

FOR LADIES ONLY

This is for the female part of the family—so the men will please pass it by. Men are thoughtless animals anyway—unless their comfort is at stake, and then perhaps they don't sit up and take notice. Well, what the lady readers of The Republican want to do is to make their one-tenth set up and take notice in this case—even though it does not add so materially to his peace of mind. Every one of you like to get a magazine on fashions, household hints and the thousand and one things in which the ladies are interested. That other one-tenth of yours does not see wherein it will be of any benefit to you, but you do. So you just take matters in your own hands and tell him to go to The Republican office, pay for that paper in advance and get the free magazine it is giving its subscribers. Then if you want the Ladies Home Journal, Womens Home Companion, McCall's Magazine, or any of the periodicals that have so much in which you are interested, just tell him to pay the fifty cents additional and get the particular magazine for a year. Take our advice and do it to-day. And if he should forget (?), just take the money and attend to it yourself.

AN UNLUCKY SHIP.

Who Achieved the Grandest Exploit in Naval History.
The Bonhomme Richard was an unlucky ship. Paul Jones himself on taking command of her at Lorient, France, wrote a most doleful letter about her to one of his aristocratic patronesses in Paris. She was "a worn-out old Indianman," and "her forecastle is a babel." "Fourteen different languages are spoken in my forecastle," said Jones, dismayed at the appearance of his motley crew. "Two days out at sea the Bonhomme

Richard was fouled by her consort, the Alliance, and had her jib boom and foretopmast carried away. Jones then put back to Lorient, perfectly convinced of the unluckiness of his ship. But through that accident he found 114 American seamen who had just been released from English prisons by exchange. Among them was Richard Dale, whom Jones at once appointed first lieutenant. These all volunteered into the Richard, Jones promptly discharging enough of his polyglots to make way for them. Prior to that he had only about forty Americans. This addition made 154 fighting Yankee seamen, and they were the men who made the Scorpion sick a few weeks later off the east coast of England.

Both Alike.
The wife in the middle of the night was awakened by the loud snoring of her husband. She endured the horrible racket as long as she could. Then, pinching the man sharply, she said: "Herbert, you'd make less noise if you kept your mouth shut."
Herbert, sleepy and surly, muttered: "So would you."

To the People of Klamath Falls:

When I came to Klamath Falls I was fortunate enough to find a "ground floor" proposition in the Mitchell ranch, known by all old timers for its splendid soil, fine orchard and ideal location as "the best ranch in Klamath County."

Through the co-operation of men of wide experience in land matters this tract was acquired and has been cut into small tracts and offered at prices and on terms that will enable the purchasers to realize handsome profits. A portion of this has been platted into blocks and lots and is now the Mills Addition to Klamath Falls. It was the original intention to dispose of this addition in blocks only, but so great has been the demand for single lots that I have decided, for a short time, to give the people of this city and county an opportunity to buy in smaller area than originally planned.

The Mills Addition is located within about a thousand feet of the yard location of the California Northeastern Railway and within about three blocks of the depot site, as indicated on the new City Map. It is admirably located for homes, with the natural slope for drainage, requiring very little grading to make the streets, every lot being practically level and now in alfalfa, timothy and meadow grasses. Its location insures rapid increase in value, for the greatest growth of the city will inevitably be towards this property. I have the fullest confidence that this property will double in value in the next year.

It is the purpose to sell this property at a price that will allow the lot buyer to make something on the investment just as you are willing that the present owners should do likewise. These lots are to be offered one block at a time, beginning with one of the unsold blocks nearest the depot location (Block No 102) and the prices will be $200 for the corner lots and $125 for inside lots.

The lots are 50x120 feet, and this price makes them by far the best lot bargain offered in Klamath Falls.
