

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

E. J. MURRAY, Editor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.
TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Or., Thursday, September 13, 1906.

This issue of the Republican is printed by electric power, and again the Republican claims the distinction of being the pioneer in the newspaper field of Klamath county in this respect. This is only another step toward maintaining our place in the front rank of Oregon newspaperdom. More are to follow, and when our plans are finally completed the Republican will be one of the best equipped newspapers, plants in Oregon. While we have been devoting our time and energies in this direction we have not forgotten our readers, and shortly will give them opportunities to take advantage of that they have never had before. Good things are in store for our readers; watch for them.

The Republican printery is preparing a twenty-page program for the fair. It will be neatly arranged owing to the greatly improved conditions of the mechanical department. With the new power press, the first, by the way, in Klamath county, and other needed improvements, a first class job is assured. The work will be off the press not later than the 21st and the aim is to send a thousand or more throughout the basin to aid in the stimulation of attendance at the greatest fair in the history of Klamath county. The racing feature promises to be one of the strong cards. Good horses are headed this way and there will be some lively events during the three days. The display in the horticultural building will undoubtedly be the best that has so far been arranged or presented. The farmers and the citizens in general are taking hold and it has settled down to be of general interest among all. All are boosting for the fair and that is what is making it so greatly talked about.

BIG TROUT THRIVE IN CRATER LAKE

The Portland Journal says: Camping parties and tourists who lately returned from Crater Lake National Park, state that fish are now abundant in Crater lake, as a result of the "plants" put there by the government several years ago. Catches of 50 and 60 are reported by several camping parties and the fish caught were large and fat, some of them having a length of 20 inches. The fish are a special lake trout and unlike any other fish known to Oregon lakes and streams.

Until these were placed in Crater lake there were no fish of any kind in the "sea of silence," and because of the entire absence of vegetable matter, it was believed that the lake would always remain a "dead sea." Aside from a peculiar little water dog or lizard, there were no living things in the lake, and the rock-walled shores are void of vegetation, with the exception of stunted hemlocks. The water is very cold and pure and so void of any mineral matter or foreign substance that it offers but little resistance to floating things, so that leaves, twigs and sticks remain on the surface but a little while.

Superintendent Aarnt, at well as the hundreds of people in Oregon and other sections of the country who visit the park each year, are highly elated over the results of the fish "plant" in the lake, and believe it will be a favorite and popular fishing ground in a few years, as the fish appear to be multiplying very rapidly.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the many friends who assisted in the recovery of the body and the burial of our son, William, who met such a sad and untimely death.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Conklin.

Treasurer's Notice

Notice is hereby given that there are funds in the county treasury for the redemption of all outstanding Klamath county warrants, protested on and prior to July 6, 1903.

Dated, Klamath Falls, Ore., this 21st day of September, 1906.

L. ALVA LEWIS,
County Treasurer.

During the present warm weather and as a preventative of sickness, Dr. Mason, the Health Officer, advises the consumer to boil the water before using it, whether it is taken from the city mains or wells. In this way he believes the bowel complaint which is usually prevalent at this season of the year can be avoided.

Rev. R. E. Dunlap pastor of the Methodist Church left this week for Portland, where he will attend the conference of his denomination. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dunlap, and they will make the trip overland.

There will be no services in the Catholic Church Sunday, owing to the absence of Father Fouai from the city. He will hold services in Merrill on Sunday.

In the current number of the Sunset is an article on the Klamath Project by C. J. Blanchard of the Reclamation service. It is carefully illustrated, and is a valuable document for reference purpose.

W. O. Hill of Fort Klamath was in the city this week making final arrangement to sell his 240-acre ranch, for which he has been offered $20 per acre.

Elmer Applegate, Frank Ira White and H. L. Holgate, delegates to the National Irrigation Congress, returned from Boise Thursday evening.

Whenever you want freight from the railroad send an order to Jas. B. Moore at Pokegama and you will get your freight promptly.

A. Kirschner, a well known resident of this county for many years, will leave this week for his former home in Mills, Nebraska.

G. F. Vose of Fort Klamath came down from his ranch Saturday, and temporarily relieved the butter famine.

A. Castel left yesterday morning for Portland, where he will join his family and remain for about one week.

KENO KINKS

Mr. Robbins has sold his interest in the saloon to Mr. Dyre.

The ocean salmon are now making their fall run up the Klamath.

Mr. Madison's new house is looming up under the management of Took and Ladd.

Mrs. Pratt's new house, barn and wood-house are now completed and ready for the paint. Mr. Mead did the work in fine style.

Field—In this city, Tuesday, September 11, Elmer B. Hale, aged 39. Mr. Hale came here from Goldfield recently, and has been employed by Mason, Davis Co. Death was due to an abscess on the liver. Funeral services were held today in the parlors of Funeral Director Whitlock. The deceased is survived by his father and one brother who reside in Humboldt county, Calif., a sister in San Francisco and a brother who resides here.

Mr. Farlow of Medford and Mrs. Elsie Potter of Picard were united in marriage at the Keno hotel Tuesday, September 4. Rev. Smith of Klamath Falls officiating. Mrs. Potter was Henry Picard's daughter and the wife of Geo. Potter, who was shot by Jack Snider a few years ago.

The Midway Bar

Courteous Attention is what all times appeals to any one. Among those who are seeking to be entertained and who want the best of attention they usually go where they can be assured of that courteous attention. It is easy at all times to get that attention if one knows where to go. One of the main and important reasons why the Midway Bar has gained such popular favor is owing to the most careful attention paid to customers. There is no better known or recognized good fellow than Billy Eulane, the manager. He takes as much interest in the business as though he owned it and he never allows it to be said that a person leaves his place who is dissatisfied. Another strong and striking reason why his business is growing in leaps and bounds is owing to the high class of goods he handles. He has stocked his place with the best on market and he sees to it that only the very highest grade of goods leave his establishment. If you are contemplating attending the fair and races do not forget to call at the Midway Bar if you are seeking for the very best to be had. There you will be royally welcomed and will return home with the knowledge that there are good fellows in Klamath Falls, and that there are good wine, liquors and cigars.

Notice!
