TRUANT LAW

Practically every school in Klamath county has opened for business, and the rapid increase in population has resulted in a marked growth in school attendance. For the information of the various school boards and parents, the truant law recently enacted by the legislature is herewith reproduced:

An act to amend an act entitled an act regulating the employment of child labor, and for the attendance of children at school, etc.

Sec. 2. No child under 14 years of age shall be employed in any factory, store, workshop, in or about any mine, or in the telegraph, telephone, or public messenger service.

Sec. 3. No child under the age of 14 years shall be employed in any work or labor of any form, for wages or other compensation to whomsoever payable, during the hours when the public school of the town, district or city in which he or she resides are in session.

Sec. 4. Attendance at school shall be compulsory upon all children between the ages of 8 and 14 years in all cities, towns and villages of the state of Oregon during the whole of the school term in the city, town or village in which the child resides, and upon all children in such city, town and villages between the ages of 14 and 16 who are not employed in some lawful work.

Sec. 5. No child under 16 years of age shall be employed, permitted or suffered to work in any employment enumerated in section 2, unless the person or corporation employing him procures and keeps on file and accessible to the school authorities of the district where such child resides, and to the police and board of inspectors of child labor an age and schooling certificate as hereinafter prescribed, and keep a complete list of all such children employed therein.

Sec. 6. Any person or corporation who shall employ a minor contrary to the provisions of this act, or who shall violate any of the provisions thereof, shall be guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than $10 nor more than $25 for the first offense, more than $25 nor more than $50 for the second offense, and be imprisoned for not less than 30 nor more than 30 days for the third and each succeeding offense.

Sec. 7. Any parent or guardian who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or allow any child under their custody or control to be employed contrary to the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $5 and not more than $25.

Parents and others contributing to the "delinquency" of children are also punishable by heavy fine, as the following section of the Act of 1925, page 298, explains:

Sec. 1. In all cases where any child shall be a delinquent child or a juvenile delinquent person as defined by any statute of this state, the parent or parents, legal guardian, or person having the custody of such child, or any other person, responsible for, or by any act, encouraging, causing or contributing to the delinquency of such child, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not to exceed $100, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The court may impose condition upon any person found guilty under this act, and so long as this person shall comply therewith to the satisfaction of the court, the sentence imposed may be suspended.
