

"How Shall Ye Escape?"

The Scriptures may be a dangerous weapon to put into the hands of those who pervert their meaning, either intentionally or through want of understanding. Every one has heard how Lorenzo Dow, having resolved to preach a sermon against women's tall bonnets, took for his text the words "Topknot, come down," which he had ingeniously perverted from the lines: "Let him which is on the housetop not come down."

Less artful than this, but quite amusing, was the unconscious error made by a young student of theology at Wilbraham seminary, whose case was related by an old divine. The student went out one Saturday to preach his trial sermon. When he returned Monday the venerable Dr. X said to him:

"Well, how did you get along?"
"Oh, very well, I thought."
"Glad to hear it. What was your text?"

"How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"

"Very good text, very good text. How did you handle it?"

"Well, first I showed them how great this salvation was."

"That's right. And then?"

"And then I told them how they might escape if they neglected it."
