briggs, paid this city a visit last week. The judge was here on a little matter pertaining to his office as circuit judge, but not to hold a session of circuit court. Mr. Briggs is interested in a condensed cream factory in California, and was here in the interests of his company.

(Lakeview Herald.)
Judge H. L. Benson and his son-in-law N. C. Briggs, the latter of whom represents the Alpine Evaporated Cream Co., were in Lakeview for a few days this week. The judge said his daughter told him to say that the cream was the best in the world, he was doing it and consequently Mr. Briggs was selling lots of it. We think Mr. Briggs must be "a awful good salesman" and the cream all right as in spite of the reputation for truth and veracity, borne by the members of the legal fraternity, he sells it.

H. Snook, the contractor, well known here, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the woman's building at the O. A. C. for $69,000.

Attorney-General Crawford has decided that a man who filed on a homestead but has no other real estate is not a frecholder in the same sense that entitles him to be one of six witnesses required to swear in a vote on election day.

A party composed of Misses Edna Wells and Mae Mault and Percy Wells and Earl Jackson left Wednesday afternoon on a two months trip to Pelican Bay, Crater Lake and Ft. Klamath. At Pelican Bay Miss Jennie Courtwright and Robt. Clay will join the party.

Nestling in the state treasury is $50,000 in cash, while $67,000 in property has also been turned over to the state. This is the unexpended balance of the $500,000 appropriated by state for the Lewis and Clark Exposition and to enable Oregon to make a showing at the St. Louis Fair. Out of the $500,000 appropriated, the Commission erected a state building at St. Louis and equipped it with exhibits. For the Lewis and Clark Exposition the Commission put up all the public buildings and provided the state and county exhibits. After all these expenses the Oregon State Commission was still in a position to turn back $50,000 in cash, for which it holds the receipts of the state treasurer, and property valued at $67,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Owen and daughter, Miss Minnie, are expected home this week from a visit with relatives at Bly, Klamath county.

Miss Leta Nickerson, the sweet soprano singer, well known in Ashland, has opened a class in vocal music in Klamath Falls.

(Nesford Oregonian)
W. W. Finley, of Sprague River, Klamath county, has been visiting relatives and friends living in Jackson county. They were accompanied home by Waldo Klum their nephew, who has been quite sick.

(Medford Tribune)
M. B. Orr has just purchased the old Vaughn place about three miles from Fort Klamath of 320 acres. This is all hay land and was bought by Mr. Orr for investment.

(Yreka Journal)
A new postoffice has been established on Joe Creek in the Elliott Creek section of Siskiyou county, just south of the Oregon line. There are about 150 persons in that section, which ought to be formed into a school district and voting place, but it is too late now for this year.

(Merrill Record.)
Bob Baldwin has forsaken the harness business and is wrestling with his hay crop. His father, Wallace Baldwin, came down from the Falls, and is tending shop.

A great deal of complaint has been made lately about the condition in the county road where it crosses the irrigating ditch at Frank Grayhale's. It is stated on good authority that there is a drop of two feet almost straight down into this ditch and it is almost impossible for a team to pull an empty wagon across it, let alone a loaded one. The road supervisor ought to look after this.

Geo. Wilson has returned from Portland where he went to investigate the cost of a brewing plant. He decided not to purchase such a plant at present but did invest in a soda manufacturing and beer bottling plant. Mr. Wilson states that he will be in trim to make soda within the month. As to the beer bottling part for the present he has not yet decided as to putting it into operation for the present but purchased it to have ready for future use. He will erect a building near his residence on Front street for the establishment.

FOUND GUILTY

Jury Returns Verdict Against Nickell And Hoge

At 12:17 o'clock Thursday the jury in the Federal Court returned a verdict of guilty against Martin G. Hoge and Charles Nickell, both of Medford. They were recommended to the clemency of the court.

The two men were charged, along with Henry W. Miller and Frank E. Kincart, also of Medford, with the crime of having conspired to defraud the United States out of portions of its lands. Both Miller and Kincart had already pleaded guilty, and their testimony was used to convict the other two defendants. The indictment against the four men had been returned January 31, 1905.

Following the recent purchase of the Sunnyside irrigation canal in Washington, Acting Secretary Ryan of the Interior Department, today ordered the Reclamation Service to take over and pay $50,000 for the Ankeny canal, which form an important part of the Klamath project in Oregon. There is no good reason why this property should not have been acquired by the Government a year and a half ago, but the Department attorneys advised that Mr. Ankeny and his sister did not hold title to some few small tracts, traversed by their canal worth in the aggregate $200 or $300 though they had been using this property without protest ever since the completion of their canal.

Had these pettyfoggers had their way, the Government would not have purchased the canal until Mr. Ankeny could convey title to every foot of right of way to the Government, which might have involved years of litigation. The Reclamation Service feels that Ankeny's title is perfectly good to all intents and purposes, and if any question is hereafter raised the Government can buy the isolated tracts traversed by canal at the outside cost of $50.

Had the canal not been paid for now, it might have been a dozen years before the Government could have opened up the first unit of the Klamath project. Now it is probable that this will be completed in 1907. In cutting the red tape, Mr. Ryan acted entirely on the recommendation of the Reclamation Service.—Oregonian.
