

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

The only way some people know is their way.

Hospitality is often nothing more than loneliness.

A secret is never safe after some one knows you have it.

If you are naturally rude it's pretty hard to disguise the fact.

Are you so conceited that you believe people never talk behind your back?

The trouble is some pushers are as liable to push on the wrong side as on the right.

Watch your side issues. Don't give them so much attention as to ruin your main issue, which makes you a living.

Don't be mad if you are interrupted when you are talking. It may have prevented you from saying something foolish.—Arlinson Globe.

Why They Got No Mail.

An official of the postoffice department at Washington tells of a new postoffice that was established in a certain small town. A native of the place, the proprietor of a grocery, was installed as postmaster. It was not very long before complaints were filed with the department that no mail was being forwarded from the new office, so an inspector was detailed to investigate the matter. When he called upon the postmaster and asked why no mail had been sent out, the former pointed to a large mail bag hanging up in a corner and said:

"The mail's in that bag. I ain't sent it out yet because the bag ain't nowhere nigh full."

Belt's Generosity.

One of the many persons whom Alfred Belt, the diamond multimillionaire, had befriended repaid him with ingratitude and abuse. Later the ingrate fell on evil times. Though down in the gutter, he still had a little shame left and would not ask Mr. Belt for help. The South African diamond magnate sent for one of the unlucky one's friends and said: "Go and see So-and-so. Ask if he wants any help and give it to him, but don't let him think it is from me. I have had a difference with him, and perhaps it would annoy him."

Politics.

"Mornin', congressman. I"—

"Well, it's old Jim Smith. Jim, how are you? Have a cigar, Jim."

"Thought I'd come around to tell you that I'd moved out of your district, but"—

"Indeed, Mr. Smith."

"You see, I wanted to find out if"—

"Yes, Smith."

"If you could use your influence to"—

"Sorry, my man, but I can't stop. Good morning."—Puck.

She Suspected It.

"Why, Mrs. Parvona, this is unmistakably an old master," said the enthusiastic caller.

"That's just what I told John. I'll send it back to have it repainted and a new frame put on."
