

Bonanza Improvement Co.

IS OFFERING LOTS THIS WEEK FOR 30 DOLLARS

On the unique terms of ONE dollar down and the balance on time. Step into their office in the Hamaker Building and find out all about it.

2,000 acres of land for sale on any terms to the real settler . . .

BONANZA IMPROVEMENT COMPANY

SUMMER

Clearance Sale

At the Brick Store Co.

- >We are closing out all our Corsets.
- Broken line of Ladies and Children's Hose and Silk Gloves.
- Kid and Suede Gloves.
- Summer Lawns.
- Summer Shirt Waists.
- Summer Dress Skirts.
- We are giving dig Bargains in all Summer Goods, Fancy Silks, Laces and Embroideries

Remember

When you are in need of SHOES, that you will find a complete line at WILLITS, and at prices that defy competition.

When in need of CLOTHES that have fit style and workmanship, at Prices to suit your Pocketbook, you will find them at WILLITS.

L. F. WILLITS

Agent to His Majesty, the American Gentleman, for first class goods

SUMMER FAVORITES

TOILET CREAM—For Tan and Sunburn
ANTISEPTIC SOLUTION—Disinfectant and Germicide
BLACKBERRY CORDIAL WITH JAMAICA
GINGER—Diarrhea and Summer Complaint
LITTLE LIVER PILLS—The Ideal Laxative

Chitwood's • Drug • Store

CITY BRIEFS.

Blue vitrol at Star Drug Store.
Fine watch repairing. L. Alva Lewis.
Fresh drugs at Newsom & Underwood.
New patterns in dinner sets at K K K STORE.
Belts—Dozens of designs—at The Novelty.

Just arrived at Alva Lewis's, new line of jewelry.

Chittwoods Toilet cream will cure sunburn, tan and freckles.

For a safe investment, see Campbell & Burns, the home sellers.

Rev. W. G. Smith is in Roseburg in attendance at the Presbytery.

You will miss it if you don't buy a lot in the Hot Springs Addition.

G. F. Vose of Fort Klamath was in the city during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall of Whitelake were visitors in the city this week.

Gold moulded records for the Edison phonograph at Newsom & Underwood.
15 cases fall and winter styles Walk-over shoes just arrived, K K K STORE.

All kinds of notions and novelties at The Novelty Store. Biggest line in the city.

Waited—Lady cook for restaurant, two lady dish washers, four waiters, Apply at from 2 to 5 p. m.

W. R. Brown has some more of those good Missouri Shorthorns for sale. See him at Klamath Falls.

Chop Suey and Noodles at the Log Cabin Restaurant and Chop house. Wong Yoke and Wong Yee, proprietors.

There is sure profit for the early buyers in the Hot Springs addition. Ask some of those who have bought and sold.

Mrs. Alice L. Foster, a prominent Christian Scientist, was the guest of Mrs. R. E. Nickerson during the past week.

L. A. Davison of Los Angeles has purchased the Palace restaurant, and will open for business next Monday or Tuesday.

The Hot Springs Improvement Co. are preparing to set out several thousand shade trees on their beautiful addition, near the Hot Springs.

Miss Clara E. Rutenic, who left here sometime ago to visit her parents in Cleveland, Ohio, writes that she is greatly improved in health.

R. B. Hammond, who has been spending his vacation here, last Saturday returned to Eugene where he will resume his studies at the university.

FOUND—Came to Pelican Bay lodge, one bay mare, brand D. C., on left hip and E on left shoulder. Owner may have same by paying all charges.—J. H. Rice.

The Hot Springs people are opening up a quarry east of the Hot Springs tract, where they will obtain crushed rock to use on the streets and sidewalks.

L. A. Duffy, who has disposed of his interests in the K. K. K. store to his partner, J. A. Houston, left for San Diego this week, where he will spend the winter.

C. D. Whittaker, who is visiting relatives in New Jersey, writes he is having a good time, but expects to return here soon. He was formerly Attorney Rutenic's law clerk.

Manager Smith is busy installing the new machinery in the steam laundry. Over 11,000 pounds have already been received, and it will not be long before the new plant will be in operation, a fact which every one will be glad to know.

Judge Webster, of Portland, one of the Republican candidates for the nomination of United States senator at the last primaries, passed through this city this week on his way to Lakeview, where he goes to defend W. Z. Moss, accused of horse stealing.

The attendance at the public school is now 303, an increase of 70 in three weeks. It is expected that before January 1 the attendance will be close to the 400 mark. The enrollment at the high school is 70. This is a fair indication of the phenomenally rapid growth of Klamath Falls.

The improvements made on the Klamath Navigation Co.'s building have just been completed, and will impart a favorable impression on all visitors as they enter the city. This company has shown by its enterprise that it has the welfare of the city at heart and is deserving of the patronage it is receiving.

The Northwestern Guarantee and Trust Co., of Portland, Oregon, will lend you money at

Six per cent

on first mortgage city or farm security.

See Klamath Commercial Agency,

Klamath Falls, Oregon, Klamath County Representative.

At the Methodist conference held in Portland last week, Rev. R. E. Dunlap and Rev. H. L. Grafion were assigned to this city. Rev. C. A. Stockwell, formerly of this city was assigned to North Yamhill, and Rev. W. B. Pepper, formerly in charge at Fort Klamath is returned to his charge at Elkton. Rev. J. L. Beatty, formerly of the Klamath Indian Mission, will be at Cottage Grove.

The O'Mally Sisters, who appeared at the opera house last Saturday and Sunday were all right. They gave a very creditable entertainment, and Manager Houston has redeemed his reputation. Owing to an ordinance prohibiting the issuance of a license for Sunday night performances, where admission is charged, a free show was given. The house was packed with people and enthusiasm. To meet expenses a collection was taken up, with the understanding that only those who considered the performance worthy of a contribution would give. The result was that the collection was better than the receipts would have been if admission had been charged.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Heitkemper, Jr., and little son, arrived here last Thursday. Since then Mr. Heitkemper has been busy arranging for the opening of his jewelry store in the new Republican block. This establishment, which will be a replica of the famous Heitkemper jewelry store of Portland, will be open for business about October 20, and will be the finest of its kind in Southern Oregon. This community is glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Heitkemper, and they will undoubtedly be important factors in the social and business life of this city.

Postmaster Murdoch is pushing work on the new postoffice with all possible vigor. So many obstacles have arisen, however, that it will probably be the first of November before patrons will receive their mail at the new office.

The fixtures have arrived, and are of the finest quality, the woodwork being of quarter-sawn oak, keyless boxes, iron and brass trimmings and beautifully finished.

When finally completed this city will have a postoffice of which it may be proud, and one that will reflect much credit on Postmaster Murdoch.

Mrs. Edna Quimby Hill died at Sisson Cal., last week, of heart trouble. She was the wife of David Hill and daughter of E. E. Quimby, both former residents of Fort Klamath. The remains were taken to Eugene for interment Sunday. The Eugene Guard says she had been ill for several weeks but had written only a few days previous that she was much better and expected to start for Eugene the day of her death. The news of her death came as a great shock to her folks.

Yesterday President Wilkins of the Klamath Navigation Company, John Stults, J. W. Straw and a representative of the Republican visited the reef.

The trip was made for the purpose of securing data upon which to make an estimate on the cost of blowing a channel 30 feet wide across this troublesome obstruction. The work will be done under the direction of Mr. Straw, and when completed will enable the Navigation Company to greatly increase their cargoes.

T. C. Norris and his 16-year-old son were severely injured at Odessa last Thursday by having a huge log roll from a truck and pinioning them against a tree. The young man had his hip broken, and was brought to this city for treatment, Dr. Merryman being the attending physician. Mr. Norris sustained a number of bruises, but his injuries are not serious.

While engaged in towing a raft of logs last Sunday the propeller of the Steamer Klamath came in contact with a rock, and two of the flanges were broken off. The damages did not, however, prevent the steamer from making her dock. The Navigation Company has the necessary blades on hand, and the repairs were quickly made.

Mrs. Henry Bagby, Mrs. Wm. Dunlaney, John Lambert and Jos. Moore left Tuesday to locate on timber claims.

They found what they wanted about eight miles from Chase's Station. On their return trip they stopped and fished near the dam across Klamath river and caught fine salmon-trout.

Mrs. J. C. Sigler returned Wednesday evening from an extended visit with her daughters at Yakima and Bickleton, Wash. Her son James, remained and is attending the Bickleton school.

Dr. White, who has been on a short visit to Medford and Grant's Pass, returned home yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. White, who has been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

It will pay you to see F. W. Berger, the Portland contractor, now of this city, for anything in the building line. Plans and specifications furnished.

Miss Edith Chapman and Mrs. S. S. Mitchell, who have been the guests of Mrs. Horace V. Mitchell, returned to their homes in Ashland, Tuesday.

Kimonas—fleece-down—pretty patterns and latest design. Just the thing for the dressing room. The Novelty has them.

When in need of anything in the medicine line, just call at Newsom & Underwood. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Just received from the factory a beautiful line of ladies' cravatines and children cloaks.—Boston Store.

F. E. Ankeny left for Portland and Eugene Tuesday, where he will visit his father, Hon. H. E. Ankeny.

If you want good fresh creamery butter, go to Mitchell's Fruit Store for it.

Cash paid for ranch eggs at Mitchell's Fruit Store.

The O'Mally Sisters, who appeared at the opera house last Saturday and Sunday were all right. They gave a very creditable entertainment, and Manager Houston has redeemed his reputation.

Owing to an ordinance prohibiting the issuance of a license for Sunday night performances, where admission is charged, a free show was given. The house was packed with people and enthusiasm.

To meet expenses a collection was taken up, with the understanding that only those who considered the performance worthy of a contribution would give. The result was that the collection was better than the receipts would have been if admission had been charged.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Heitkemper, Jr., and little son, arrived here last Thursday.

Since then Mr. Heitkemper has been busy arranging for the opening of his jewelry store in the new Republican block.

This establishment, which will be a replica of the famous Heitkemper jewelry store of Portland, will be open for business about October 20, and will be the finest of its kind in Southern Oregon. This community is glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Heitkemper, and they will undoubtedly be important factors in the social and business life of this city.

Postmaster Murdoch is pushing work on the new postoffice with all possible vigor.

So many obstacles have arisen, however, that it will probably be the first of November before patrons will receive their mail at the new office.

The fixtures have arrived, and are of the finest quality, the woodwork being of quarter-sawn oak, keyless boxes, iron and brass trimmings and beautifully finished.

When finally completed this city will have a postoffice of which it may be proud, and one that will reflect much credit on Postmaster Murdoch.

Mrs. Edna Quimby Hill died at Sisson Cal., last week, of heart trouble. She was the wife of David Hill and daughter of E. E. Quimby, both former residents of Fort Klamath. The remains were taken to Eugene for interment Sunday. The Eugene Guard says she had been ill for several weeks but had written only a few days previous that she was much better and expected to start for Eugene the day of her death. The news of her death came as a great shock to her folks.

Yesterday President Wilkins of the Klamath Navigation Company, John Stults, J. W. Straw and a representative of the Republican visited the reef.

The trip was made for the purpose of securing data upon which to make an estimate on the cost of blowing a channel 30 feet wide across this troublesome obstruction. The work will be done under the direction of Mr. Straw, and when completed will enable the Navigation Company to greatly increase their cargoes.

T. C. Norris and his 16-year-old son were severely injured at Odessa last Thursday by having a huge log roll from a truck and pinioning them against a tree. The young man had his hip broken, and was brought to this city for treatment, Dr. Merryman being the attending physician. Mr. Norris sustained a number of bruises, but his injuries are not serious.

While engaged in towing a raft of logs last Sunday the propeller of the Steamer Klamath came in contact with a rock, and two of the flanges were broken off. The damages did not, however, prevent the steamer from making her dock. The Navigation Company has the necessary blades on hand, and the repairs were quickly made.

Mrs. Henry Bagby, Mrs. Wm. Dunlaney, John Lambert and Jos. Moore left Tuesday to locate on timber claims.

They found what they wanted about eight miles from Chase's Station. On their return trip they stopped and fished near the dam across Klamath river and caught fine salmon-trout.

J. C. Sigler returned Wednesday evening from an extended visit with his daughters at Yakima and Bickleton, Wash. His son James, remained and is attending the Bickleton school.

Dr. White, who has been on a short visit to Medford and Grant's Pass, returned home yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. White, who has been visiting relatives for the past six weeks.

It will pay you to see F. W. Berger, the Portland contractor, now of this city, for anything in the building line. Plans and specifications furnished.

Miss Edith Chapman and Mrs. S. S. Mitchell, who have been the guests of Mrs. Horace V. Mitchell, returned to their homes in Ashland, Tuesday.

Kimonas—fleece-down—pretty patterns and latest design. Just the thing for the dressing room. The Novelty has them.

When in need of anything in the medicine line, just call at Newsom & Underwood. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Just received from the factory a beautiful line of ladies' cravatines and children cloaks.—Boston Store.

F. E. Ankeny left for Portland and Eugene Tuesday, where he will visit his father, Hon. H. E. Ankeny.

If you want good fresh creamery butter, go to Mitchell's Fruit Store for it.

Cash paid for ranch eggs at Mitchell's Fruit Store.

The O'Mally Sisters, who appeared at the opera house last Saturday and Sunday were all right. They gave a very creditable entertainment, and Manager Houston has redeemed his reputation.

Owing to an ordinance prohibiting the issuance of a license for Sunday night performances, where admission is charged, a free show was given. The house was packed with people and enthusiasm.

To meet expenses a collection was taken up, with the understanding that only those who considered the performance worthy of a contribution would give. The result was that the collection was better than the receipts would have been if admission had been charged.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Heitkemper, Jr., and little son, arrived here last Thursday.

Since then Mr. Heitkemper has been busy arranging for the opening of his jewelry store in the new Republican block.

This establishment, which will be a replica of the famous Heitkemper jewelry store of Portland, will be open for business about October 20, and will be the finest of its kind in Southern Oregon. This community is glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Heitkemper, and they will undoubtedly be important factors in the social and business life of this city.

Postmaster Murdoch is pushing work on the new postoffice with all possible vigor.

So many obstacles have arisen, however, that it will probably be the first of November before patrons will receive their mail at the new office.

The fixtures have arrived, and are of the finest quality, the woodwork being of quarter-sawn oak, keyless boxes, iron and brass trimmings and beautifully finished.

When finally completed this city will have a postoffice of which it may be proud, and one that will reflect much credit on Postmaster Murdoch.

Mrs. Edna Quimby Hill died at Sisson Cal., last week, of heart trouble. She was the wife of David Hill and daughter of E. E. Quimby, both former residents of Fort Klamath. The remains were taken to Eugene for interment Sunday. The Eugene Guard says she had been ill for several weeks but had written only a few days previous that she was much better and expected to start for Eugene the day of her death. The news of her death came as a great shock to her folks.

Yesterday President Wilkins of the Klamath Navigation Company, John Stults, J. W. Straw and a representative of the Republican visited the reef.

The trip was made for the purpose of securing data upon which to make an estimate on the cost of blowing a channel 30 feet wide across this troublesome obstruction. The work will be done under the direction of Mr. Straw, and when completed will enable the Navigation Company to greatly increase their cargoes.

T. C. Norris and his 16-year-old son were severely injured at Odessa last Thursday by having a huge log roll from a truck and pinioning them against a tree. The young man had his hip broken, and was brought to this city for treatment, Dr.