

Readers of the Republican who have subscribed for other magazines under our clubbing offer will receive the paper or magazine ordered one year from the date they get the first copy. The Republican had to have a certain number of orders before sending in the names. All magazines and papers will be ordered this week, so the subscribers ought to receive the February number of the periodicals they subscribed for. If after a reasonable length of time you do not get it, advise this office and the matter will be investigated. But please do not get impatient and enter complaint too soon.
