Jacobs & Co., proprietors of the Busy Boston Store, wish to announce to the wearers of men's fine clothes, that they are the sole representatives of Kuh, Nathan & Fisher Company, the Sincerity Tailors, and that they have just received a large shipment of this clothing so justly renowned for its fit, finish and quality. They will be always pleased to have any one call and examine this line; and, also, the famous Acorn Brand, that has given so much satisfaction in the county.

ADDITIONAL BRIEFS

Are you taking any of the dollar magazines now? If so, you can get it, two other magazines and The Republican one year for $2.50.

Died, in this city, Tuesday, November 20, William Toibu. Death was due to perforation of the bowels. Mr. Toibu has been employed on the ditch. The remains were shipped to Valley, Wednesday, for burial, where the deceased is survived by a sister, Mrs. Emma Gee.

The largest goose reported killed this season was brought down by Geo. Nowlin the first of this week. It was a huge honker measuring 5 ft. 8 in. from tip to tip of its monster wings and weighed 12½ lbs. J. F. Nowlin also killed a honker that weighed a little less than did his brother's.

The telephone company has decided to erect a two story office building at the corner of 3rd street and Klamath avenue. It will be a frame structure 28x54. This step has become necessary on account of the rapid increase of the business of the two companies which has rendered the present quarters inadequate to meet the growing demand for better accommodations.

EXCHANGES

[Ashland Tidings.]

Mrs. Alice S. Foster, who has been at Klamath Falls for a number of months, returns home to Ashland this afternoon.

Mr. Willard, who is preparing to engage in the dairy business in the vicinity of Klamath Falls, started across the mountains from Ashland Tuesday with a herd of twenty head of Jersey cattle which were shipped here by train from the Ladd farm near Portland.

[Lakeview Examiner.]

O. T. McKendree has moved from Lorella to Merrill. His wife has been on an extended visit to Ashland, while Mr. McKendree has been out on a sheep buying trip up in Crook county. Mrs. McKendree has returned to Merrill where they will reside this winter.

The most dastardly piece of work that human being ever stooped to perpetrate is being practiced in Lakeview the past two weeks. No less than eight different fires have been set in the town in the past two weeks. The first two were set in the jail a week ago Wednesday evening. On Thursday night the Mammoth Livery stables were set on fire, which resulted in the second largest fire the town ever had. Next morning three different fires were started back of the row of residences that did not burn north of the Livery Stable block. Thursday night another fire was started back of the Linville house, in the same vicinity, which was discovered by a man who was sleeping in a barn and who rushed to the fire and put it out. Then again on Saturday night of last week, a fire was started in George Reed's barn on Dewey street in the south end of town about 3 o'clock.

[Bonanza Bulletin.]

W. R. Davis, the Willow creek farmer and one of the leading spirits in the promotion of this section of the country, was a Merrill visitor Tuesday. Mr. Davis had been to the Falls where he had been looking after his interests in the Lake Shore Stage Co. The Steamer Klamath met with an accident Sunday consequently the passengers were driven over this end to the Falls. While here Mr. Davis purchased the new launch "Pelican," recently built here by Law & Slate, and it was moved over to the Merrill landing on Whitelake Wednesday where it was launched and run over to Laird. It is understood that the Pelican will be used in handling some of the passenger traffic on the lower lake. Mr. Davis, it is said, will place a much larger engine in the Pelican and it will otherwise be improved.

The Merrill Hotel will be opened Sunday. Mrs. Canon will take charge of the kitchen. The house has been refurnished through-out.

S. C. Graves, of the Republican staff, came in Saturday and remained over Sunday in the interest of that paper. The Republican is making an effort for the leading paper in Southern Oregon and is out for the benefit of the country. It deserves a liberal patronage from all sources. Success to you Chap.

Louis Gerber, who has been one of the owners of the Bonanza Bulletin has retired, and in future that publication will be published by J. O. Hamaker & Son. Mr. Gerber, while taking no active part in the management of the Bulletin, found that his other interests demanded so much of his time that he could not give any attention to the Bulletin, so resigned. Mr. Hamaker has the best wishes of The Republican.
