

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

E. J. MURRAY, Editor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.

TWO DOLLARS THE YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Klamath Falls, Or., Thursday, November 1, 1906.

ADDITIONAL EKLIPS.

A large number of citizens from Yonma valley were in the city last Saturday, being in attendance on the contest case of Peter Peter-Steiner vs. Wm. Wight, among them being Messrs. Fred Beck, Mike Roock, C. C. Pearson, Chas. Flackes and George Scurth, besides the principals to the affair. The land in controversy lies a mile east and a quarter north of Dalry, and has been occupied by the defendant Wight as a home for the past 18 years. He first filed on it as a timber culture claim, and after letting the time run out, three years ago filed on it as a homestead, having first taken the quarter north of it as a pre-emption claim. In the meantime the lady whom he afterwards married had taken the quarter still north of that as a homestead, and while her claim was pending he filed on the quarter in controversy as a homestead. The claim of the contestant is that Wight as the head of the family, had more land than the law allowed for a homestead claimant.

J. L. Tefford and son are going to increase their facilities for boat and launch building, and have leased a lot on Klamath Avenue, near Center Street on which they are going to erect a 50x24 foot building. This firm has demonstrated its ability to "deliver the goods," and those of this city who can afford to indulge in the luxury of a launch have been quick to realize it. The result has been that Messrs Tefford have been crowded with work during the past year. The coming season promises to be far ahead of this year's business, and they are going to take time by the forelock and put up a shop that will meet the demand.

C. E. Scott, broke his leg near the knee joint last Sunday morning. The accident occurred at the Stearns place, where the outgoing stages stop for breakfast. He was brought to this city and taken to the Klamath House, where he received the proper medical attention, Dr. Maston and Cartwright reducing the fracture.

While scuffling with a friend at the rear of the Log Cabin restaurant last Sunday evening, Leo Craddock lost his balance and fell from the platform to the ground, a distance of about six feet. As a result he received a severe cut on the head requiring medical attention.

Miss Straw entertained a large party of her friends last Saturday afternoon. 500 was played, Dr. Ida S. Stone being the lucky winner of the handsome hand painted vase. Refreshments were served and a most pleasant afternoon was enjoyed.

E. L. Coleman, who is issuing a special edition of the Merrill Record, is in the city for the purpose of gathering data for his work. He is a luster and promises to have one of the best papers of its kind ever issued in Southern Oregon.

Theodore Bryant, son of Rev. J. W. Bryant, who went to Redlands, Calif., sometime ago, is in a critical condition, the change having been of no benefit to him, a fact his many friends will regret.

G. Heitkemper, Sr., the well known jeweler of Portland, is in the city. He is here for the purpose of aiding his son in fitting out the jewelry store he will shortly open in the Republican block.

The Twenty one Club will give the second of the series of dances to-morrow evening. If the last one is a criterion, it is certain that those attending will be sure of a very enjoyable evening.

For sale.—Good three room cottage with two lots, will be sold at a bargain. Also one cook stove and one heater. Enquirer at my place near the high school.—L. A. Martin.

The President has issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation, this year designating November 29 as the day for indulgence in turkey—if you can find one.

Mrs. J. A. Sullivan and child of Upper Lake, Calif., arrived here last week to join Mr. Sullivan, and make this their future home.

Capt. M. S. Hazen, who has been employed on the Columbia and its tributaries, took charge of the steamer Klamath last Sunday.

Mrs. H. E. Cronemiller, mother of F. P. Cronemiller, left for California this week, where she will remain for the winter.

M. D. Williams, county surveyor, left for Lakeview last Monday, and will be absent about ten days.

Shallock & Daggett have let a contract to Telford and son for a 20-foot launch.

Quite a number of lots have been sold in the Hot Springs Addition during the past few days. Among the purchasers are Frederick Mueller, of San Francisco, Oscar L. Carter, of Dallas, Ore., D. B. Campbell, of the Klamath Development Co., and G. W. White, of the First National Bank.

A large force of men and teams commenced work on the street car line this week, and the work will be vigorously prosecuted until the track is completed through the entire Hot Springs Addition.

A. M. Taylor has the contract for the building of a large two-story brick on the Hot Springs Addition and will commence work immediately.

Do you want the best there is in Life insurance, based upon a clear, comprehensive statement of Income, Expenses and Payments to Policyholders? These figures have been published frequently and as far as I know, are undisputed. If they do not "tell the story," then I know of no method whereby a man can intelligently select his Life Insurance and we may as well "go it blind," as many probably have done in the past. Use the same judgment in selecting your Life Insurance that you do in your business and there need be no "vain regrets."
